

Transients Will Be Ignored

The regular meeting of the Village Council was held on Monday night with all members present.

Messrs J. B. Belshaw, J. S. Morton and Jos. Wilson addressed the Council on behalf of the Horticultural Society, requesting the usual grant. They also asked the co-operation of the Council in the staging of a tree and shrub planting day in the village. This Society has accomplished much in the beautifying of the village and last year spent $137 toward this end. One of the projects is the cement walk along the edge of the pond, east of D. A. Burkitt's residence.

The Council gave the usual grant of $25 and the Council will co-operate as desired by the Society in its proposed Planting Day.

The question of trimming the elm tree which is much in need of same, was raised by Mr. Belshaw, but as this belongs to Mr. F. N. McKee, the Council had no jurisdiction over the same.

Mr. Murney Hagerman requested that the street at the south of his property be opened. He stated that some rubbish had been thrown on the street. The matter was left in the hands of the Street Committee and Sanitary Inspector for investigation.

Mr. Wm. Wallace desired repairs made on the street which runs past his property from Front street, to Mr. J. Preston's residence. This was also left with the Street Committee.

An account from a local hotel for $21 for feeding and housing transients caused a controversy. After considerable discussion the Council decided not to give accommodation to any transients from now until next winter, but would refer all returned soldiers to Mr. E. Dainard, President of the local legion, in accordance with the latter's request.

A ditch in front of E. Munro's residence, Church Street, will be cleaned out.

Constable Wickert reported that seventy-six contracts had been signed up for the summer water system. The Hydro Department will be instructed to plug all services not in use, and if anyone desires service after all connections have been made they will be charged the reason fee of $10, regardless of how late in the summer the request is made.

The report from the Board of Health re the water from permanent waterworks well was submitted and filed. The water was found to be A1.

Reeve West reported that a letter had been received from Long and Daley, Solicitors, Toronto, asking the Council to appoint a delegation to appear before the Municipal Board when the Debutante by-law is submitted. The following delegates were appointed: Reeve W. West, Councillor J. E. O'Donnell, Dr. C. F. Walt, Thos. Montgomery sr., and J. B. Belshaw. The delegation will go to Toronto tomorrow.

After passing accounts the Council adjourned at 11.15 p.m.

OPEN SATURDAY NIGHTS

Commencing next Saturday, the News-Argus office will be open for business every Saturday night until 10.30, during the summer for the accommodation of rural subscribers. This office will not observe the weekly Wednesday half-holiday, which commences next week as the mechanical department is closed down at noon on Saturday the year round.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY IN WOOLER

Mr. and Mrs. George Richards spent Sunday, April 24th, in Wooler, it being the annual gathering to celebrate Mr. Richards' birthday and that of a niece of Mr. Richards, Mrs. Bryant, of Wooler. The gathering was in the home of Mrs. Putnam. Aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews to the number of twenty-one and one guest, Mrs. Lane, of Belleville, sat down to the sumptuous dinner served at 1 p. m. and a very enjoyable time was spent in reminiscing over old times. Among the number was Mrs. Fairman, of Belleville, and her daughter, who teaches at Bloomfield.

New Country Club for Stirling—A great boost for all the men.

WATER O. K.

A report has been received from the Department of Health, Toronto, on the sample of water, taken from the well, for the permanent waterworks. This water is first class. It was claimed that it will not cause goitre, as has been the case with some hard water.

DOGS KILL HENS

A complaint has been made to the News-Argus about dogs killing hens in the village and district. Owners of canines are held liable for all damages if the guilt can be placed on the dogs. However, sometimes that is difficult to accomplish, with the result that the chicken owners suffer the loss.

CHICKS FOR QUEBEC

Cranston's Poultry Farm has gained an enviable reputation throughout the Dominion for producing strong and healthy White Leghorn chicks. Last week the proprietor, Mr. Thos. Cranston, received an order from the Government of the Province of Quebec for 3500 baby chicks. This speaks highly for the local chicken hatchery.

STROKE IS FATAL

Just before going to press we learned that Mr. John Foreman suffered a paralytic stroke, which proved fatal, while engaged in rolling, on his farm in Rawdon, about 8.30 this morning. Mr. Foreman, along with his grandson, was walking behind the roller, when suddenly he fell to the ground. The grandson immediately gave the alarm and Coroner Alger was summoned. It was discovered that he had passed away when the malady attacked him.

MEETS NEXT TUESDAY

Efforts are being made to form a local Tennis Club and for the purpose of electing officers and making arrangements for the coming season a meeting will be held on Tuesday, May 10. The High School Literary Society has made plans for the erection of two courts on the High School grounds with complete equipment, and many of the local fans have signified their desire to form a club in conjunction with the Literary Society. A good attendance is desired in order that fees may be decided upon and these will be made as low as possible as the Club will not endeavor to make anything over the bare operating expenses. The game is sure to find a large following in Stirling, so don't forget to be on hand next Tuesday night at 8 p.m. at the Agricultural office.

Half Holiday Starts Next Week

Yesterday afternoon a petition was circulated amongst the local merchants for the purpose of inaugurating the weekly Wednesday half-holiday next week. The following merchants signed, thereby agreeing that the weekly half-holiday will commence next week instead of June 1st, as has been the case in past years. The petition was for the holiday to be observed during May, June, July, August and September.

"BE SENSIBLE" — BABSON

Boston — "Be sensible! There are no logical reasons for the extreme current pessimism." That is the message of Roger W. Babson, well-known economist, in a stirring letter of confidence to his clients over Canada and United States. People have gone crazy in selling today, just as they went crazy in buying three years ago, says Babson. "The greatest opportunities of a generation are before us today," he advises. "Do not now repeat the foolishness of the past by missing the opportunities of 1932."

Car Thief Is Caught Here

That Constable Harry Wickert is on the job, was proven last week when he checked up on a young man by the name of Fred Hanson, London, who has been around the village for a couple of days. Mr. Harry Francis, for whom he was working, became suspicious after discovering a few articles stolen shortly after Hanson's appearance. Constable Wickert was called, and after searching the suspected man's room, some of the loot was found. Hanson also confessed that the car he was driving did not belong to him, or that the owner in Toronto did not know he had it, although, he claimed, that it was his intention to return same that day. The young man displayed considerable nerve in more ways than one, for he had the free use of a car from a local garage, on a plea that he had a prospect for a sale in Tweed. However the prospect was a myth and he had a free ride to that town, where he investigated a prospect for a job. Constable Wickert summoned Provincial Constable Stringer, of Belleville, who came to Stirling on Saturday and arrested Hanson. He was taken to Belleville and appeared before Magistrate Mikel in police court on Monday morning on several charges. He pleaded guilty to the theft charge and other charges were not read as his case was enlarged for sentence, until the crown could ascertain more about the past of the young man. Provincial Constable Stringer produced a signed statement by Hanson whereby he admitted that he had procured a motor car from a well-known Toronto car dealer by tendering him a forged cheque. Hanson bought the car in Toronto and signed the cheque under the name of Gordon Cunningham, of Tara, knowing that there was no such person. Constable Stringer confiscated the car in question and immediately notified the Toronto motor car firm. At the suggestion of the court Hanson was remanded in custody for one week, during which time his past record will be completely gone into. Hanson will be fingerprinted and photographed and his record, if any will be returned in time for his trial next Monday. Much credit is due Constable Wickert for his quick work in apprehending the thief.

HYDRO TRUCK ROBBED

On Wednesday night, last week, a thief or thieves who apparently are interested in a car, removed three tires, a rim, and a battery from the Hydro truck, which was parked at the side of the Community Hall. Apparently due to the depression, the culprits decided to secure a few accessories in the "a la light-fingered" manner. An investigation is being made.

A THRILLING PICTURE

A stampede of five hundred cattle is one of the spectacular thrills offered in "Riders of the Purple Sage" to be shown in Stirling Theatre tomorrow (Friday) night and Saturday matinee and night. An added thrill is provided when George O'Brien, featured in the leading role, out-rides the herd, and, by throwing the leader, stops it just on the brink of a cliff. Marguerite Churchill and Noah Beery are featured in this greatest of Zane Grey's stories with O'Brien.

DISTRICT BOWLING CLUB

On the solid foundation of last summer's highly successful operations, the Central Ontario Lawn Bowling Association held their second annual meeting in Peterboro on Wednesday, last week. The 1932 administrative officers were elected as follows:

Hon. Pres.—H. B. Rosevear, Port Hope.
President—Dr. James T. Daley, Port Hope.
Vice-President—Capt. Hugh McCullough, Cobourg.
Secretary-Treasurer—Harold Battey, Port Hope.
Executive—E. A. Hircok, Cobourg; W. J. Oke, Port Hope; Dr. H. G. Carleton, Norwood; James MacKay, Lindsay; G. E. Karley, Brighton; George Woodley, Belleville; W. J. Whitty, Stirling; Harold Freeman, Peterborough.

No Increase in Teachers Salaries

The Board of Education holds its regular meeting on Monday evening last with the following members present: Chairman, J. B. Belshaw; and Messrs. E. G. Bailey, F. T. Ward, H. C. Martin, W. Wright, E. A. Luery, C. F. Linn, G. B. Bedford, J. S. Morton, Mrs. H. H. Alger and C. F. Walt.

E. A. Luery gave a detailed report of the meeting of the Trustees and Ratepayers' Association held in Toronto recently, and to which he was a delegate from the local Board. His report contained many helpful suggestions as outlined by the various prominent speakers at the convention. It was moved and seconded by F. T. Ward and G. B. Bedford that the report be filed. Carried.

The proposition of a stoker in connection with the heating system of the High School was presented by a sales representative of a Belleville firm and the matter was laid over and left in the hands of the Committee.

Dr. Walt, Chairman of the Teachers' Committee gave an outline of the attendance figures at the Public School for several years, showing that the number enrolled had steadily increased in the last five years. "It is difficult," said the Doctor, "to deal with a situation such as this, and at the same time keep in mind the welfare of both the teaching staff and the ratepayers." It had necessitated the engaging of the fourth teacher in the public school. This year there are 145 pupils enrolled; last year 135 were in attendance; 2 years ago 111; 3 years ago, 118; 4 years ago 124. In Room I, the enrolment this year is 49; last year it was 50; 2 years ago, 31; 3 years ago 21. Serious thought had been given the matter and it was absolutely necessary that the Board should engage the extra teacher. It was outlined by the Chairman of this committee that, after careful consideration, the Committee had decided that no increases would be made in the salaries of the teachers. In Belleville even more drastic measures than those outlined to the local Board had been taken. It was felt by Dr. Walt that Stirling Board of Education should not alone shoulder the burden of helping to lower the County School taxes by keeping the salaries at as low as possible a figure and still maintain the high standard of the teaching staff. It would be possible, by incurring no more expense in this matter, to considerably aid the ratepayer by means of a reduction in the County school rate, but it was impossible, said Dr. Walt, for Stirling to act alone in this regard. No information was at present available with regards to the intentions of the Boards of Education in other surrounding towns, such as Tweed and Madoc. The matter is left in the hand of all the schools furnishing secondary education, if the taxpayer is to benefit. The matter of the Agricultural course in the local High School is still under consideration.

It was moved by J. S. Morton and seconded by G. B. Bedford that the Board adopt the plan suggested by the Teachers' Committee whereby the total cost of the teachers' salaries in High and Public Schools will not be increased even though it is necessary to employ an additional teacher.

J. S. Morton, Chairman of the Property Committee, reported that the sewerage system at the Public School had been found to be in an unsatisfactory condition and it had been necessary to replace the tile, most of which had been found to be broken. Certain

ONE-EYED CARS A MENACE

How often does the night driver get the impression that he is approaching in advancing motorcycle only to discover a few seconds later that it was another one-eyed highway menace. It is comforting to know that traffic authorities everywhere in Canada are concentrating this year on removing this danger to night driving. Driving with only one light, especially if it is the right hand one, leaves other drivers in doubt as to the type of vehicle and on a narrow road, is often disastrous. More than that, the driver with a single bulb has an insufficient illumination of the road and the other cars' stronger lights, even though not glaring, are often enough to blind him.

NEWS OF INT.

EVENING SERVICE HALF-HOUR LATER

Commencing next Sunday the evening services in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and St. Paul's United Church will commence at 7.30 o'clock in place of 7 o'clock. This will be observed throughout the summer.

ARE NURSES NOW

Misses Mary Farrell, of Rawdon, and Mary Murphy, Deloro were amongst the nurses who graduated at Hotel Dieu, Kingston, on Tuesday. Both are ex-students of Stirling High School. Miss Murphy was successful in winning the gold medal as well as a medal for proficiency.

WINS $25 PRIZE

Miss Burnadette McGee, nurse-in-training in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, received a prize of $25 for being highest in observance of Rules and Regulations. This speaks well of Miss McGee's popularity amongst the nurses, as this result was obtained by a vote being taken by the nurses-in-training who graduate this month.

MOTHER'S DAY — SUNDAY

Surely none of us will overlook some suitable remembrance of Mother's Day next Sunday. And certainly a most fitting manner in which to observe the occasion will be to go to church. Whether one is a regular church-goer or not he should find a seat in the House of God on the day which the tenderest and most sacred human memories are called to mind. The churches make the day one in which ample opportunity is offered to link our human love to our mothers with the Divine, and full advantage might very well be taken of it.

ST. PAUL'S W. A.

The regular meeting of the Women's Association was held in the Church parlors on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Meeting opened by singing hymn 184, followed with prayer by Mrs. Corrigal. Mrs. MacKlin read the Scripture lesson, Psalm 103. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Treasurer's report adopted as read. The meeting was then turned over to the Carmel association who furnished a very enjoyable program. A cordial invitation was extended by Carmel to visit them in June, which was accepted. Proceeds for the evening amounted to $8.40.

New Tennis Courts at H. S.

The Literary Society has made final arrangements to construct two tennis courts at the rear of the school and the work is expected to commence at once. It is believed that a clay court will be most serviceable and since the ground upon which the courts are to be placed is of clay, the expense of construction should not be great. It is proposed to engage a caretaker and to purchase a heavy roller so that the courts may be kept in first class condition. They will be equipped with nets and backstops and eight rackets, four of which will be supplied by the Literary Society. The object of supplying rackets is to introduce tennis so that everyone may learn the game without excessive initial cost. There will be certain fees, but since the cost of the court will be small the fees should not exceed $1. The object of the Literary Society is not to make money, but to meet expenses. Those who have not rackets will be required to pay a small fee extra for the use of them. Students who wish to play tennis this summer or in evenings will be required to pay a half-fee for the privilege. Satisfactory arrangements can be made to accommodate all who wish to play and all those who are interested will have an opportunity to discuss the subject in the near future.

Captain Isaboster of Kingston will inspect the Cadet Corps at 10.30, Wednesday, May 11th, and we hope that a number of citizens of the village will be present. Please keep the date in mind.

The students hope to have a small party on the following Friday evening from 8 to 11 p.m., May 13th.

Get behind the "Country Club".

More Costly

Parents of high school students have another little worry on their hands just now. Cost of examinations is going up. In its effort to raise more revenue the Ontario government has quietly tacked a 50 per cent. increase on the fees for writing on matriculation examination. Instead of $1.00 it will be $1.50 this year. And that's per paper—not for the whole exam. The boost in the examination price should net the government a tidy sum of money, for last year there were 216,799 matriculation papers written, made up as follows: Middle school 147,899; upper school, 61,604; lower school 7,305. The higher fee should bring in an extra $100,000—which will, of course, come out of the pockets of the parents. It will be a bit tough on the parents who have two or three youngsters at high school and particularly if the latter are taking a large number of subjects.

TO LEGIONAIRES

A special meeting of the Stirling Legion will be held in the Club Rooms next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to be present as important special business is to be dealt with.

CURRENT COMMENT

It will soon be tulip time—they are already peeping through.

Sunday is Mother's Day. Don't forget to wear a flower in her honour.

Maybe a laugh is good for what ails us, but alas! what ails us isn't good for a laugh.

Daylight Saving went into effect in several Ontario towns and cities on Sunday. Stirling will remain on standard time.

Now that gardens are being planted a slogan to be adopted by chicken owners is "Keep your hens off the neighbors' plots."

Our local merchants constitute one of our biggest industries. They help support the community. We should in turn patronize them.

We read about an asylum inmate clipping imaginary coupons from bonds. Many who are not inmates clip coupons from imaginary bonds.

No doubt local bridge players will agree that in a game of bridge a good deal depends on good playing; and yet good playing depends upon a good deal.

Peterboro Examiner—Well over three million dollars of unclaimed balances are at present in Canadian banks. Evidently everybody is not badly in need of money.

These are the busy days in the schools of the country. The final examinations are not a great way off and the pupils will feel the drive from now until they are over.

One-third of 1932 has already passed into history and still the farmers' prices are so low that they are a disgrace. Something must be done to raise the price of farm produce, or old man Depression will still remain.

By an amendment to the Municipal Act, passed at the recent session of the Legislature, villages are now given the same power to govern hawkers and peddlers as was formerly enjoyed by towns and cities.

Spring house-cleaning, the bane of man's existence at this time of the year, is in full swing while the smell of fresh paint and the noise of the lawn mower will soon remind us that the warm weather has arrived.

In another column in this issue, appears a notice inserted by the local Board of Health, to clean up your premises on or before May 15th. Look around your premises today and see that all refuse, etc., is removed before the date set for same.

From now until further notice three cent stamps will be necessary on all cheques between $5 and $100. For larger sums six cents in stamps will be required. Postage stamps may be used instead of the revenue stamps. This new tax went into effect on Monday.

A prominent industrialist says "sweat" is the way to speed up business recovery. He's wrong. We've broken into a cold sweat as our creditors closed in, and into a hot sweat seeking vainly to satisfy them, and the condition of world trade hasn't changed a particle.

The Hitlerites in Germany have made big gains in the elections, and they will be more than encouraged to increase their activities and spread their propaganda throughout the country. Fascism has apparently got a firm hold in a large section of Germany, and what the outcome will be is another thing.

Mussolini is practicing what he has been preaching in Italy. He came out strongly against any additional boats for the Italian navy and he follows that up with an order that no plans shall be prepared and no money spent. With disarmament a moot question just now Mussolini is certainly setting an example to the other nations.

When we see cars speeding through the village at speeds ranging over 35 miles an hour, and sometimes faster, we often wonder if these drivers are familiar with the law. We understand that villages do not set the speed limit in their own municipalities but that the provincial law reads 20 miles in urban towns and villages and 10 miles at street intersections. About 90 out of every 100 motorists violate this law every time they pass down main street and they would think they were being abused if they were summoned to appear in court.

Petrolia Advertiser-Topic—Much is expected of the Imperial Conference at Ottawa in July. An effort will be made to get industry to co-operate and no destructive competition, or in other words, co-ordinate industry. If this can be accomplished it will be the dawn of a new era. Already, in Italy, the government will, on petition of a majority of interests in any given industry, put machinery at work to create a trust into which all manufacturers of, let us say, furniture, must enter or go out of business. Proper wages and dividends must be paid and good working conditions prevail, the buying public being protected from excess charges by the government.

The News-Argus is deeply interested in the determined campaign of the Canadian Legion to have remembrance Day, November 11th, preserved as a national holiday. Considerable dissatisfaction resulted last year because of the fact that some municipalities decided not to observe the day generally, even though the Dominion Government had passed a statute naming November 11th as a day of national observance, thereby removing it from jurisdiction of local bodies. It should have been unqualifiedly observed throughout Canada. The Legion is opposing the efforts exerted from some quarters to have the statute annulled and it will have the hearty co-operation of a large majority of organizations throughout the country. It is difficult indeed to understand the type of individual who does not wish to pay tribute to those who died that we might live and that Canada might enjoy her accustomed freedom.

Flowers And Beauty

The season approaches when home-owners in Stirling and the surrounding villages of Hastings County should be giving thought to the beautification of their premises and thus to the improvement in appearance of his community. While horticultural work has enjoyed a tremendous boom in this district in the last few years, there remains plenty of room for further development. Every unimproved or unplanted home can be made more attractive by the judicious use of trees, shrubs, flowers and well-kept grass. The old saying that a home is not a home until it is planted, very well emphasizes the necessity and wisdom of planting. Further, the progressiveness and thrift of a community or a municipality are often reflected in its appearance and the best advertising that any community can do is to present pleasing, inviting appearance to the world—an appearance of prosperity and industry, reflected by well-planted and well-kept public and private grounds. We are influenced to a greater extent than we realize by our surroundings. Children are particularly sensitive in this regard. Surely a home in and around which flowers are grown is a better place to bring up children than a home where no attention whatever is paid to these friends of the plant kingdom. As the twig is bent the tree is inclined, is an old saying and very applicable in connection with the training of children. If children are taught to love flowers and to become familiar with them, their hearts will be filled with love for these things which leave less room in their hearts and minds for the things that hurt and destroy.

The objection is frequently heard that gardens and flowers cost too much or that they take too much time. The truth is that it is no so much a matter of money or time as it is of desire and disposition. If we are disposed to have gardens and flowers and really desire to have attractive home surroundings, we will have them no matter how busy we may be. Information as to suitable varieties for planting may be obtained from your local Horticultural Society or from the Ontario Agricultural College. The cost in any event need be only trifling and the amount spent on the nursery stock necessary to improve the average home will be found one of the finest investments that can be made. It will pay great dividends in satisfaction and will increase the value of your home. Your individual efforts in making your home more attractive will improve your street and thus have a part in beautifying your community. Incidentally you will have helped to make a more beautiful Canada.

Miss Edna Bird is visiting friends near Ottawa.

Local and Personal

The local telephone staff has been reinforced by the addition of Miss Edna Archer, of Campbellford.

Mr. George Bush, of the Union Bank staff, has been removed to the Portland, Ont., branch and left on Monday.

Mrs. (Rev.) A. C. Maybee returned to Belleville on Monday after spending three weeks the guest of Mrs. Jas. Currie.

Mr. R. Collinge intends leaving for the west in a few days. He will visit relatives in Peterboro for a few days and start from there next week.

Rev. J. D. P. KnKx left on Monday for Peachland, B.C., after spending some time with his sister and other friends in this vicinity.

Mr. H. F. Ward, agent G.T.R. and C.N.R. at Anson leaves today to join the G.T.R. staff at Peterboro. Mr. Claude McInnes, of Turfiff, will fill the vacancy left by Mr. Ward.

Miss Marguerite McMullen, who has been attending Queen's University, Kingston, left on her journey westward via G.T.R. After spending a few days with her sisters at Winnipeg, Man., and Punnichy, Sask., she commences duties at LeRoss, Sask.

Davis Bros. who opened a barber shop in the Empire Block about a year ago, have decided to go West, and have packed up their fixtures for removal.

Mr. J. C. Brown, accountant of Bank of Montreal, has been removed to Montreal. Mr. G. L. McClellan, of Tweed, takes his place here. Mr. H. C. Turner, of Fredericton, N.B., goes to Tweed.

While reading the accounts of the terrible Titanic disaster, one little thought that the great loss of life would affect anyone in Stirling, but Mrs. Maggie Ward received word from England yesterday that her brother was among those who went down with the ship.

On Tuesday, shortly before noon, the residence of Mr. Joseph Bronson, a short distance from Stirling, was discovered to be on fire. Mrs. Bronson was alone at the house at the time, and not being able to make any of the neighbors hear her cry for assistance, she succeeded in throwing out a quantity of bedding, and other articles from the upper story before any help arrived. Some of the furniture was saved from the lower rooms.

When PAIN Comes

WHAT many people call indigestion very often means excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated, and food sours. The corrective is an alkali, which neutralizes the acids instantly. And the best alkali known to medical science is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. One spoonful of this harmless, tasteless alkali in water neutralizes instantly many times that much acid, and the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when once you learn the efficiency of this. Go, get a small bottle to try. BELLEVILLE—ONTARIO

BACK TO THE LAND

(Peterboro Examiner)

The Federal Government, Hon. W. A. Gordon told Parliament the other day, has in mind in connection with unemployment relief plans a proposal to assist people who have had some experience in farming to go back to the land rather than remain in the cities and accept relief there.

It is contended that such people would be much better off and be able to earn at least a living more readily if established on a piece of land than if they continue to seek work in urban centres in competition with industrial workers who are without jobs, and it is proposed therefore to advance them the money they would otherwise receive in the form of direct relief to be devoted towards locating them in the country.

Many people with farm experience would doubtless be willing to try the experiment, and this is especially true, according to Western members, in the prairie Provinces, while it is worthy of note that in the border district some 800 people have already signified their willingness to go back to the land if it is made possible for them to do so.

The plan has possibilities, and the details of the Government scheme will be awaited with a good deal of interest as a chance for many persons to attain economic independence once again.

At the worst it would give them a chance to work out their own salvation, which is decidedly better than to have them sit down idle and depend upon relief.

Hints for the Household

For the Month of May

Spring Cleaning Hints

To clean window shades: Lay the shade on a flat clean surface. Wipe all of surface carefully with magnesia. Then wipe off with a clean rag. Results will be very satisfying.

Step Savers

Have drop tables built in your kitchen. These you will find will save you many steps and will be an endless convenience.

Freshen Your Awnings

Paint stripes in awnings with ordinary house paint. Follow original line. If not badly faded it is best to use the same color.

To Freshen Roses

Dissolve Aspirin in water to freshen roses.

COOKING HINTS

Frozen Custard

1 pint of milk.
1 egg.
1 cup of sugar.
2 teaspoons cornstarch.
2 teaspoons cold milk or water.
1½ teaspoons vanilla.
½ teaspoon salt.

Method: Scald milk—add cornstarch and sugar mixed with milk or water. Cook in double boiler 15 minutes. Add egg slightly beaten to the mixture and cook 5 minutes. Add salt and stir well. Strain and cool. Add vanilla and freeze.

Lamb En Casserole

2 pounds of lamb stew (lean).
Onion.
Green Pepper
1 can of tomatoes.
1 cup rice.

Method: Dredge meat with flour.

Sear nice and brown. Place meat in bottom of casserole. Cut up green pepper and onion over this. Season. Pour can of tomatoes over all of this. Bake slowly for 2 hours. Parboil the rice. Put in top of casserole. Dot with butter and bake another hour.

Spring Relish

1 small head of cabbage (shredded).
1 can of pimiento (small).
2 small onions.
2 tablespoons green pepper, cut up.
Celery seed, if you have it.
A little mustard or mustard seed.
1 tablespoon of sugar.
1 teaspoon of salt.
½ teaspoon of pepper.
Stir all together and cover with vinegar.

BAKING HINTS

Individual Rhubarb Pie

Individual Rhubarb pie is delicious and tempting in the Springtime. Method: Bake pie shells. Just before serving, fill with chilled rhubarb sauce. Top with sweetened whipped cream.

Method: Bake pie shells. Just before serving fill with chilled rhubarb sauce. Top with sweetened whipped cream.

Rhubarb and pineapple are very good, cooked together.

Creamed and Baked Cod Fish

Put creamed cod fish on a baking platter. Surround with border of mashed potatoes beaten light and mixed with egg. Dot with butter. Place in oven to brown.

Steaming Better

Question: "Why is it better to steam vegetables than to boil them?"
Answer: When steamed they retain valuable salts that are lost in the water when they are boiled.

Gives Talk on League of Nations

The April meeting of the Springbrook W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Thos. Hanna with an attendance of about thirty present. The meeting opened with the singing of the "Maple Leaf" and opening Ode, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. The roll call, being "current events" was quite well responded to. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Plans were made for the June meeting when the Department Speaker will be present. It was moved by Mrs. J. R. Brown and seconded by Mrs. A. Haslett that our federation fees be paid. It was suggested that any contributions of clothing which anyone should wish to give to the children's shelter should be brought to the May meeting. Community singing was enjoyed by all. The following program was then given. Mrs. Allan McComb gave an interesting paper on education. A well prepared paper on "The League of Nations" was given by Mrs. H. A. Bunt. The text of the paper given by Mrs. Bunt follows: "The organization of the League of Nations, though the idea was old, was a direct product of the Great War. The war broke out because old machinery for handling international problems broke down, and it proved much more destructive than any previous war. A recognition of these two facts caused a widespread fear that a recurrence of such disasters might destroy our civilization, and a strong determination that something must be done to prevent it. Therefore the statesmen who gathered at Versailles, drew up the constitution of the League of Nations and made it part of each of the peace treaties. The League of Nations is neither a government for the world, nor a mere debating society. An ordinary government has authority over its citizens and it possesses the force to make them obey its laws, but no country of any size, and few others, would submit to an international government with such powers. Therefore it is simply a solemn agreement between sovereign states whereby they consent to limit their complete freedom of action on certain points for the greater good of themselves and of the world at large. Some have thought that the League of Nations, because it has no army or navy to enforce its will, is just a debating society. But it is much more. It is a means of getting together regularly, and of focussing the public opinion and the conscience of the world. Its value has been well expressed by Viscount Grey, who said 'If there had been a League of Nations in 1914 there would have been no war'. The League of Nations includes more than four-fifths of the world's states. The only notable exceptions are the United States, Russia and Turkey. The principal organs of the League are the Assembly, the Council, the Secretariat, the International Labour Organization and the Court of International Justice. The Assembly is the general body of the League and meets in Geneva, the capital of the League, on the first Monday of every September. Each country may have as many as three representatives to sit in the Assembly, but has only one vote there. Being the general body of the League, the Assembly can deal at its meetings with any matter affecting the peace of the world. It has some very special functions, such as the election of new members and the approval of the appointment of the Secretary General of the League and the passing of the budget. This is the most representative body that the world has yet seen, and it is a tremendous revolution in international affairs that the governments of the world must come together every year in such a great conference. But it has its limitations, for, coming from all over the world, its members cannot be called together on short notice. Therefore it is not well adapted to grapple with international crises, which arise suddenly and demand instant action. The Council of the League was created to supplement the Assembly. The great powers are permanent members of the Council. At present there are five, Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan and Germany, but it is understood that the United States and Russia may have similar seats whenever they wish to join the League. In all important matters the Council's decisions must be unanimous, except in the settlements of disputes, when the consent of the parties to the dispute are not necessary. The Council meets regularly in March; in June just before the Assembly meeting, and in December. Being small, it can meet on very short notice, and may reach a decision quickly; and its decisions, because they are backed by the will of the great Powers, carry weight. The Secretariat is what might be called the civil service of the League. It is divided into sections, each with a director. It collects information and studies the problems that come before the Assembly and the Council. The International Labour Organization, established as a result of the labour clauses inserted in the peace treaties, is also located at Geneva. It is under the wing of the League, but enjoys a certain independence. Its purpose is to secure and maintain fair and humane conditions of labour for men, women and children, and the well being, physical, moral and intellectual, of the industrial wage earners.

The Permanent Court of International Justice, known better as the World Court, sits at The Hague. It is a permanent court of eleven judges and four deputies. The constitution of the Court provides that no state need appear as a principal in any case without having a judge of its own nationality on the bench. The Court sits regularly on June 15th, but may be called any time for an extraordinary session. Like the Supreme Court of Canada, it has two functions, judicial and advisory. Now we have what we never had before, but have long desired, a small, effective and impartial tribunal to which nations may, and do, bring their disputes for settlement. It is quite possible that there would have been no war had there been such a court in 1914. Now the chief purpose of those who launched the League was to prevent war. But they did not believe in the doctrine of peace at any price, because that opens the door to gross injustice. Their aim was rather to remove as far as possible the causes of war, and to provide the best means for the peaceful settlement of disputes that might lead to war. The great end of the League of Nations is Justice, and through Justice to establish peace. One undoubted reason why international quarrels have burst into wars has been that they have been left to themselves. It was not the business of others to interfere. Another reason for war has been armaments. If two people quarrel and they have guns, the guns are likely to go off. So it is with nations. Therefore there was a tremendous demand for disarmament as a result of the Great War. Why are there armaments at all? Because the countries feel that they need them. Here is the root of the problem. No great state will discard them until it feels that it will not need them. The key of the situation lies in security and the League has given much security. Disarmament will come of itself just in proportion as nations feel secure, for they are not anxious to spend huge sums upon armies and navies that they do not require; and as they disarm, they will fear one another less, and therefore be able to proceed further along this peaceful path. The health work of the League has already saved more lives than were lost in the war. As the war closed there was a great outbreak of typhus, relapsing fever, cholera and malaria in Eastern Europe and it threatened to spread. In Poland alone people were dying at the rate of 100,000 a year. In May, 1920, the Council organized the Epidemic Commission and sent them to the infected areas. Among other new measures was the organization of special training courses for public health officials in combating epidemics. Even worse than the bubonic plague or malaria or cholera, are some moral plagues, such as that of the white slave traffic and the opium traffic. Now the League has provided the means for focussing all these endeavors and carrying them further. Already two important committees of the League are set up to wrestle with these two evils. The League of Nations is by no means perfect. It was designed for the whole world, but several countries are still outside. In the early days of the League many feared it would not succeed, but these fears are dying because of the solid achievements of the League and the tendency of the outside powers to draw closer to it. More interesting still is the increasing attention paid to the League by the United States. Though politics kept her out, humanity is drawing her people in. A common attitude has been one of imitations, that the League has not done everything and done it perfectly. Such an attitude leaves two things out of account. First it is a League of Nations. It deals with international affairs. It cannot touch the internal troubles of any country unless it is given a specific opening by international treaty. If, for example, any part of Canada felt that Ottawa was not treating it fairly the League could not step in. We are masters in our own house, as it were. In the second place, the League is a means of getting together. It is not a machine that works itself independently of the Government of this, and of other countries. It simply can succeed only if they have the right attitude and this depends upon the people who elect those governments.

Mrs. I. Brown gave a comic reading on "Mother's Day". This was followed by community singing. A "menu contest" was put on by Mrs. J. S. McKeown. The meeting was closed with the singing of the National Anthem. A tasty lunch was then served and a social half hour enjoyed by all.

MADOC JUNCTION

Mother's Day Meetings
Each Mother's day in turn reveals her wondrous love still more, And makes us humbly pray to be more worthy than before. God couldn't be with us in person So He gave us mothers, you see, Surely none could follow more closely His example by Blue Galilee. God grant us Heaven sent love for her, Whose life is spent our griefs to share, This love of Heaven, not of earth, To love, protect and shed from care. Mother's thoughts were always full of us, She never could forget, And so I think that where she is, She must be watching yet. Waiting till we come home to her, Anxious if we were late, Watching from Heaven's window—Waiting at Heaven's gate. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Eggleton, of Holloway and Little son Jackie, and Mr. Albert Eggleton and Mr. and Mrs. Fitchett, of Stirling, spent Tuesday with friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stapley entertained Mr. and Mrs. Orval Calnan and family, of Peterboro, during the week-end. Mrs. Walton Eggleton and daughter, of Sidney, visited Mrs. G. Clarke on Sunday. Master Donald Andrews, of Lindsay, visited his grandparents over the week-end. Among those attending the A. Y. P. A. concert in Stirling were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clarke, Mrs. Russell Stapley, Keltha and Kenneth Stapley; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fitchett and others.

A number from here attended the St. John's A.Y.P.A. concert in Stirling Community Hall last Wednesday evening and report a full house and fine acting by all who took part in the play. Jerry Craven, as the "Human Alarm Clock" brought down the house. We had the privilege of attending one of our sister churches last Sunday and the welcome we received was really touching and showed the Christian spirit following a revival. The text was "And when He came near He beheld the city and wept over it", Luke 19: 41. It was an impressive sermon and service.

CARMEL

Mrs. G. Currie, Hugh and George, of Wooler, visited at the home of Mr. A. Brown, one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mairs, Sulphide spent the week-end with relatives here. Mrs. H. Hagerman is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Parker, owing to the illness of her father, who suffered a stroke on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Pyear spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. Scott.

Our Ladies' Aid was entertained by the Stirling W. A. in the Church parlors on Tuesday evening. The program was supplied by the visitors and the Stirling ladies served a sumptuous lunch.

FULLER

(Too Late for Last Week)
A great deal of excitement was caused on Friday when Mr. Levi Rutter's house caught fire, while burning off the lawn. A volunteer bucket brigade was soon busy, and though the end of the house was badly damaged, not only by fire, but the necessity of tearing off clapboards and shingles, we are very glad it was not burned down.

Mrs. Sylvanus Mitts was called to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Reid, of Oshawa, who has been in failing health for some time.

A number are still suffering from colds. Mr. and Mrs. David Kernohan and son and Mrs. John Danford of Madoc spent the tea hour on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. Burke.

BURNBRAE

Mr. Grant Thain, B.A., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thain, was successful in passing his final examinations at Queen's University, Kingston, and received the degree of Bachelor of Arts. A host of friends extend heartfelt congratulations. We wish Grant continued success.

Miss Margaret Milne, R.N., of Lockport, N.Y., spent the week-end at the home of her father, Mr. Alex. Milne, of Meple. Her friend, Miss Sinclair, R.N., of Hamilton, accompanied her and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Milne.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the Manse on Thursday afternoon. There will be a special Mother's Day Service in St. Andrew's Church next Sunday morning. All the families of the congregation are requested to be present.

The Young People's Society of St. Andrew's Church met on Monday

Mrs. M. Fitzgerald attended the Convention of the W.A. at St. Mark's Church at Kingston this week.

Mr. Ernest Eastwood returned home from Peterboro this week after spending some time in the hospital owing to ill health.

Mr. and Mrs. Strebe and children, of Elondro and Mr. and Mrs. Morley Phillips and family of Cannifton spent Sunday at Mr. Ronald Bronson's.

Misses Hazel Bateman and Ruby Forsythe attended the marriage on Monday morning of Miss Vera Villneff and Mr. Joe Little, which took place in the R. C. Church, Marmora.

Mr. Norman Ray is helping Mr. Chas. Lough in the cheese factory this season.

Calf Found — Yesterday morning when Councillor George Thompson was taking a calf presumably to Bonar Law, to be shipped, it resented leaving our village and as Mr. Thompson was passing through, it leaped off the truck. Its absence was not noticed until some time later when Mr. Thompson had to return and make a search.

The League meeting took the form of a social evening, held in the church on Monday evening. The meeting was in charge of the President, George Williams, with Mrs. Gordon Webb at the organ. The program was opened by the use of hymn 291 after which Rev. Mr. Bunt led in prayer. A few remarks were made by Geo. Williams, who then called on Rev. Mr. Jones, of Trenton, to give his travel-talk, which was the main feature of the evening's program. Mr. Jones and party spent last July in a motor trip through Quebec, Gaspe Peninsula, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia and through part of The States. His talk was accompanied by approximately one hundred and fifty slides. These were made from some of his own negatives and some from old historical pictures and were very interesting as well as instructive. During intermission a selection was given by the choir. Mrs. Gordon Webb gave a humorous reading on "The New Church Organ". A quartette was given by Mrs. K. Thompson, Jeanne Robinson, Geo. Williams and Clarence Bailey. At the close of the meeting the ladies served a very beautiful lunch, which was enjoyed by all. The officers for the coming year were selected previous to the meeting.

MOUNT PLEASANT

V. P. S.

The President, Mr. Willis Jeffe, opened V.P.S. on Friday evening with hymn "I can hear my Saviour calling" and Mrs. James Sharp offered prayer. After reading the minutes and plans for the play, Mr. A. W. Garrison took charge of the topic dealing with "How to be a Christian at Home". Mrs. Claude Sharp and Mildred rendered a pretty duet. Miss Olive McConnell read a selection and at the close a contest on "Fish" provided of interest.

Several folk enjoyed a birthday on May 1st, among them being Mrs. Geo. Weaver, who entertained several guests to dinner.

Mr. Kenneth Holmes visited his friend, George Young, on Sunday.

Miss Marguerite White was a dinner guest on Sunday of Eileen MacMullen.

We extend deepest sympathy to Mr. Jonathan Chard in the loss of his youngest son, Reuben, also to the three surviving brothers, Clarence, Clifford and Elgin.

Messrs Harold and Lorne White visited their grandmother at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Heagle, Wellmans, on Sunday.

Mr. Cleland Reid, of Bayside, and a few friends spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Reid.

On Thursday, Mr. John Farrell of Bethel, graded the fourth line road, and on Friday he was busy on the third concession. Mr. Ernest White commenced his grading contract in the county roads nearby and will continue throughout the summer months.

Master Donald Hulin of Stirling attended Sunday School at Mount Pleasant on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McKeown entertained several guests on Sunday, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Morrow, of Peterborough.

Master Donald Johnson visited Percy White on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Summers, Gladys and Eric were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Butler Rupert, Wellmans, on Sunday.

Friends here received word of the death of Mrs. M. MacDonald, of Murray, the funeral taking place on Thursday afternoon. She is survived by two sons, Fred and Ferris, and one daughter, Edith (Mrs. Grant Crowe) all of Murray.

On Sunday morning the examinations for the Sunday School were held and several of the students wrote on the papers and report the questions fairly easy. During this session in the Hall Mr. John Holmes and the Misses Lulu Johnson and Helen Smith presided. On Wednesday evening of this week the Study Class met at the home of Mrs. G. Smith and the papers were corrected and marked.

On Sunday evening Mrs. Edgar McKeown rendered a pleasing solo and the pastor gave another excellent discourse on the theme "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled".

From the Picton Times, issue April 28th we copy the following, which we presume will be of interest to our readers: "Mr. Marshall L. Young and family, Carrying Place, wish to sincerely thank all the friends and neighbors for their kindly help and care during Mrs. Young's last illness. We cannot express our gratitude and appreciation for all they did for us in our recent bereavement. We feel our loss more than words can express, as she was a loving, faithful wife and mother and beloved by all who knew her. She had been saved for many years and was connected with all those who assemble at Gardenville Gospel Hall. She was a faithful Christian ever since her conversion. She was only sick about one week with bronchial pneumonia; fell asleep on the evening of April 11th. Funeral April 14th. Service was held at Gardenville Gospel Hall. The Minister was Mr. Fred Pierce, of Belleville, his text II. Cor., chapter 5, verse one, Mr. Pierce emphasizing 'For we know'. Burial took place in the family plot at Carrying Place cemetery. Asleep in Jesus—Blessed sleep. From which none ever wakes to weep.

A calm and undisturbed repose, Where powerless is the last of foes." On Sunday morning, May 8th, Mother's Day will be again celebrated in honour of the mothers of Mount Pleasant. Don't forget to wear your flower as a tribute to your mother.

Many of the young folk as well as a few of the older ones have been enjoying a trip to the woods gathering wild flowers. The Mayflowers are all in full bloom now and our bouquet is certainly gorgeous with its various tints of blue, mauve and pink. We also found one adder's tongue and a few white lillies, the latter being in bud. Like the children your correspondent greatly enjoys a trip to the woods or a fishing expedition. We would like to pass on to our readers this lovely poem entitled "Hepa-licas" written by Helen B. Anderson, of Concession Lake, a Canadian poet of note.

Hepaticas
I know a wood, a winsome wood, and easy 'tis to find it,
Just down a fresh, green country lane that climbs the old home hill;
Then winds beneath the trailing trees, across a field you'll find it.
The old, old wood of childhood, that beckons to me still.

'Tho' April winds are wailing and the April rains are falling,
'Tho' frost lays icy fingers upon the leafy mould,

Hepaticas are waking, for now the spring is calling,
And they face the April tempest all unmindful of the cold.

How fair they look and airy, in their gauzy summer dresses,
Lifting faces bright and happy, to the sunshine to be kist,

And they wait the sweetest perfume in response to wind's carresses,
And we catch the subtle fragrance floating through the April mist.

So when April comes to greet us with its sunshine and its shadows,
Then I know that spring is calling to my heart that longs to roam,
And in spirit I shall wander far across the misty meadows,

To gather bright Hepaticas in the old, old wood at home.

The many friends of our beloved pastor and his wife are deeply sorry to hear of Mrs. Joblin's severe illness and it is their prayer that God will see fit to restore her again to health. She has been a very patient sufferer and her many friends regret that she is denied the pleasure of having them call to see her. However they do hope that the warm May days will soon aid her to recovery.

Miss Edna Thrasher has been enjoying a holiday with her aunts, Mrs. Paul Sharp, Wellmans, and Mrs. W. Johnson, Sine.

The beautiful warm days and the lovely rain of last week warmed the earth and started the grass growing. Now as the eye travels over the landscape one notices green grass everywhere. Most of the folks have got their screen doors on for the summer and the next odd job will be to mow the lawn.

Miss Alma Sharp celebrated her birthday on Wednesday evening, April 27th. The supper guests were the Misses Maggie Guernsey, Isobel Turner and Betty Locke.

Master Gordon Reid made his first appearance at Sunday School last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Melville and family, Mr. Percy Melville of Mount Pleasant and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Melville, of Marmora, motored to Grafton on April 24th and visited at the home of Mr. Fred Seeney, who is the station agent at that point. They also called on Mrs. Seeney, who is at Cobourg Hospital recovering from a recent operation.

Mrs. Percy Sine and Eva visited Mrs. Blake Sharp on Tuesday.

Mr. Thomas McKeown is still on the sick list.

A pair of swallows have been very persistent in trying to build their nest immediately above the front door, notwithstanding the fact that their work has been torn down at least twice daily. Here's hoping they soon decide to take up housekeeping elsewhere. On one end of the verandah a pair of phoebes have built a cosy home in the same place as they have occupied for two or three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob. Melville spent Saturday in Havelock renewing old acquaintances.

WEST HUNTINGDON

Miss Evelyn McInroy motored to Kingston on Tuesday evening to attend the Nurses' Graduation Exercises at Hotel Dieu.

Mrs. J. J. Wilson and Lorne and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Reid attended the funeral of the late W. C. Reid, at Belleville, on Friday, last week.

L.O.L. No. 300 met on their monthly meeting on Monday evening. District Master Clinton Townsend of Holloway was present and made his official visit. Mr. Chas. Kelly accompanied him. Mr. E. T. Saries, County Master, was also present and outlined the program for the big Orange Rally to be held at Madoc on the 19th inst.

A number of our W.M.S. members attended the 40th anniversary of Beulah Society on Tuesday.

Mr. George Post has erected a new kitchen to his house.

Miss Olive McGowan, of O.S.D., Belleville, spent the week-end with her parents here.

Mrs. Wm. Bray is in Toronto this week taking treatments at the General Hospital. Her daughter, Nurse Marjorie Bray, is with her.

Our Cheese factory has come to life for the season 1932. Now just watch the money roll in.

IVANHOE INSTITUTE

(Too Late for Last Week)

The Woman's Institute met on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. G. Cooke. Mrs. M. Haggerty presided and the meeting opened in the usual way by singing and prayer. The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. The roll was answered by each member giving "Their best Economy Stunt." Several letters were read by the Secretary, Mrs. E. Saries. Some letters of thanks for the sick committee remembering them in the past month. Several pieces were sung from the song sheets. Some letters of interest were then dealt with. Mrs. Sam Donnan gave a reading which was splendid. Mrs. Jas. J. Wilson then gave a solo. After singing again the meeting was dismissed. Lunch was then served by the ladies and collection taken. Next meeting will be held at Mrs. J. Benson's, Ivanhoe, for the election of officers for the coming year.

A Quick Way to....

Restore
an Estate

ARE you among the thousands who have suffered from the great depression? Have you had to make a hurried survey of your financial position only to find that you are worth less by thousands of dollars than you were? Do you realize that death compels a liquidation of securities at current values?

How can that situation be met?

You can instantly restore your estate to a healthy basis by taking out more insurance. The same way is to insure to the point of safety... at least.

Over five hundred million dollars of life insurance was taken out in the Sun Life Company last year—much of it by level-headed men who balanced their accounts by this simple method.

Champlain and D'Aronal

(By George Allen Kingston, Toronto)

In the year of sixteen-fifty, Champlain, still being in his forties, To New France made his fifth voyage. Sailed from out the port of Honfleur, On the twenty-fifth of April, In a little white-winged Cutter, The "Saint Etienne", its name was, Of three hundred fifty tonnage, Captained by Sieur du Pont Grave.

With him three Recollet Fathers, Denis, D'Oubeau and Le Caron Sent out by the Church at Rouen To proclaim the Gospel message To the children of the forest.

Made an uneventful passage; Reached Quebec in less than five weeks;

Thence proceeded up the river To the Great Falls of St. Louis, Now well known as Lachine Rapids. Here he met the Huron chieftains From the western Indian country, Who soon laid their plans before him.

They would raise an Indian army From the Hurons and Algonquins— Carry war unto the fortress Of the hated Onondagas, Strongest of the Iroquois tribesmen, Dwelling in the Mohawk Valley; Now they seek him for their leader.

Champlain needed their assistance In his own planned exploitation Of the valued western fur trade; So, to further his set purpose, And with little use of forethought He agreed to join these tribesmen In their warring expedition. (There was motive in his madness). It was known as well, to Champlain

That the Dutch upon the Hudson Were extending their strong influence To the Onondaga tribesfolk, Far to westward, up the Mohawk. Feared he much for this alliance 'Twixt the Iroquois and Dutchmen; Feared the danger to his fur trade, Sensed also the thought of vengeance For the part he played six years back. When he killed three of their chieftans As he led a band of Hurons 'Gainst them at Ticonderoga Time Lake Champlain was discovered.

Having given his decision He must needs make preparation; Takes some weeks to plan arrangements, Finally, on the ninth of July, He embarks at Les Prairie With his young man Etienne Brule, Two canoes and ten good Indians;

Toilsome journey thus is started, Course was by the Ottawa River, Called then "River of the Algonquins" Far as Mattawa its up-stream. Here the river bends to northward, But their course must take them westward, So they portage o'er the highland, And on twenty-fifth of July Reached the lake which was the centre Of the friendly Nipissing tribesmen. Here he got a wondrous welcome.

After spending two days with them, They proceed upon their journey. Down stream finds the going easier: Run few rapids, portage others, And in memory of this passage We have now the name "French River".

Soon they reach the great Lake Huron— Champlain's first map names it "Mer Douce",

Which interpreted means Fresh Sea— Here the wild waves beat in white foam, Driven fiercely by the west wind.

Now their course is turned to south-ward, Through a maze of water channels Linking lonely forest islands, Seeming countless in their number. Onward, southward, past the islands, Scenes of beauty and enchantment, Driven by the Indian paddles, On the two canoe-loads journeyed 'Till they reached the sheltered inlet, Later known as Matchedash Bay, Where the Severn bears the waters Of Lake Simcoe to the Big Sea. Here the party made a landing At a little Indian village.

Outpost of the tribes' encampment; This was on the first of August.

Soon the news of his arrival Spread throughout the Huron Coun-try.

Welcomed as their great white leader In the war which they are planning, He is given a warm reception Throughout every Indian village.

Father LeCaron, 'fore mentioned, Had preceded Champlain's party To these Huron tribal quarters, And when Champlain reached the village Regarded as the tribal centre, There he found the holy friar Well established in his labours.

Here it was, on twelfth of August, Holy Mass was celebrated First time in this western country, And the good and faithful friar Raised a Cross nearby the village, Symbol of the faith he taught them.

Meantime, since Champlain's arrival, Plans of war were fast proceeding. Warriors from every village Muster to the tribal centre; Runners to the distant outposts Call to arms all able-bodied; August ends ere all is ready.

Largest concentration camp was At a place they called Cahigue Near the village, now Washago. From here, on the first September, Strangest army ever mustered In this quiet and peaceful district Started off on its grim errand.

Looking back along the decades Since this crude event transpired, What a curious naval picture See we in this strange flotilla!—

Braces, a thousand strong in number, With their war canoes and weapons, Cleared on by the Indian maidens In great numbers on the lakeshore Each expecting her brave warrior To bring back a scalp for trophy.

O'er Lake Couchiching's smooth wat-ers, Stretched out in long single file-way, Glided on this mute Armada. Four leagues south they reach the narrows,

Where the waters of Lake Simcoe Issue northward toward the Mer Douce.

Here the party halts for two days, Waits arrival of more recruits From the distant Indian outposts, And makes final preparation.

Champlain's young man, Etienne Brule,

Pushed ahead from here with twelve men, Seeking help and reinforcements From another Indian nation, Friendly to the allied tribesmen Dwelling on the Susquehanna.

Starts he off on eighth September O'er Lake Simcoe south and westward Down the southern arm, or Cook's Bay,

To the marshy Holland River; Up its west branch six or eight leagues,

Thence a portage o'er the highland, To headwaters of the Humber, Down which, on the twelfth September, Brule with his Indian stalwarts Came to broad Ontario's waters, Thus by white man first discovered.

Leaving them upon their journey Turn we now to Champlain's party; Starting off from near Orillia, On the tenth day of September Down Lake Simcoe's eastern shore line, —Champlain says some five or six leagues— Reach a point about at Cambridge; Thence by portage 'cross the country Somewhere near where now is Kirk-field, Where the whole band reassembled. From this place made downstream journey, Saving now and then a portage Past a waterfall or rapids. Few provisions brought they with them,

Lived on what the hunt provided. Deer and bear in great abundance Swarmed the woods 'longside the river, Fish and game were also plenty, Nuts and grapes and other small fruit, All these Indian warriors needed.

Under different conditions One might envy Champlain's journey Down this glorious stretch of water, 'Bout the middle of September.

Autumn tints in all their glory Would bedeck the river's margin; And the shooting and the fishing— One could never wish for better.

What a paradise for sportsmen Of the days in which we now live! Passing the Trent River Rapids ,

And on down the Bay of Quinte— First white man to make this passage Forest thick on all the shore-line, Neither home nor habitation;

Yet Champlain speaks of the region Even then in all its wildness, As "so very fair and pleasant."

Contrast, then, the wondrous beauty Of the scene through which they're passing With the dire and vengeful purpose Of their fateful expedition.

On the untiring Indian boatmen Speed their canoes along the waters; Swiftly gliding, warriors singing, Paddles dipping, all make music; Thinking naught save lust for conquest, Scalp and torture of their victims. Passing lea of Amherst Island, Thence across Ontario's waters To the land of Onondagas;

Beached their boats and hid them safely; Then along the shore some five leagues To the little Salmon River.

Here they hoped Brule was waiting, But no sign yet of his coming. Marching, then, some distance inland, On the tenth day of October Came upon the Indian fortress Lying south of Lake Oneida.

Champlain was not long in learning How unwise to be entangled In this foolish venture.

Tis own diary tells the story How with two days' preparation, They attacked the Indian fortress— And adventure doomed to failure.

Could not penetrate the stronghold, Their one hope would be by fire, Make an opening in the stockade, But their foes foresaw this danger

When deciding where to build it, Plenty water near provided Spoiled each 'tempt to start the burning. Only weapons they could use were Arquebus and bow and arrow. Mantlet for their protection Allies sought in vain to cover

Each attempt to breach the fortress. So the battle raged three hours; Champlain got two painful flesh wounds;

Seventeen allies also wounded. One case only proving fatal. Hurons soon got panic-stricken; Gone was all their boasted courage.

Though Champlain would feign con-tinue, Yet, in spite of all his urging, They decide to quit the battle And retreat to their encampment.

War Council was held that evening Round the allies' blazing camp-fire. All agree to wait a few days, Hoping for the reinforcements Coming with Brule and party; But on sixteenth of October, No sign yet of their arriving, They decide to beat a retreat

Back to where the boats were hidden. This they found no easy going;

Several wounded must be carried, Borne each on an Indian's strong back Just as little Indian papoose.

Travels with its dusky mother, Fifty miles or more the tramp was, 'Taking a full three days' journey.

Third day came a snow and hailstorm, Champlain, suffering past endurance, Sore in mind as well as body, Fiftly calls the trip "Gehenna."

Boats were found where safely hid-den, These they all prepare to enter, And recross the stormy lake-ond;

Twenty-eighth day of October Left the Onondaga country, Disappointed and disgruntled, What the thoughts of baffled Champlain When he learns a little later, That Brule with reinforcements Reached the little Salmon River Two days after they had left it?

Different route the band took home-ward, 'Stead of going up Bay of Quinte, They go northward up the Rideau To a point some ten or twelve leagues

Then a short portage to westward To a small lake, likely Loughborough, And on west some ten leagues farther, Somewhere near the Tamworth Country, Made a halt and staged a deer hunt, Seeking to forget their sorrows.

Five and thirty days they spent here. With small trees they built a deer-trap; Six-score deer in all they captured, Meat to do them through the winter.

Champlain's wounds now nicely heal-ed up, Much he joyed in all this hunting; But one day, while following small game,

Venturing far into the forest, Leaving compass in the wigwam, He completely lost his bearings, Found himself deep in the vast woods, Vain he tried to retrace his footsteps; Vainly called for his companions, Only answer—mocking echoes.

Thus three days and nights he wan-dered Kept alive on nuts and partridge, Till he came upon a small stream Which he thought must lead to rescue; Following this he found his way out. So November passes quickly. They are waiting for the freeze-up. To make homeward tramp the easier.

Fourth December all is ready, And they start across the country, Each man bearing hundred pounds' weight (Champlain is let off with twenty).

Course they took led mainly west-ward, North of Tweed and on through Ma-doc, Thence near straight line to Mount Julian, Stoney Lake's most northern shore-line; And so on, still west and northward Of the fine Kawartha lakeways, They pursue their weary journey.

Weather softens in the meantime, Tramping through the woods is heavy Champlain suffers much discomfort. On this long nineteen days journey, 'Twenty-third day of December, Reached the village whence they started, Little less than four months earlier. Champlain's host on all this journey Was an Indian chief D'Aronal, Name that means uncounted numbers. Much attached was each to other. While Champlain stayed all that winter, With the simple Huron tribesfolk, D'Aronal was his close companion; And next Spring continued with him. Journeying back to Hochelaga.

Found this name as Indians say it And you have the word "Toronto" Much loved name this wa sto Champlain. Proof of this, the great explorer, When he came to making map-plans, And in choice of fitting place-names, Thought much of this Indian Chief-tan, For to river, lake and highland, All about the Huron country And o'en down the Humber Valley, Gave the magic name—Toronto, Spelled as to Champlain it sounded. Some two centuries thereafter Springs a town of some importance Captain of this young Province, Town of "York"—(the name it went by, Often with the prefix "Muddy") Anxious then to be a City. Wants to change its common place-name For a title more high sounding. Then anon the City fathers, Looking round them for suggestions, Came upon this name "Toronto," Magic word, which to the Indian Signifies uncounted numbers. So with "growing pains" increasing, Optimistic for the future, What for name could better portend Promise of the City's greatness? Thus we got the name "Toronto."

ST. ANDREW'S W. M. S. — WEST HUNTINGDON

The April meeting at the home of Mrs. Morley Hagerman opened by singing "Sweet Hour of Prayer" and the Glad Tidings Prayer by Mrs. H. Ashley. Mrs. D. Hagerman read 1st Cor. 8, for Bible reading. All joined in singing "O, worship the King" Mrs. S. Donnan read a splendid paper "Ye Serve the Lord Christ." The March minutes were read and adopted. Suggested by Mrs. R. Hagerman that Mrs. S. Donnan pay all bills in connection with the pancake tea. Moved by Mrs. H. Ashley, seconded by Mrs. R. Hagerman that three persons, namely,

Mrs. B. Donnan, Mrs. Rold, Mrs. M. Hagerman each be prepared to give an extra number at May meeting. The roll call was responded to with the key-word "Love." Mrs. A. Thompson then dealt with the third chapter from Study book. Meeting closed with "Nearer My God to Thee" and prayer by Mr. Rold.

Aches and PAINS

When you take Aspirin you are sure of two things. It's sure relief, and it's harmless. Those tablets with the Bayer cross do not hurt the heart. Take them whenever you suffer from

Headaches Neuritis
Colds Neuralgia
Sore Throat Lumbago
Rheumatism Toothache

When your head aches— from any cause—when a cold has settled in your joints, or you feel those deep-down pains of rheumatism, sciatica, or lumbago, take Aspirin and get real relief. If the package says, Aspirin it is safe.

BEWARE OF SUBSTITUTES

Increase Endurance

THERE ARE WAYS AND WAYS TO BUILD UP THE HEALTH THAT MAKES FOR ENDURANCE But one method unfailing is through a simple diet. And a simple diet means plenty of the best food—

WRIGHT'S BREAD

Cut to a minimum your rich, highly stimulating foods that over-tax and under-nourish. And in proportion as you cut down on these, increase your Bread-eating.

Bread gives you far greater energy-value than any other food. And it will never drive you to a doctor to be dosed for toxic poisoning.

Always insist upon Wright's Bread, the Loaf with the Big food value.

BABY FRETFUL, RESTLESS?
Look to this cause

When your baby fusses, tosses and seems unable to sleep restfully, look for one common cause, doctors say. Constipation. To get rid quickly of the accumulated wastes which cause restlessness and discomfort, give a cleansing dose of Castoria. Castoria, you know, is made specially for children's delicate needs. It is a pure vegetable preparation; contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics. It is so mild and gentle you can give it to a young infant to relieve colic. Yet it is as effective for older children. Castoria's regulative help will bring relaxed comfort and restful sleep to your baby. Keep a bottle on hand. Genuine Castoria always has the name:

General News of Interest

Frankford—Mr. Kenneth Arnott, son of Rev. and Mrs. George Arnott, has taken over the Freeman Bros. garage in this village.

Campbellford—Charged with unlawfully trapping muskrats in the township of Murray after having notice not to hunt or shoot them, Christopher MacDonald of Brighton township was fined $10 and costs by County Magistrate Floyd, of Cobourg, last week. Action was brought against MacDonald by George Atwell, of Campbellford.

The officers of "C" Company, 2nd Battalion and Prince Edward Regiment, are holding their fifth annual ball at Picton on May 5th. Invitations have been extended—the officers of the Northumberland Regiment to be present, the function being held in the Armouries at that place. Music will be supplied by Ab. Adams and his Commodores.

Norwood Registrar—Mr. A. MacKenzie, of The Raynor Construction Co., Toronto, arrived in Norwood this week and is checking up on materials and equipment for finishing the balance of the road contract on the new highway west of Havelock, which was left uncompleted last December. It is expected work will commence in about ten days.

Artificial "leather" has been made from a mixture of cellulose, leather, rubber and wool. This is revealed in the report of the Department of Scientific and Industrial Research for 1930-31, issued recently. At present experiments are being made with the product "strongly resembling leather". The various uses to which this can be put, namely: gloves, manufacture of boot uppers, leather coats with wool linings complete, upholstery, etc., are all being explored the report states.

Prospects of a mining rush to Fraser township, 20 miles from Pembroke held interest as news of a platinum strike was coupled with reports that prospectors were preparing to swarm into the district. Seeking to develop a feldspar deposit for a Beachburg syndicate, John Roberts, mining engineer, is said to have made the platinum discovery some months ago, but withheld word of it until last week. He has staked between 20 and 25 claims and a second syndicate this week staked 18 claims in the area.

Ottawa—The Ottawa Journal published the following last Friday: Lieut.-Col. William Avery Bishop, V.C., the greatest living fighting airman—the man who shot down 72 German planes in the Great War—is being prominently mentioned for the post of Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario. In succession to Hon. W. D. Ross. It is understood Col. Bishop's appointment is being favorably considered by the government. It is felt it would meet with popular approval as a fitting recognition to the Canadian ace of aces of war time.

Ottawa—Three weeks to the day after Hon. Edgar N. Rhodes presented his budget, the Bennett Government majority in the House of Commons last Wednesday carried the principle of the Administration's taxation proposals by the comfortable majority of 26. Before accepting the budget by 108 votes to 72, the same majority.

Belleville—After a short chase, Canadian National Railway Constable Robert and Provincial Constable Kelly succeeded in capturing two men and a young Lindsay girl in the vicinity of the C.N.R. station here. Appearing before Magistrate Mitchell last Thursday morning the young girl stated she had left home to escape the drudgery of home life. She stated that her father had beaten her without provocation. She and one man had come from Port Hope here on a freight train. Rev. Beauchamp Payne of St. Thomas' Church got in touch with the Lindsay authorities.

Montreal—An interesting feature of the convention of the weekly newspaper publishers of Ontario and Quebec, held at Montreal April 22-23, was the presentation of a handsome oil painting by a celebrated English artist, to Mr. W. C. "Bill" Riddell, retired C.N.R. publicity agent. Mr. Riddell in his official capacity—and also in his private capacity—did countless acts of courtesy and kindness to the weekly newspaper men, and they were delighted to honor him. "Bill" Riddell and Mrs. Riddell are both regular fellows—in fact none better—and in no class are they held in more affectionate esteem than by the weekly newspaper men and women of Canada.

Foxboro—Driven by a strong northwest gale, fire which originated in the home of Joseph Moore, of this village, completely destroyed the house, a large barn across the road and a garage. The house was owned by the Foxboro cheese factory. According to Mr. Moore, the fire started in the kitchen chimney, and it gained headway so rapidly that within two minutes of its discovery the western wall of the house was aflame. None of the contents of the house was saved. The barn and garage were the property of Wesley Henderson, the cheesemaker, of Foxboro, and he states that all factory supplies were burned. Little insurance was carried and the loss will be heavy.

Kingston—Arthur B. Cunningham, K.C., one of the most prominent lawyers in Eastern Ontario, died here today after a brief illness. He had acted as Crown Attorney in many cases for the Provincial Government.

Picton—Dougall Hoover, Main street, Picton, and bailiff in Prince Edward County for many years ended his life some time during Sunday night by hanging himself in the wagon-house on his own premises. The body was found about 11 a.m. on Monday, by a relative, Brock Kingston, of Toronto, at the time visiting at his home. The late Mr. Hoover had absented himself from his home since early Saturday, but he was seen in a restaurant in Picton late on Sunday night, and at that time appeared in perfect health and spirit, talking cheerfully with those he met. No reason can be advanced for his rash act.

RIVER VALLEY W.M.S.

The April meeting of the Study Group was held on the 20th inst., at the home of Mrs. Norman Rosebush, with a good attendance. The meeting opened with a hymn, followed by prayer led by Mrs. W. Lindenfield. Minutes were read and adopted. The roll call was "My favorite character in the Old Testament or the name of a missionary" and was well responded to. The Scripture Lesson Act II: 1-21 was read by Mrs. Sager. A reading "The Plea" was given by Mrs. Chard. Mrs. Sager then took the chair and presided over the program. Another hymn was sung and Mrs. Lansing led in prayer. "The Mite Box", by Mrs. W. Hanna. Song "In the Garden" by four ladies, Mrs. Utman, Mrs. N. Rosebush, Mrs. W. Lindenfield and Gladys Rosebush. The second chapter of Korea, by Mrs. Lansing. Sentence prayers were given by several members. The topic "The Early Life of Jesus", by Mrs. John Sager. Bible study was prepared by Mrs. Roy Bush, and the following are parts of the Bible used: appearances of Christ after His resurrection; the ascension of Jesus; the publican asking for forgiveness, mercy and justification; sickness; what Jesus said about the woman who had been taken in adultery; the Missionary command which was given after His resurrection; our attitude towards our enemies. A reading on prayer, Mrs. Mrs. Alex Bush. Solo, "My Wonderful Dream", by Miss Mae Currie. A reading "When day is done", by Mrs. N. Rosebush. The meeting closed with a hymn and the benediction. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Stanley Irvin. All ladies welcome.

Special News For Farmers

Judging by the crop of early lambs the past winter has suited the flock. In many flocks there is an average of two lambs to a ewe, or 200 per cent. increase. The pleasing feature is that the lambs seem particularly strong.

Pigs are rapid growers if well and properly fed. But they require plenty of nourishment to make vigorous growth. It is a good plan to have the young pigs eating before weaning so as to avoid a setback. If growth is slowed up at any stage a loss is probable, especially at the low price of hogs. Grain alone will not give rapid development.

When to Plant Garden Seed

A timely suggestion with respect to the planting of the home vegetable garden is that the hardy seeds should be sown as early as weather and soil conditions will permit. Smooth or dimpled peas, onions, radish, lettuce and spinach can be sown as soon as the soil is dry enough to permit working without injury to the texture. Beet carrot, parsnip and wrinkled peas may follow, with beans and other tender crops sown or planted after the danger of freezing is past.

When to apply Lime

A test of the soil should be made to make sure that it requires lime. If the soil proves to be acid then the answer to the question when to apply lime might be "when you have time." Lime is for the benefit of legumes. The best time is possibly just before sowing a grain crop that is seeded down with alfalfa or clovers. Liming land plowed for fall wheat which is to be seeded with clover in the spring is a convenient and satisfactory practice. Lime is not a fertilizer, but simply neutralizes the acidity of the soil, and should be thoroughly worked into the soil during the preparation of a seed bed to become efficient. It is poor business to farm land that is lacking in lime and strongly acid in reaction. The productive power of the soil is reduced when it becomes acid. Correcting this condition with the use of ground limestone increases the efficiency of the manures and fertilizers applied and therefore contributes to the cutting down of costs of crop production.

Interesting Publications

Among publications recently issued of interest to farmers are the following: Report of the Ontario Veterinary College, 1931; 53rd annual report of the Agricultural and Experimental Union, 1931; and a bulletin on the subject of Draft Horses, by J. C. Steekley, Professor of Animal Husbandry, and M. W. Stapley, Lecturer in Animal Husbandry, at O.A.C. Copies of these publications are obtainable free upon application to your local agricultural office.

Feeding Young Chicks

Tests made at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, have shown that better results are attained by feeding chicks early than by the methods of delayed feeding formerly in vogue. The following is a chick starter, that has given excellent results at the farm: 1 part shorts, 1 part middlings, 1 part ground yellow corn, 1 part ground groats, ½ part animal feed mixture, 3 per cent bone meal, 1 per cent, salt, 1 per cent cod liver oil.

The animal feed mixture used is made up of equal parts ground beef scrap, fish meal and milk powder. When liquid milk can be had the milk powder is omitted. Hoppers of chick grit, oyster shell and charcoal are hung at a convenient height on the walls.

Weekly Crop Report

Seeding operations in Ontario are in progress from as far west as Rainy River to Glangarry County in the east. Reports from the Agricultural Representatives would indicate that the land is working up in a very friable condition. Fall wheat is reported in excellent condition and the majority of countries report Red Clover and Alfalfa having withstood the winter much better than was anticipated. Sweet clover seems to have fared the worst and many cases of heaving are reported. Cheese factories are opening up and farmers are anxious to get their cattle out on grass as feed is getting scarce. Prices for hogs, eggs, butter-fat and lambs are very disappointing. Orchards are looking well with a goodly number of fruit buds in those orchards where fertilizing is an established practice. Wellington County seems to be typical of the general attitude in regard to alfalfa, as it looks as if 12,000 acres will be seeded to alfalfa in that county this spring.

Alfalfa Now Sixth

Alfalfa now stands sixth in area among all field crops grown in the Province of Ontario, and occupies about 650,000 acres. According to James Laughland, Field Husbandry Department, O.A.C. Guelph, the great increase in this crop during the last 20 years has been due to the development of hardy strains along with the outstanding merits of alfalfa as a forage crop. Being a hardy deep-rooted perennial-legume alfalfa improves the texture of the crop, adds humus, and aids in the storing of nitrates. It begins to grow early in the spring, helps to control weeds and remains green throughout the season.

Home Surroundings Count

"We are influenced to a greater extent than we realize by our surroundings" observes F. C. Nunnick, chairman of the More Beautiful Canada Campaign Committee of the Canadian Horticultural Council. As he points out "children are particularly responsive to home surroundings and where these include lawns, shrubs, trees and flowers they make a much better place in which to bring up children than in a home where no attention whatever is paid to these friends of the plant kingdom."

Environment is an important factor with children. The constant contact with the beautiful things of nature which well-kept home grounds affords is too important in the welfare of the home and the child to be overlooked.

Cow Testing
Ontario has 22 per cent of its cows under test; New Zealand has 19.7 per cent of its cows under test. The following figures show a remarkable increase in cow testing in New Zealand:

1922-23	84,825 cows
1923-24	151,214 cows
1924-25	196,850 cows
1925-26	169,776 cows
1926-27	170,150 cows
1927-28	224,130 cows
1928-29	259,594 cows
1929-30	283,731 cows

It has been estimated that in the last ten years the average production of butter fat in New Zealand has increased by 50 pounds per cow.

Here in Ontario our dairy farmers are not cow testing to any great extent, hard improvement has not been very rapid and it seems more than desirable that Ontario farmers should weigh the milk from individual cows, have it tested for butter fat—thus being able to eliminate poor producers, in order to compete with New Zealand or any other country that follows a system of scientific improvement.

GOOD YEAR PRIZE CONTEST

Here's a profitable way to spend half an hour... Glance at that prize list and you'll say "profitable is right."

Anyone except tire dealers, employees of tire companies and the families of both can, without a cent of expense, try for one of the prizes.

All you have to do is to examine the six tires of various sizes, types and ply-thicknesses on display here. Figure out how many cords you think would be in each; then add the six figures and divide by six to find the average. Use the section of tire cord fabric also on display to help you.

Submit your estimate on a standard entry blank. There is nothing to buy, no other special requirement, no cost to you.

Closing date: June 5th, 1932. Address: "The Goodyear Supertwist Cord Contest," New Toronto, Toronto 14, Ontario.

BOB PATTERSON

On Monday evening the meeting was in charge of Arthur Duncan, musical vice-president. Miss Gena Spry read the scripture lesson. Miss Smith sang "Garden of Happiness". She was accompanied by Mrs. R. H. Williams. Mrs. R. McKeljohn gave a talk on music. There is no musical tone that did not ring in the heart of God before it echoed in the ears of men. Since the morning stars sang together, the sons of God have shouted for joy. "There's music in all things if men had ears—the earth is but an echo of the spheres". The Hebrews praised God in the desert. Paul and Silas sang in the dungeon at midnight, even Jesus and His disciples sang a hymn in the shadow of the cross. Christ is the master musician. He has the key which can bring harmony, melody and tranquillity into a world of war, anguish and chaos. It has been said "Let me make the songs of a nation and I care not who makes the laws". Music touches us through our emotions, it is a solace to the ignorant, and inspiration to the scholar. Material music keeps up the courage of the army. Music differs in various countries. China—their music is a din of discords; Italy—the land of song noted for national songs; Germany, the most musical country in the world; England—minstrels of old sang over sacrificial fires; Scotland—Bagpipes, the emblem—the wild dance of the peasantries in contrast with the stately dance of the nobles; Ireland—Harp the emblem—their music is drenched in sorrow; Russia—noted for its wondrous melodies; Canada—noted for the Mendelssohn Choir. Circus men claim music forms a great factor in training animals. Music is what the perfume is to the rose—what love is to life makes living worth while. A drill (backward) was given by five girls. This was most amusing. Arthur Duncan took charge of the remaining part of the program. The audience was favored with selections from Chas. Allen, piano; Mrs. R. Williams, piano; T. Furnival, violin; Wm. Permidy, ventriloquist. Imitations were made of various sounds, the most clever of all being the sound made by an airplane. Following this was a contest on radio announcers and broadcasters. The imitations (by Arthur Duncan) were so cleverly done that the audience almost believed they were listening to Amos 'n Andy; the Cremona Singers; the Fleischman Yeast Hour; Glow Worm; Heralding Little Jack Little; Sisters of the Skillet, with their many problems; Edna Wallace Hopper, how to have a beautiful complexion; Seth Parker; a hockey broadcast held the fans on their toes for a few minutes. The program was most unique in every detail and Mr. Duncan deserves great credit for his ideas.

ST. PAUL'S Y. P. S.

The Christian Endeavor department took charge of St. Paul's Y.P.S. on Monday evening, with an attendance of 81. The devotional exercises were conducted by the President, Mr. Harry Hulm. Scripture lesson, taken from 12th chapter of Romans, was read by Fred Joblin. Mrs. Charles Bennett, 1st vice-President, was in charge of the remaining program. The main feature of the evening was an address by Rev. A. S. Doggett, of Frankford. In a very masterful manner Mr. Doggett delivered the address, which was a challenge to the youth of today. The speaker urged his hearers to accept Christ as their pattern and ideal. In a very convincing way he referred to three incidents in the life of Christ: first on the occasion at Caesarea, Phillipi, where Christ questioned His disciples regarding the world's opinion of Himself. From this He taught His disciples and everyone who would follow Him that they must bear a cross. Christian service consists of a life of self-denial. At the Mount of Transfiguration Christ emphasized the absolute necessity of prayer in the Christian's life. By relating the incident, which was the healing of a boy possessed with a devil the speaker showed the result of Christ's prayer, which was power to serve. Rev. Mr. Doggett pleaded with the young to accept the sacrificial life of Christ and thus become useful in His Kingdom. Maurice Bell and Kenneth Stapley favored the audience with a sacred mandolin duet, entitled "Alone" accompanied at the piano by Mrs. E. W. Rowland. Mrs. A. S. Doggett also delighted the audience with two very pleasing solos entitled "The heart of God" and "Have Thine own way". Mrs. Chas. Bennett put on an "Author" contest, blue side gaining the honors. The Mizpah benediction closed this very inspiring meeting.

You'll want to be in "The Country Club"—It's coming soon!

STIRLING BOY SCOUTS

Thirty Scouts attended the last Scout meeting held in the school auditorium last Thursday night. After the opening ceremonies tests were given with the following results. Those passing 1st Class: Joblin, Holmes, Clarke, Gould, Williams, Ward.

Snowden—qualified for Cyclist, Signaller and Marksman Badges. Sprentall—qualified for Cyclist and Musician Badges.

Rowland—qualified for the Cyclist Badge.

Baker—qualified for Cyclist badge.

Cook—qualified for Farmer Badge.

Joblin qualified for Marksman, Healthy Man, Gardener, Engineer, Farmer, Cyclist, Foundry Man, Handy Man Badges.

Further tests for badges will be held at this week's meeting, Thursday night. Would like all Scouts to be present in uniform.

DELORO BOY SCOUTS

The meeting opened as usual with the Lord's Prayer. Roll call showed seven boys present. Second Class tests already passed by the boys were recorded and Floyd Loveless passed his Scout pace test, with a time of 12 minutes. Exercises and drills were taken upstairs and several games were played. The meeting closed with dismissal.

DELORO WOLF CUBS

The meeting opened with the Grand Owl, after which attendance and dues were taken. All the boys were present. The Cubs then raced to the school yard, where ball-practice was taken. The boys are keen on forming a strong team to play other Cubs, and it is to be hoped that several other Cub Packs in the locality will also form teams. After a few games the meeting closed.

DELORO GIRL GUIDES

Meeting opened with the ninth Guide Law Prayer. Discussion of the social evening followed. Several Frankford and Deloro Guides have started corresponding. The Oracles were granted 1 point for being first patrol all present at this meeting. Attendance and dues were marked by the patrol leaders who then reported to Lieut. Haacke. Marjorie Loveless passed her second class Natural History. Songs and games followed. The meeting closed with Taps and dismissal.

CURRENT COMMENT

Now for May flowers; next month June brides; both are very much admired.

May, up to date, has been anything but a month of sunshine. As a matter of fact it seems to have stolen April's showers and cold weather.

According to the latest in fashions — they are still making men's suits with pockets. Force of habit, it would seem, as pockets are of little use for carrying money any more—because there is no money.

Men should remember that they don't always reap either the benefits or the penalties of what they do, until a considerable time has passed over their deeds, either foolish or wise as the case may be.

Petrolia Advertiser-Topic—A Western paper claims that it is not unusual to see a $50 saddle on a $15 broncho in these times. But is that any worse than a $5 car with a $15 license being run on gas that isn't paid for?

A correspondent in a letter to the Toronto Star, complains of girls in their teens sitting in restaurants and smoking cigarettes with their legs crossed. We quite agree. They should adopt some other posture.

It is stated that 42 men control 85 per cent of the wealth of Canada, 85 per cent of which is created by the millions of workers. There seems to be something wrong with an economic system which produces that result.

Fergus News-Record—The new tax on long distance telephone calls is just one more nuisance, but if the Minister of Finance had imposed a tax of a cent a minute on all party calls over five minutes in length, much of the rest of his budget would have been forgiven.

Kingsville Reporter—The Ottawa Journal says Lieut. Col. William Avery Bishop, who shot down seventy-two German airplanes during the World War, is being mentioned prominently for Lieutenant Governor of Ontario. Why hand the Colonel this lemon. He surely deserves something better than this in recognition of his valorous service to king and country.

BORROWING AND BUILDING

(Toronto Star)
The post-war period up to the collapse of "good times" was marked by national, provincial and municipal development, financed to a substantial degree, upon borrowed money. A bulletin just published by the dominion bureau of statistics shows that municipal debt alone (bonded indebtedness of rural as well as urban municipalities) increased from $701,000,000 in 1919 to $1,209,000,000 in 1930. In Ontario the municipal debt increased, in these years, from $243,000,000 to $445,000,000. The figures for Toronto are not given separately in the bulletin, but other documents show that the Toronto increase in gross debt was from $102,000,000 to $181,000,000 in the same period.

Thus, all along the line, there was a noticeable growth in the bonded obligations of municipalities. In Ontario, in 1930, municipal debt amounted to $154.47 per capita. British Columbia ($251.98) being the only other province whose municipalities have higher per capita obligations.

These obligations explain, in part, the difficulties which municipalities are now experiencing in reducing taxation. WHERE THE DEBTS WERE INCURRED FOR SELF-SUSTAINING PUBLIC UTILITIES, SUCH AS WATERWORKS AND HYDRO, THEY ARE NOT A BURDEN UPON THE TAXPAYER. But where they were incurred for payments and street extensions and sewerage plants, or for public utilities which are now operating at a deficit, they must be cared for out of taxation.

THE BOARD RE-ORGANIZED

(Peterboro Examiner)
The reorganization of the Liquor

At last Canada is beginning to handle some of its Communist leaders as they should be. Deportation seems to be in order. This may seem a drastic action. However it should make the rest of them keep their tongues quiet and their pens dry for a long, long time. We noticed where a deportee at Halifax begged not to be sent back to Russia, as he would be shot for a misdeed he had committed prior to coming to Canada. We say ship him alone.

A protest against any increase in the fees charged examination candidates is being forwarded to the Ontario Department of Education in the form of a resolution from the Oshawa Board of Education. The Board in its resolution deprecates any tendency towards an increase in such examination fees. The Stirling Board of Education might well join in this. If the Department gets away with it, many extra dollars will be taken from taxpayers, who, at the same time, are paying heavily to maintain the schools which their children attend.

The question is often asked: "Why do the boys leave the farm?" Well, here is why some of them leave. Bill learns that it is easier and more profitable to draw notes than to draw gravel, and he becomes a banker; Bob finds it more profitable to spit hairs than to spit rails or wood, and he becomes a lawyer; Jack finds it easier and more profitable to mend broken bones than to mend broken fences, and he becomes a doctor; Jerry finds it easier and more profitable to pull teeth than to put stumps and he becomes a dentist; Ed finds it easier and more profitable to prepare sermons than to prepare land for crops, and he becomes a preacher; Frank finds it much nicer to have running water in his room than to have to pump and carry in cold water and heat it, and takes a city situation; Tom would rather sow wild oats than other varieties, and he too joins in the stampede to the cities.

Don't Be Thin-Skinned

Some folks are so busy defending their dignity against imaginary and real affronts that they have time for nothing else. An innocent remark, a harmless glance, a moment of thoughtlessness and they are slighted. They wear their feelings on their sleeves, go through life carrying a chip on their shoulders. If you are one of the unfortunate, make a determined resolution to change right away. Happiness you can never know when you let yourself wallow in a frame of mind that keeps you ever thinking that people are trying to offend you and hurt you. There is enough misery in the natural order of your existence without going after more. Shake off that miserable feeling. People are not going out of their way to slight you. Change your tune. Instead of a frown, greet each imaginary insult with a smile. Your digestion will immediately improve and so will your disposition. Don't take yourself too seriously.

Standard Time

Daylight saving, which came into effect in several places throughout Canada a week ago last Sunday, is still looked upon as an innovation and a novelty. But few people realize that the present system of Standard time has not yet been in operation for fifty years. Standard time was the idea of a Canadian, Sir Sanford Fleming. As chief engineer of the Canadian Pacific Railway, he was brought into contact with the inconvenience caused by the fact that every town and city had its own local time, based on the sun. A railway time table for a transcontinental railway was therefore well nigh impossible. Back in 1879, he made the suggestion, at a meeting in Toronto, that the world should be divided into twenty-four sections, one for each hour of the day, and that time within each of these areas should be standard. The idea "caught on", both on this continent and in Europe. Sir Sanford's standard system was brought into effect in Canada and the United States in November, 1883. There are still those who can remember when the clocks were moved forward seventeen minutes. The next year, Standard time was adopted by the European countries at a conference held in Washington, and the system soon became universal. Sir Sanford Fleming's idea was one of Canada's most striking contributions to science and commerce. In Great Britain and many European countries daylight saving is now as much the accepted rule as standard time.

Control Board, made possible by the retirement of Sir Henry Drayton, the chairman, and W. B. Dingman, director of permits, brings about a saving that will be appreciated in this period of enforced retrenchment.

Henceforth the board will be a two-man affair, with Stewart McClenaghan, ex M.P., as chief commissioner and Judge McNamara as deputy commissioner, and the salary list will be lightened to the extent of the $20,000 formerly paid Sir Henry Drayton and the $6,000 received by Mr. Dingman—a total savings of 26,000 a year, which in view of the present conditions, will be accepted as entirely desirable. Mr. McClenaghan has been associated with the work of the board since it was organized, and in view of his experience and his record, there is no reason to fear that there will be any slackness in the Government control system which, thanks to wise direction, is generally recognized as being on a sounder footing in this Province than in any other part of the Dominion.

Under the two-man commission the public will look for the policies of Mr. Hanna and Sir Henry Drayton to be carried on in the same spirit as in the past, and that any effort to bring about a relaxation in the regulations or the manner in which they are administered will meet with a chilly reception from the commissioners.

WORLD TELEPHONE DEVELOPMENT

World progress in communication—the development of those facilities which bring the human race into closer and closer contact—is of universal interest. Necessarily the project of collecting and assembling the data is fraught with difficulties, and must always fall short of being the comacter of last minute information. In a recently published summary, made from official data by Bell System statisticians, world telephone figures are now available up to the date of January 1, 1931.

North America has 21,836,301 telephones, or 61.80 per cent of the world total—almost twice the total of all other countries. Canada, with 14 telephones for each 100 population comes second in telephone development to the United States, which leads the world with 16.4 telephones per 100 of its inhabitants. New Zealand comes third with 10.2, followed by Denmark with 9.9, Sweden with 8.7 and Australia with 8.1 telephones per 100 inhabitants.

In Canada the telephone is used to a greater extent than in any other country. During 1930 Canadians made 264.8 telephone conversations per capita, while the United States and New Zealand with 226.0 and 208.5 were the only other countries with over 200 telephone conversations per person. Denmark with 152.2 was the lead of the European countries in conversations per capita. Canadians make 8 times more use of their telephones than the British who reported 33.1 conversations per capita and over 13 times more than the French who make 20.3 calls per capita.

Canada with 1,402,861 ranks fourth in absolute number of telephones, being led by Germany, United States and Great Britain. But in Germany and Great Britain the number of telephones per 100 population is only 5.0 and 4.3 respectively. It is interesting to note that in Canada 82 per cent and in United States 100 per cent of the telephones are under private ownership and operation, while in Germany and Great Britain all telephones are operated by the government. Argentina leads South America in telephone development with 4.6 per 100 inhabitants. Japan easily leads the Asiatic countries but has only 1.4 telephones per 100 people.

In the provision of telephone facilities for cities of 50,000 people and over, Canada leads the world. With 23.7 telephones per 100 inhabitants in these communities its closest rival is the United States with 22.6. In the smaller towns and villages Canada ranks second, with 9.7 telephones per 100 people, being led only by the United States, with 12.2 telephones per 100 people. Thus the inhabitants of Canadian cities and towns of under 50,000 inhabitants are better provided with telephones than most of the larger European cities.

ACID STOMACH

EXCESS acid is the common cause of indigestion. It results in pain and sourness about two hours after eating. The quick corrective is an alkali which neutralizes acid. The best corrective is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia neutralizes instantly many times its volume in acid. Harmless, and tasteless, and yet its action is quick. You will never rely on crude methods, once you learn how quickly genuine.

The ideal dentifrice for clean teeth and healthy gums is Phillips' Dental Magnesia, a superior toothpaste that safeguards against acid-mouth. (Made in Canada.)

Well Defined

Asker—What is the difference between communism and capitalism?
Teller—Communism is when everybody works for a committee and capitalism is when they work for a board of directors.

Forenoon and afternoon and night—Forenoon

And afternoon and night—Forenoon, and what!
The empty song repeats itself. No more!

Yes, that is Life; make this forenoon sublime,
This afternoon a psalm, this night a prayer,

And Time is conquered, and thy crown is won.

Reversing the Order

Candidate (to interrupter) — Really, sir, are you the candidate or am I?

Interrupter—Oh, no, sir, I'm not the candidate.

Candidate—Very well then, don't talk like an idiot.

Last Resort

Auto Driver—Have you some gasoline that stops knocking?

Attendant—Yes, sir.

Auto Driver—Then give my wife a glass.

Forty-five is the age of discretion. By the time a man reaches forty-five he appreciates the futility of crime.

So That's Where it Goes

"Dad, what is bankruptcy?"

"Bankruptcy, my boy, is when you put your money in your hip pocket and let your creditors take your coat."

Visitor (to convict)—Milton spent 15 days on one page when writing "Paradise Lost."

Convict—That's nothing. I've been here six years on one sentence.

Mahatma Gandhi, says an old-timer, used to be a lawyer. Well, the way he dresses now, he looks like a client who had just paid a lawyer.

Not So Dumb

Mother—Don't you want to be the girl that people will look up to?
Barbara—Naw, I wanna be the kind of girl that people look round at.

A little boy, about 7 years old, was listening to his auntie tell his mother there was going to be a barbecue. At the end of the conversation he looked up at auntie and said: "Gee, I'll sure be glad. Maybe I can get a haircut there."

Plain and Fancy Static

It is not so much what you say as the way you say it that gets you into trouble. . . . If he can't sell his product a poet has no more right to complain than a manufacturer. . . .

If a man screams at his wife all the other women in the neighborhood have it in for him, but if the wife bawls the husband out they wonder what he's done to the poor mistreated thing. . . . One nice thing about a vacation: It usually makes one appreciate home when he returns. . . .

Some of us can remember when a woman's last name was invariably that of the first man she married. . . . Old men look backward instead of forward; this fact greatly detracts from the value of the advice they give to young men. . . . Many a baby pretends to go to sleep merely to make his father quit singing. . . . Every neighborhood has its starched ladies whose hearts ache for the shortcomings of their neighbors. . . .

If your girl tells the maid to tell you she's not at home, tell the maid to tell her you didn't call. . . . A woman has to be pretty sure of her husband to wear cotton flannel nightgowns. . . . The golden rod is the state flower of five states of the U. S. Then we suppose the state salute of these places is a sneeze. . . . When a woman can make her cows and poultry support the family, her husband is a master farmer. . . . The fact that you can't do a thing is no sign that it can't be done.

A woman has as many ways to make a man feel cheap as she has of using stale bread.

Spring Cleaning of Heaters

Do not wait until time to start winter fires before you clean your heaters. There is too much harm can be done by leaving them dirty.

Remove smoke pipe running from furnace to chimney. Brush out well. Remove all partly burned coal, clinkers or ashes from fire pot and ash pit.

To keep interior of furnace dry, put small box of unslacked lime on the grate. Leave furnace doors open.

Do not burn papers and loose things in furnace during summer. It causes a moisture which starts rust.

With steam or hot water plants fill boiler with water to safety valve.

COOKING HINTS

Never do salads taste better than in the Spring, when we all crave green things.

Mayonnaise Salad Dressing
One can get a good many very tasty combinations out of a jar of mayonnaise.

Chopped sweet sweet pickles added to mayonnaise make a delicious salad dressing.

Try chopped onion, celery and pimento mixed with mayonnaise.

Thousand Island Dressing made by adding chili sauce to mayonnaise is always good.

Then — for fruit salad, whipped cream added to mayonnaise makes it much nicer.

In making a large amount of salad dressing, add white sauce or drawn butter sauce to mayonnaise, thereby increasing its bulk.

To Freshen Lettuce

Put a piece of powdered borax into cold water. Wash lettuce in this and let stand for half an hour. Shake leaves well and wipe.

Cabbage Meat

1 large cabbage.
Round steak ground (1 lb.)
3 medium sized potatoes.
Several stalks of celery.
Carrots.
Butter.
Onion.

Method: Cut off top of cabbage for cover. Scoop out inside of cabbage. Make meat into patties and pack in bottom of cabbage. Season.

Cut vegetables in small squares. Put together and season. When cabbage is full, replace cover. Tie cover on firmly. Place in kettle, pour boiling water over. Boil 2 hours. Put on platter and untie. Serve with melted butter. Serves six plentifully.

BAKING HINTS

Delicious Devils Food Cake

¾ cup butter.
1 cup sugar.
2 eggs.
1 teaspoon soda.
½ cup sour milk.
½ teaspoon baking powder.
1½ cups flour.
¾ cake chocolate.
¾ cup boiling water.
Vanilla.

Method: Cream butter and sugar until light. Beat eggs well and add. Then dissolve soda in sour milk and add. Next the flour and baking powder. Very last—dissolve chocolate in boiling water and add to mixture. Flavor well. Then bake.

Hint for Frying Eggs

To fry eggs so that they look nice is not as hard as it seems. Melt a small amount of fat, less than ordinary, in frying pan. Four into edge of pan a small amount of hot water. 1 tablespoon to skillet; break egg into a saucer, slide into pan, cover closely.

SIDNEY COUNCIL

The monthly meeting of the Sidney Council was held on the 2nd inst., with a full attendance. The minutes of the March meeting were read and adopted.

Messrs Bradshaw and Rosebush were present to ascertain whether a certain road leading to their properties on the west side of the Trent River was a Township road or not. The matter was laid over until the next meeting of the Council pending an investigation.

Communications from the Supt. of the C.N.R. re removal of gravel from the unused roadbed of the C.N.R. between Belleville and Trenton was read but no action was taken.

A letter from the Hydro Electric Commission consenting to the cancellation of Mr. Wm. J. Bush's contract was read and the Clerk was instructed to notify Mr. Bush as to its contents.

Initial steps were taken to bring about an equalization of assessments in the various union sections of the municipality.

A communication from Mr. H. Emerson re the condition of a side-road leading to his premises was presented to the Council and was referred to the Road Superintendent.

The following accounts were ordered paid:

Ira F. Eggleton, $5.40; G. G. Waite, $5.15; R. H. Boyle, $10.23; M. Foster, $3.64; H. Turley, $14.00; Ed. A. Kellaway, $37.10 and C. A. Campbell $35.

The Reeve was authorized to sign necessary Road accounts for the current year subject to the approval of the Council and the Road Account and Treasurer's account were ordered to be combined into one account.

The Township road accounts under Vouchers No's. 1, 2 and 3 were passed and the Treasurer authorized to issue checks for the payment of the same.

The Council appointed Mr. F. R. Mallory and Mr. George Bush a Committee to deal with indigent accounts and ordered that the Hospital account re indigents be laid over until the next meeting of the Council.

The Council also fixed the wages for the current year at $2.00 a day for men and $4.00 a day for a man and team.

The Council adjourned to meet on Monday, June 6th, at 10 o'clock a.m., Court of Revision to open at 11 a.m.

FRANKFORD ORANGE HALL REDEDICATION

An event of much interest in Frankford is the rededication service and banquet, to be held in the newly-finished Orange Lodge Hall tonight, (Thursday). Invitations have been sent out by the lodge and it is expected that a bumper attendance will be on hand to assist in and view the official re-opening of what is really new one of the finest institutions of its kind to be found anywhere in this district. The lodge is to be sincerely congratulated on the thoroughness and dispatch with which the work was carried out, and the artistry, and taste displayed in the refinishing. It can sincerely be stated that the hall and its adjoining banquet rooms, including the L.O.B.A. hall, are now in a class to be compared only with and as good as the accommodations occupied by high class, and, in comparison, wealthy city organizations. It is well worth the time of anyone, who has not already been to see, to take the first opportunity, and they will be well repaid for their trouble. The lodge, and the village as a whole may well be proud of the institution.

RYLSTONE

On Wednesday afternoon, May 4th, the Rylstone Women's Institute held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Ernest Irwin, president for last year. The meeting opened in the usual way with the singing of the In-stitute Ode and the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Fred Barnum, secretary, read the minutes of the last regular meeting, which was held in March. The April meeting was withdrawn owing to the bad roads and illness in the community. The roll call was answered by the paying of fees. The minutes of the last annual meeting were then read and adopted, followed by the secretary's report. During the year the Institute has made four quilts, two of which were given for relief work and one to a bride from the Institute. A bale of clothing for relief work was sent to Coe Hill, besides the flowers and fruit which was sent to sick members and their families. The treasury shows a balance of about $11.00. The secretary is reducing her own salary from $10 to $7 owing to hard times. Mrs. Barnum then read an invitation from the Springbrook branch of the Institute to attend their meeting on Wednesday afternoon, June 15th, when Mrs. J. M. Percival will speak to them. Mrs. Ernest Irwin, our retiring president, took this time to thank the members for their co-operation during the year and declined the offer of the presidency for another year.

The following officers were then elected: Hon. Pres., Mrs. John Simpson; 1st Vice Pres., Mrs. Harry Barnum; 2nd Vice Pres., Mrs. Robert Mummy; 3rd Vice Pres., Mrs. Alfred Barnum; Directors, Mrs. James F. Finch, Mrs. Murray Meiklejohn; District Director, Mrs. Sanford Meiklejohn; Representatives to District Annual meeting, Misses Vera Finch and Winnie Spencer; Pianist, Miss Evelyn Barnum; Auditors, Mrs. Charles E. Stewart and Mrs. Ernest Irwin; Sick Committee, Mrs. John Stewart, Mrs. Wm. Stewart, Mrs. Wilfred Spencer; Program Committee, Misses Gladys Simpson, Jean Stewart and Bessie Meiklejohn, as well as the members of the executive. A meeting to arrange for the programmes will be held on June 17th, at the home of the Honorary President, Mrs. John Simpson. With the election of officers over the business cleared up, the ladies sang 2 old favorite songs "Long, long trail" and "My Wild Irish Rose", led by Winnie Spencer at the organ. Mrs. Simpson then gave a very interesting reading "Handicraft for pleasure and profit." The National Anthem. The hostess then served candy and an exchange of flower seeds, shrubs, etc. was enjoyed by all. There were about 20 ladies present.

Arbor Day was celebrated at the Union School, Rylstone, in the usual manner, on Friday, with a general cleanup and the planting of flowers etc. About 11 o'clock Miss Ethel Horsman, teacher at S.S. No. 12 Rawdon (9th Line) and her pupils returned back to the Union School to spend the rest of the day with Miss Bateman and her pupils. After lunch together a soft-ball game was played in spite of the rain and a score of 26-23 in favor of S.S. No. 18 was the result. All report a nice time.

WEST HUNTINGDON W. M. S.

The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Clayton Wright for the May meeting. One item each was given to several members to take charge of. Prayer was led by Mrs. Peter McInroy. Roll call was answered by keyword "Mother". Scripture lesson Matt. 19: 16 to 30, was in charge of Mrs. E. T. Sarles, followed by the report of the Convention held in Belleville, given by Miss Georgia Pitman, who brought back some very helpful and inspiring ideas and encouragement to do better in the missionary work. Hymn 168 was sung. Mrs. J. Wilson then led the study period.

A number of short readings were given on Indian Women as follows: Marriage, Mrs. A. Elliott; Disarmament, Mrs. F. Ashley; Central India Mrs. M. Donnan; India, Mrs. F. Wilson; The Peasant in India, Mrs. G. Post; China, Miss Vera Wilson; 5 O'Clock Society, Miss Eva Wilson. Hymn 138, after which Mrs. J. J. Wilson closed the meeting with prayer. The hostess served a delightful lunch.

MOUNT PLEASANT

Before beginning our week's budget we wish to correct a typographical error in our column last week. The Y.P.S. report should have read as follows: Mr. A. W. Garrison took charge of the Devotional talk. Mr. John Coggin then presided and Miss Marguerite White read the Bible lesson. Mrs. Elwood Johnson capably handled the topic on the subject "How to be a Christian at home." Mrs. Johnson's topic was given in excellent style and we were sorry that she wasn't credited with it last week.

Mrs. John Reid has received word that her niece, Miss Irene Stephens, of Campbellford, was successful in winning her B. A. Degree at Queen's University.

Mrs. Elgie, of Toronto, is at Rawdon Parsonage, with her daughter, Mrs. Joblin, who is still confined to her bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sharpe and family and Mr. George Carlisle spent Sunday at Carmel, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown.

Miss Lenora Williams, R.N., of Toronto, is spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams. She attended the play and the Mothers' Day Service.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Garrison attended a Birthday party on Tuesday evening, last week, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Tucker, Trent Road, it being the occasion of Mr. Tucker's 75th birthday. This party was pleasantly arranged by his niece, Mrs. Denton; and after the guests assembled a good program of readings added zest to the event, after which Rev. Harold Neal, his pastor, read the following address, and Mr. Tucker was presented with a smart sweater coat and other gifts. Mr. Tucker feelingly replied and thanked those present for their very thoughtful kindness. Delicious refreshments were served, the centre of attraction being a birthday cake, with its seventy-five candles of beauty, the cake being a present from Mrs. Denton. The address read as follows:

Dear Mr. Tucker:
We a few of your many friends felt that we could not let this important occasion pass without expressing to you our sincere congratulations and best wishes on this, your seventy-fifth Anniversary. We trust you may be spared yet many years in health and strength to enjoy your home, and the association of your friends. We wish you a happy birthday.

"In countless ways God has richly blessed your long and useful life. In your dear wife is seen one of God's greatest gifts to man. You have been blessed with many friends whose love and friendship you have experienced both in joy and sorrow. The church has been, and still is, a place which is very near to your heart and life. These are among the blessings which have followed you all the days of your life.

"May the same loving Providence spare you both to share each other's joys and bear each other's burdens.

"We ask you to accept this token of our love, not for its intrinsic value, but because of the high esteem and love we have for you."

Signed on behalf of your friends.
Mrs. John Reid, who has been holidaying at Welcome returned to her home at Mount Pleasant on Saturday and will spend a couple of weeks here. Her sister, Mrs. Honey is still in Toronto Hospital.

Mr. George Carlisle attended the Mother's Day service at Mount Pleasant on Sunday morning.

Miss Grace Dayman, of Wellmans spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. James Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. Murney Scott and Shirley visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scott on Sunday.

Miss Elda White and her friend spent Sunday with friends in Belleville.

On Friday the pupils of Allans School enjoyed raking the yard and re-arranging the library and a trip to the woods. Miss Evelyn Neal treated the youngsters to home made candy. The entrance class remained at the school for extra study.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Montgomery, Mrs. Lorne Gunning and her brother, Mr. Johnson, spent Tuesday in Trenton.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Bailey and Barbara and Mrs. Bailey's sister, of Toronto, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Locke, and attended the Mother's Day service here.

The W.M.S. held their May meeting at the Church today (Thursday). Mr. Charles Stewart, of Foxboro, spent a few days last week with Pump Street friends.

The entrance pupils are busy with their studies. School begins for them at 8 a.m. and they also have studies Saturday forenoon. They had classes in the afternoon on Arbour Day. Truly an education means many hours of hard study for most folks.

Mother's Day Service

On Sunday morning a very large congregation was present at Mount Pleasant in honour of Mother's Day. The printed programmes of the Ontario Religious Education Council were used and these were prepared by Miss Mary Eadie. The theme of the service was "Honour.....thy Mother" (Exodus 20: 12). Beautiful foliage and potted plants adorned the church and many wore a button-hole in honour of their mother. The Superintendent, Mr. Jas. Sharp, presided and Miss Myrtle McKeown was the pianist. During the service Miss Grace Dayman, of Wellmans, spoke on "Mother's Day", the keynote of which is love to mother. Twenty-four years ago Miss Annie Jarvis, of Philadelphia formed this idea of a special service honouring mother. All great men owe their career to the influence of their mother. She closed her splendid talk with a tribute to our mothers, whose lofty ideals should be our own. Several of the girls sang a chorus "Can a little child like me". The offering, which goes direct to the Council, was gathered by Messrs George Young and Lindsay McKeown. A pleasing drama was then staged. On the platform was a motto "Today is Mother's Day—Honour thy Mother". Two little boys, Mack Sharp and Douglas McAdam, viewed the motto and asked what it meant. Miss Helen Smith, impersonating the boys' auntie, spoke of the appreciation for mothers and told the boys and girls a convincing story. The little lads closed this drama by repeating "From now, on every day I am going to celebrate Mother's Day". The choir rendered a pleasing anthem appropriate for the occasion: "When I remember you." Rev. Mr. Joblin gave a short address on the subject and centred his talk on King Solomon who was crowned by his own mother. The service was very interesting, having been carefully planned and arranged, and it will leave a beautiful memory in the years to come.

Y. P. S. will be in charge of Miss Olive McConnell on Friday evening. "Welcome Home Jimmy"

On Friday evening last twelve members of Wellmans Y.P.S., namely the cast of their play and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hoover and Mr. Charles Dunham, visited Mount Pleasant. Owing to the extra busy season, the depression of purses and various other reasons, they were greeted by a very small audience, to hear their splendid presentation of "Welcome Home Jimmy". However, although we were small in numbers, our enthusiasm ran high and the visitors were greeted with rounds of applause several times during the evening. Those who did not attend surely missed one of the season's treats. The cast had previously visited Burnbrae, Springbrook and Bethel, besides giving it first at Wellmans, so they were in excellent form. Proceeds amount to over thirteen dollars. Rev. Mr. Joblin capably filled the chair and welcomed the visitors to our midst. The play was most interesting, although fraught with many episodes, however through it all, like a silver thread, wound the story of a great event. Mr. Herbert Hoover presented the cast as follows: Mrs. Brooks, partially blind, who rents the farm, and is a fine type of womanhood, Miss Leatha Hoover; Miss Lucille Brooks, a daughter, Miss Lulu Hoover; Danny Banks, a neighbor boy, Mr. Ernest Baker; Peggy Sommers, neighbor girl, Miss Mina Dracup; Alley Thomas, the schoolteacher who boards at the Brooks farm, Miss Grace Dayman; Valentine Gardner, New York lawyer, Mr. Albert Case; George Pearce, the villain of the play, Burton Morton; Chesterfield McGoewe, the lawyer's friend, Omar Dracup; Melinda Preston, old maid, Florence Dunham. The scene shows an ordinary farm home, with lovely autumn views from the windows. Act I. pictures Mrs. Brooks eagerly awaiting her son's arrival as she hasn't seen Jimmy for fifteen years, and he is now on his way home to marry Melinda Preston. However, Jimmy is suspected of stealing a valise on the train and is arrested. The lawyer and his friend were asked to tell Mrs. Brooks what has happened, but when they arrive the lawyer is welcomed back as Jimmy before he has time to explain. Later he hasn't the heart to disappoint the mother so decides to impersonate Jimmy for two weeks; also he and his friend cut acres of corn by hand and poor Chesterfield buys several bottles of liniment to oil his stiff joints. Gardner uses his own money to keep the home running and then Melinda comes. Secretly he tells Melinda the truth and hires her to tell the others she has broken her engagement to Jimmy. Act 2—Alley Thomas and Valentine Gardner fall in love with each other and Chesterfield and Lucille are also becoming interested. Danny tries to have Peggy look his way but is told good clothes, good education and lots of money are her requirements in the man of her choice. Danny hears Val. and Chess discussing in the barn how they were going to help Mrs. Brooks pay the rent which Pierce was demanding. Danny thinks they are trying to steal the corn money and tells Alley. Later Alley demands an explanation from Val and not getting any, she avoids him. A terrible suspicion. In act three the mystery is unravelled. Mrs. Brooks is made happy. Jimmy is released from jail and marries Melinda. Chess and Lucille start out for a pitcher of cider and end up with an engagement ring. Peggy chooses Danny. Val reveals his true identity, buys the old farm and presents it to Alley with himself included. The villain is made to pay up the money he has wrongfully stolen from Mrs. Brooks, and all ends happily with a very clever tableau of a romantic nature. Each one cleverly acted their part and to us there were no stars, although some had a heavier role to play. Between acts a splendid program was given, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Mr. Ernest Baker sang a solo "Building a Home" with Mr. Case as accompanist. Miss Dayman gave two humorous readings "Mrs. Harris at the telephone" and "The Bachelors' Sale", where each old maid lugged an old bachelor home on her shoulder. The Tin Pan Alley Quartette, Messrs Case, Dracup, Morton and Baker, with Miss Dracup at the piano, sang "All the Ladies go wild over me" and responded to an encore. Mr. Case rendered a mandolin solo and as an encore gave "Old Black Joe". A pretty duet by the Misses Hoover "Keep this sister" gave the fat ladies in the audience good advice for reducing. Instrumental Trio, Tin Pan Alley—Piano, O. Dracup; Kazoo, E. Baker; Mandolin, A. Case, and they also responded to an encore. At the close the National Anthem was sung and the League Executive served lunch to the visitors. Again we emphatically state that all present felt they had enjoyed enough laughs and jollity to more than cover the admission price.

On Wednesday morning a pure-bred bull, the property of Mr. Charles Hoard, had the misfortune to fall into a newly-dug well, which was about thirty feet deep and about two-thirds filled with water. About 25 men soon came to the rescue, and with some difficulty managed to raise the animal from the well. Although thoroughly chilled by the cold water, it is reported that the animal will recover, otherwise the loss would have been a serious one as the animal was a valuable one, having been purchased from the Hart farm, near Woodstock.

Mrs. Thos. Andrews spent the week-end at Delton with her parents. Her father, Mr. Little, is seriously ill.

Master James Donnan is holidaying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Sharp.

At the play Friday night those who had reserve seats told us they enjoyed the affair immensely—nuff sed.

We are enjoying the luxury of green onions every day now from our patch of old-fashioned winter top onions.

KERR — HAACKE

The marriage took place at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stubbs, 53 Woodfield Rd., Toronto, of Dorothy Ellen Haacke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haacke, of Deloro, Ont., to William Kerr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kerr, of Deloro, Ont. The Rev. J. E. Fidler performed the ceremony. The bride was attractively gowned in beige lace and georgette, with a cluster of mauve and white sweetpeas and lily's breath. Attending the pair were Miss Evelyn Rice and Mr. Harry Haacke. Following the ceremony a buffet wedding luncheon was served. The bridal couple will reside in Deloro.

WEST HUNTINGDON

A large number of our ladies attended the annual meeting of the Institute, which was held at Mrs. Benson's, Ivanhoe, on Tuesday. Mrs. Geo. Cooke was elected president and Mrs. E. T. Searles, secretary. A big convention is being planned for June 5th, when some 200 delegates are expected to be present. It is to be held at Ivanhoe town hall, both morning and afternoon sessions. We have been informed that at the annual meeting many important topics were discussed such as taxes, depression, cutting out of lunches at monthly meetings, etc.

Miss Lulu Searles is spending this week with Mrs. Morley Aythart, at Frankford.

A few more of our citizens are having their phones disconnected. We are of the opinion it would be of advantage to Bell Telephone Co. if they would lower the rates, as the more phones that are taken out, the less value our phones are to us.

The Mothers' Day services in our two churches were largely attended. Two infants were baptized, namely John Glenwood Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Wilson, and John Allan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace. Mr. Paul Kingston attended the service in the United Church, and all were pleased to see him so active after over ninety years of age.

The recent rains have delayed the farmers in their seeding, but it is making the meadows grow and they are promising a great crop.

The cottage prayer meeting was held at Melville Reid's on Friday evening.

BURNBRAE

The Women's Missionary Society and the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Andrew's Church met at the Manse last Thursday afternoon. The meeting opened by singing hymn 717, after which Mrs. Frank Little read the Scripture lesson and Rev. D. A. McKenzie offered prayer. The W. M. S. decided to send clothing to the Mission fields in the West. After considering some other items of business the following program was presented: A splendid article from the Missionary Study Book was read by Mrs. Alex Milne, after which Mrs. George Craighead and Mrs. William Matthews rendered a duet in fine style. Miss Hazel McKenzie gave a reading which was much enjoyed by all, after which Mrs. Alvin Pollock rendered a fine piano solo. The meeting closed by singing hymn 461 and repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant social hour was spent.

Mr. Donald Craighead, B.Sc., of Toronto and Miss Emily Craighead, of Belleville, spent Sunday at the home of their father.

Mrs. Thos. Watson spent Sunday visiting her brother, Mr. Alex Watson, of Peterboro.

Professor and Mrs. Kleugh, of Queen's University, Kingston, were guests of Mr. Grant Thain, B.A., on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wartman, of Warkworth, spent Sunday at the home of her father, Mr. George Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. George Walker, of Cobourg, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. James Nelson.

The Mission Band of St. Andrew's Church will meet on Saturday at the home of Mr. George Craighead.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of Harold, visited her sisters, Mrs. J. C. Thain and Mrs. Samuel Wallace on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Craighead, of Belleville visited at the home of Mr. George Craighead on Sunday.

There was a large congregation in St. Andrew's Church on Sunday morning. It was a Mother's Day Service.

MADOC JUNCTION

Several of our people attended the funeral of the late Lorne Lanigan last Thursday in Stirling. Deepest sympathy has been extended to the bereaved widow and all who mourn.

"Mothers' Day" was observed here by visiting the graves of mothers who have passed on and by remembering the living mothers with gifts and reunions.

In thinking of Mrs. Lanigan's sorrow these lines seem to be written for grief like hers:

Not till the loom is silent,
And the shuttles cease to fly,
Shall God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why
The dark threads are as useful
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned.

Many will remember the happy days when Mrs. Lanigan was their school teacher.

The "Mother's Day" Program was read at Eggleton Church last Sunday. The pastor conducted the service, the S. S. Superintendent and the Sunday School assisting.

Mrs. Wm. Fitchett, of Stirling, returned home on Monday after spending the week on the farm with Mr. and Mrs. C. Fitchett.

Mr. Geo. Gay has been busy selling and delivering berry bushes and

Some of our people attended a service in Belleville on Sunday and report a wonderful sermon by Rev. T. J. Thompson, of Ottawa. Scripture lesson and text Psalm 63. The speaker said many regular church attendants seem to say at the close of a service "Good-bye Church, Good-bye sermon, Good-bye lovely music", instead of taking away new strength to use in their daily lives.

Hello Mount Pleasant—forgot to mention my thanks to you for the compliment re nomination as W.M.S. Secretary and think the work is being taken care of lots better than we could do it. Sorry we missed your report, but we are sure there would be encouragement in it. You may get a surprise in the near future and then you will understand how impossible your suggestion might be. Till then "carry on" and you'll get rewarded some time.

Messages Heard on Mother's Day
In passing childhood left me this
To make the long years bright,
The memory of my mother's kiss—
Her lullaby at night.

"Mother O' Mine"

"If I were hanged on the highest hill
I know whose love would follow me still.

Mother O' Mine.
If I were drowned in the deepest sea,
I know whose love would come down to me.

Mother O' Mine.
If I were damned, both body and soul,
Mother O' Mine, Mother O' Mine,
I know whose love would make me whole,

Mother O' Mine.

"A Spring Secret"

A lilac tree, in our garden grows,
And things have happened
You wouldn't suppose, Things have happened that nobody knows—

There are bulbs growing round the lilac tree.
The little green shoots Appeared one day,
And grew in a very remarkable way,
Almost as if they were trying to say They liked growing round our lilac tree.

And when they bloom—
As I hope they will—
Into tulips and daffodils,
I shall ask my friends to come and see

The bulbs growing round our lilac tree.

One Man's Meat

"When you eat Food you do not need, you are taking a slow poison. A man of sedentary habits should not eat heavy foods more than three times weekly. Any surplus beyond that point fails to nourish." — So Says an Eminent Food Authority

Health statistics show he is right. "Overeating" is given as the chief cause of thousands of Canadian breakdowns at an early age.

Wright's Bread is keep-young and keep-well food — because it contains no poisonous waste. Over ninety per cent. of it is converted at once to health and energy.

When TEETHING makes HIM FUSSY

One of the most important things you can do to make a teething baby comfortable is to see that little bowels do their work of carrying off waste matter promptly and regularly.
For this nothing is better than Castoria, a pure vegetable preparation especially made for babies and children. Castoria acts so gently you can give it to young infants to relieve colic. Yet it is always effective, for older children, too. Remember, Castoria contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics—is absolutely harmless.
When your baby is fretful with teething or a food upset, give a cleansing dose of Castoria. Be sure you get genuine Castoria with the name:

Special News For Farmers

Corn and Roots

Corn and roots are two crops essential for all kinds of livestock, taking the place of green grass in the ration long after the season for grass is over.
Corn is planted any time after danger of frost is past. Manure should be put in fairly early so that the seed will have the early moisture. Turnips are not planted before the second week in June and may go until about July 10. If planted too early they make less palatable feed and those which make most of their growth in early fall.

Cull Them Out

As soon as the spring spurt in egg production commences to lessen there are certain hens in every flock that should be culled out and marketed.
The sooner they are gotten rid of the bigger will be the flock profits. Labor is reduced, feed costs are lowered and the profitable birds are given more room in the laying house and on the range. Poultry should also sell for more money in the early part of the summer than later, so there is a material gain in disposing of the non-productive birds. One of the simplest ways to cull the flock is to go over the birds when they roost at night. Pick out those with shriveled, rough combs and shrunken, hard abdomens.
A bird with a large amount of hard fat around the abdomen is not in laying condition.

Soybeans in Ontario

Reports from thirty farmers who conducted soybean demonstrations in many parts of Ontario last year show the average date of seeding to be May 10th, average date cut for hay, August 20th, average height of plants thirty-two inches, average yield of hay 2.4 tons per acre.

Soybeans will grow on almost any type of soil although the best results cannot be expected on stiff clay or light sand. Soybeans to produce hay should be sown with an ordinary grain drill about May 15 for the average season. One and one-half to two bushels of seed per acre is required.
For Ontario conditions the O.A.C., No.
211 variety has given excellent results. Seed may be obtained from dealers and growers throughout the province. Soybeans should not be sown on weedy land and it is usually advisable to go over the crop with a light harrow after the plants are well through the ground. The crops should be cut with a mower and the plants allowed to lie in the swath until they are thoroughly wilted. Subsequent treatment is much the same as for other hay.

Reforestation

Tree planting is gaining in popularity with farmers in all parts of the province. As an example of good work done by an individual farmer, Walter S. Riddell of Thorndale, Ont., this year undertook an extensive scheme of reforestation on his farm in Nissouri Township. He has 20-000 trees, mostly spruce, pine and cedar and quite a number of nut trees and hardwoods. There will be enough in all to cover fifteen acres. Middlesex County has been one of the leaders in reforestation. In 1931 there were 165,500 seedling trees supplied by the Government to residents of the county for reforestation purposes.
These seedlings are supplied free of charge. Other counties are doing almost as well and a number of fine municipal forests are in course of growth.

Rutabagas in Demand

According to reports, the Farmers'
Co-Operative Association of Blackwater, has an order for 30,000 bushels of "Big O" Brand rutabagas to be delivered next marketing season. These rutabagas are intended for distribution in Toronto and Montreal.

This information is gratifying to the Ontario Marketing Board, as it was at the suggestion of the Board that the original idea of branding rutabagas was adopted by the Blackwater organization.

While the marketing of rutabagas was in the experimental stage, over 7,000 bushels were sold, mostly in Toronto, with trial shipments to Montreal and New York City. On every side satisfaction is reported, and one firm volunteered the information that its table turnip business had doubled this year, attributing this to the high quality of these branded rutabagas.

Weekly Crop Report

Orchards in Dundas County are looking particularly well and prospects are for a good crop in well-handled orchards. A large number of old orchards are being trimmed up and put in shape and will be sprayed this season or the first time in several years. Blossom time will be later this year owing to the backward season. Durham County reports that orchardists in the Port Hope district purchased a carload of ammonia sulphate to supply their requirements this year. Fall wheat has never looked better than at the present time, ac-ording to a report from Haldimand, but sweet clover has suffered badly from heaving. In the Muskoka and Parry Sound district it is reported that a much larger acreage of new land has been cleared than usual, in fact more and has been cleared altogether in the last five years. Northumberland County reports 1,000 acres of tomatoes will be contracted at a contract price of 25c a bushel as compared with 3,000 acres at 50c a bushel in 1930. Seeding has been general throughout the province. York County reports good seed exceptionally scarce and that farmers possessing good seed all report that they could have sold three or four times the amount they had on hand.

Planting Strawberries

The new bed of strawberries should be planted now. Obtain new plants from a one-year-old plantation. Dig them with a digging fork, shake out the soil, gather them up quickly and remove to some shelter where they may be gone over, sorted and straightened out preparatory to planting. The sooner they are planted the better and just before doing so, dip the plants into water so that they are thoroughly wet. The spade is the best tool for hand planting, and with a boy to place the plants in the opening made with the spade, two people working together can plant very rapidly, even 3,000 to 4,000 or more plants per day.
All blossoms should be removed the first year to enable the plants to produce an abundance of strong runners and new plants in order to form the matted row. Thorough and frequent cultivation should be given during the season. Nitrogen in the form of nitrate of soda or ammonia sulphate may be used to advantage just after the plants have started into growth.

Pasture Improvement

A vast amount of work on pasture improvement has been done in recent years. Experimental work has shown that pasture grasses are most nutritious while young, and out of that has grown the recommendation of closer grazing, moving the herd on to another field and bringing them back again after the first pasture has recuperated.

Fertilizers have shown marked results in several ways: First of all in more and earlier growth, in improved quality of grass, less growth of weeds and increased resistance to drought.

Pastures may be improved in several ways. An application of manure or commercial fertilizers is, perhaps the easiest method of restoring old pastures. Another method is to reseed and disk or harrow. The most thorough practice is to break up the old pasture, build up the fertility and seed to a good pasture mixture.
When the intention is to pasture meadows after one or two hay crops are removed (and this is general practice), seed of suitable pasture grasses should be included in the seeding.

What the Public Buys with Taxes

A subscriber telephoned us yesterday, and said this:

"I read your editorial stating that high taxes were the result of the public clamoring for government services. Why not tell us what those services consist of? In other words, what do we buy when we pay taxes?"

We shall try to oblige.

Let us begin with a municipality, nearest to the average man. When a citizen pays taxes to a municipality
he gets in return, among other things:

1. Protection from fire for his life and the building which he owns or works in and occupies. In addition, the fire insurance rates which he pays directly or indirectly are partly determined by the efficiency of his civil fire protection and prevention service.

2. Protection from violence for his life and property which he owns or works in or with; also the right of living in an orderly community.

3. Education for his children and for the children of the community with whom his children are brought up and by whom they must be greatly influenced, and the possibility of living in an enlightened community, without much life might hardly be worth living.

4. Health for the community through its public health and sanitation and sewer services, this benefiting himself and his family both directly and indirectly. Hospitals for the sick.

5. Highways and sidewalks which make his home and his place of business available for use.

6. A supply of water, without which he could not live, or have his family live, and without which he could not carry on his business or his home.

7. Amusements, such as parks and playgrounds, for the community in which he lives and has his home.

8. Social welfare services for the indigent and the temporarily distressed.

We come now to the province.
When a man pays taxes to the provincial government, he gets, among other things:

1. The province provides for the training of teachers in the public schools, technical schools, continuation schools, commercial schools, high schools, and colleges, etc., inspects the schools, sets sanitary standards and distributes grants, thus promoting the efficiency of the schools.

2. It maintains a general supervision over public health, may exercise strong powers affecting sewage disposal, water supply, the sanitation of summer resorts, etc.

3. It pays a large part of the administration of justice, thus protecting citizens in the enjoyment of their lives and property

4. It provides main highways and assists in providing subsidiary highways throughout the province.

5. It pays a share of the cost of the province's hospitals.

6. It may provide for "Mothers' Allowances" to enable children to be brought under mother's care in case of widowhood or desertion, costs sometimes being distributed between the province and the municipality.

7. It provides for the care of those mentally ill, and directly or indirectly assists in the support indigent patients in general hospitals.

8. It protects game and fisheries.

9. It promotes and assists agriculture, protects forests and in general supervises the conservation and development of natural resources in so far as the natural resources are controlled by the province.

10. It pays out compensation to injured workmen.

11. It protects title to all real property or provides means by which title may be protected.

12. It organizes municipal councils and regulates them.

13. It regulates and inspects financial institutions.

Finally, the Dominion; what does it do for the taxpayer, with the taxpayer's money? Among other things:

1. The Dominion regulates trade and commerce.

2. It provides for interprovincial railway transportation, directly or indirectly.

3. It regulates railway rates.

4. It rounds out the system of administration of justice and, in some districts, directly administers law.

5. It controls and directs all our external relations and keeps in touch with the British Government and the Governments of all the British Dominions.

6. It maintains trade agents abroad to help our trade and commerce.

7. It protects against civil disorders and provides for national defence.

8. It controls immigration and examines prospective residents.

9. It runs the Post Office.

10. It controls banking and issues or controls the issue of money.

11. It maintains national parks and game sanctuaries.

12. It maintains employment bureaux, collects labor information, takes charge of an unemployment crisis (like that of the present), deals with any emergent necessity for relief.

13. It builds and maintains most of our public works; also most of our canals and waterways.

14. It controls Indian affairs; administers Canadian Indian lands as a trust.

15. It fosters agriculture, fishing and mining.

16. It promotes invention and authorship through existing patents and copyrights and fosters manufacturing and commerce by registration trademarks, etc.

17. It maintains various scientific services and fosters scientific research.

18. It pays out millions of dollars annually to Canadian war veterans.

19. It pays out many more millions annually in interest on the debt which the country has incurred ether for war or for capital expenditure on public works and other services.—

LATE WILLIAM W. WALT

William Wesley Walt, of Enid, Sask., aged 72, died at his home Sunday, April 17th. Mr. Walt was born at Frankford, Ont., going to Deloro in his early days, where he married Jane Richardson. The deceased lived at Deloro and Cordova Mines, moving West in 1906, where he carried on farming operations until his death.
The deceased was in the best of health till two weeks previous to his death, when he suffered a stroke from which he never recovered.

He is survived by his widow, three sons Joe, of 912 Robinson St., Regina; John, of Letross, Sask.; Harry, of Enid, Sask.; Hugh Currie, adopted son, at home; also three brothers—Edway, of Stockdale; Addison, of Toronto; and Dr. C. F. Walt, of Stirling; also eleven grandchildren and one great grandson. Services were conducted at the home by the Rev. Mr.
Abernethy, of Melville, Sask. Interment at McDonald Hills Cemetery.

"I'll see if Ella can come"

The very day visitors were coming, Bob Emery's wife caught a bad chill. She tried to keep going, but it was obvious that she would have to go to bed.

"Now don't worry," Bob said,
"Ella's only 30 miles away. I'll just get her on the telephone and see if she can't come and help us out."

A few minutes later they had Ella's cheery promise. Once more, in an emergency, Long Distance had proved quick, dependable — and surprisingly inexpensive.

Miss Irene Stephens of Campbellford is to be congratulated in passing her final examinations in Arts at Queen's University, as a B.A., winning honours in Latin and Greek. Miss Stephens is a niece of Mrs. John G. Reid, of Hubble Hill.

Belleville—Constable Alfred Hodgson, of the Lindsay Police, arrived in Belleville and took Alfred Bostock and Violet Graham back to their home town of Lindsay, where Bostock will face a charge of theft from the Eismure Hotel, where he was employed previous to his arrest in Belleville.

Belleville—The first session of the Belleville Cheese Board for the 1932 season was held in the City Council chambers Saturday morning. No cheese was offered for sale as many factories, members of the board, have not as yet started operating. Mr. F. Wessel, retiring salesman for the Wooler factory, introduced his successor, Mr. W. C. Bull, who has been a continuous patron of that factory since it first started 42 years ago. The Board will meet again on Saturday next.

Tweed—Mr. William Austin, assistant agent at the Canadian National Railway station has been notified that he has been appointed agent at Haliburton, to which place he will be transferred in a short time. Mr. Austin was elected president of the local Horticultural Society at the annual meeting held some time ago, and as an ardent lover of flowers and supporter of the society will be greatly missed. Mrs. Austin and the family will continue to reside in Tweed until the close of the school year.

For the first time during his tenure of office Mayor J. M. Bygott, as chief magistrate of the town, presided over the Campbellford Police Court on Thursday, and sentenced Clayton Akey, 21, of Campbellford, to six months in the common gaol with hard labor, for unlawfully brewing beer without a permit. The option of a fine of $200 and costs was stated which Akey declared he could not pay. He pleaded guilty to the charge which is his second offence, he having recently served a two months' term in the Cobourg gaol.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rollins, Ivanhoe, was the scene of an interesting family gathering when the latter celebrated her sixty-sixth birthday. Twenty-five guests were present, sons, daughters and grandchildren of Mrs. Rollins, who was presented with a gift by her children. Among those who were present at the enjoyable event were her sons, Mr. Harry Rollins, Charles Street, Belleville, and Mr. Clarence Rollins, of Stirling; Mrs. Don Campbell, of Belleville; Mrs. Albert Cook and Mrs. G. H. Rinnalls, of Harold, and Mrs. Howard Cook, of West Huntingdon, and their families.

Prime Minister R. B. Bennett on Saturday instructed Hon. Philippe Roy, Canadian Minister to Paris, to convey personally to the Government of France the deepest sympathy of the people and Government in Canada in the great loss sustained in the assassination of Paul Doumer, veteran President of the French Republic. The Prime Minister further cabled Mr. Roy to express Canada's fullest appreciation of the high character of the assassinated President and of his long and patriotic service in which President Doumer had won a notable place not only in the annals of France but in world affairs.

Geneva—Senator Gideon Robertson former Canadian Minister of Labor was reported on Monday to be improving following his collapse on Thursday evening. He hopes to be able to return to Canada with Mrs. Robertson on May 21. The Canadian Senator, who was elected president at the opening of the World Labor Conference under the auspices of the League of Nations, and who headed the Canadian delegation to the conference, was stricken after attending a dinner with Albert Thomas, famous French Labor statesman and director of the International Labour Bureau. Mr. Thomas collapsed and died in Paris on Sunday, apparently from natural causes.

Facing a charge of stealing $428.68 from the Tudor Lake school section, William Henderson appeared in the County Police Court before Magistrate Casement at Madoc last Thursday afternoon and when the charge was read to him he immediately pleaded guilty as the Crown had produced previous evidence sufficient to assure the accused that there was nothing to gain in fighting the case. Henderson, who was formerly the secretary-treasurer of the Union School section at Tudor Lake is charged with the stealing of monies during a period spread over the past four years. After pleading guilty the accused pleaded for leniency and the case was enlarged for one week for sentence. In the meantime Henderson is being held pending sentence of the court.

Hamilton, Ont.—Direct relief will henceforth be provided for Ontario unemployed and the system of financing public works to relieve the jobless will be abandoned. This statement was made here on Friday by Premier George S. Henry in a Canadian Club luncheon address. "Everyone must be supplied with food, fuel and shelter," said the Premier, after reviewing the history of the present economic depression and the efforts of the Ontario Federal authorities to offset its effects. "The Government proposes now to inaugurate a policy of direct relief. It may seem like a step backward when we spend money without getting anything in the nature of an asset, but we have reached the stage where we must curtail expenditure. We will provide sustenance instead of employment, although the latter scheme is preferable."

Frankford—A week ago last Saturday afternoon, a heroic act was performed by Mr. Jack Rogers of Frankford in stopping a runaway team, thereby saving the horses from being hurt, and probably the wagon being broken to pieces. Mr. Brooks of Glen Miller was the owner and had driven his team to the canning factory after some seed. During his absence, the horses apparently became frightened and the frightened animals raced down the road, turned down the front street and dashed past all the stores. Mr. Jack Rogers, who had been standing near the mill made one flying leap and landed safely on the wagon, driving them across the bridge. Only by such clear thinking and level headedness could the team have been saved. Coming back across, he handed the reins over to the thankful Mr. Brooks.

Held responsible for the series of thefts that occurred Wednesday night in Havelock, George Wallbridge, aged 26, married, of Belmont Township, and Roland Miles, aged 19, of Dummer Township, were arrested last Thursday night at Wallbridge's home by Provincial Constables D. Sylvester and W. Warren. They were charged before Police Magistrate Langley, at Peterboro, on Friday morning on two theft charges, including breaking and entering the garage of G. E. Childs and stealing the tires and rims from the rear wheels of his truck; also the theft of 20 feet of air hose and a quantity of gasoline from R. J. Covert's service station. Wallbridge pleaded guilty to the theft of tires, but said not guilty to the second charge. Miles pleaded not guilty to both charges. Both were remanded until May 10, bail being fixed at $1,000.

Fire which with a slightly more encouraging wind, might have had more serious consequences, occurred at Frankford, when the barn and drive house belonging to the old Sweatman property now owned by Mrs. Thos. Hurley, of Belleville, were totally destroyed. Mr. Brown, an employee of Mr. Newton Maybes, gardener, was engaged in cleaning up the brush on the hill just west of the barn and as there was but a very little wind, he set fire to a pile about 50 feet from the buildings. The draft carried the sparks directly toward the barn, and as the roof was old some of them dropped through and ignited some straw, with the result that the flames spread so quickly that nothing could be done. However, some of the residents of the village side of the track were kept rather busy protecting their roofs. Fortunately there were no contents of any great value, as the property had not been occupied for some time, although Mr. Maboe had been working the land for garden purposes. A wagon and gas engine, also a few chateaus, stored in the drive house, were successfully removed.

RUSSIA BUYS CANADIAN WHEAT

Vancouver—The Vancouver Sun published the following:

"Coming as the most significant development in the Vancouver grain season, confirmation was secured Thursday of the sale of 1,500,000 bushels of grain for shipment to Russia from this port.

"Five vessels have been chartered to carry it to Vladivostok. The Caltsemoor, now loading here, is one. Names of the other four have not been disclosed.

"With Russia, three months ago regarded as the greatest menace to other wheat exporting countries, now back in world markets as a buyer, Vancouver grain men believe possibly 10,000,000 bushels of wheat will move through Vancouver to Siberia in the next few months.

"The 40,000 tons of grain going out on these five ships to a consuming channel, undreamed of six weeks ago are generally understood to be supplies for Russian troops assembled in Siberia since the Manchurian border troubles with Japan.

"Not a great deal is known about the shipments since most of the wheat was sold in London.

"The London office of Kerr, Nifford and Co., arranged four of the cargoes, it is understood."

THESE REASONS make it wiser than ever TO CHOOSE THIS SIX TODAY!

- 1 Chevrolet pioneered the six-cylinder engine in the low priced field because this is the one type of power plant that strikes a perfect balance of smooth performance and maximum economy. It is necessary to have six cylinders to get multi-cylinder smoothness.
- 2 Drivers of sixes never want less; and anything more than six cylinders means a sacrifice of economy! The Chevrolet Six costs less to operate than any other full-size car. Naturally, more than six cylinders would mean greater expense for gasoline, oil and upkeep.
- 3 The 1932 Chevrolet Six is a proved car. It represents the fullest development of the basic multi-cylinder principle which has resulted in highest satisfaction to more than 2,000,000 Chevrolet Six owners.
- 4 The Chevrolet Six is the lowest priced car combining Silent Synchro-Mesh shift and Free Wheeling.
- 5 Bodies by Fisher are exclusive on Chevrolet in the lowest price field. Fisher hardwood-and-steel construction is the safest and most durable.
- 6 New, reduced prices and easy terms over a period of months. Immediate delivery of any model.
- 7 The Chevrolet motor is mounted on thick rubber blocks, utilizing the most modern and efficient method of preventing vibration.
- 8 109-inch wheelbase. Strong frame. Four long springs, with four Lovejoy shock absorbers.
- 9 Stabilized front fender design. Insulated driver's compartment. Fisher non-glare VV windshield, easily adjustable with one hand for ventilation.

BOB PATTERSON

ST. PAUL'S Y. P. S.

St. Paul's Y.P.S. met as usual on Monday evening, with an attendance of 93. The devotional exercises were in charge of the President, Mr. Harry Hulin. Mrs. E. Snowden read the Scripture lesson, taken from 2nd Acts, chapter 11, also gave a short synopsis of same. Mrs. E. W. Rowland led in prayer. Donald Richardson presided over the remaining program. Madeline Leury, Olive and Jean Munro delighted the audience with a sacred vocal number entitled "A little kingdom I possess". A splendid reading entitled "Where Love is, God is," was well given by Marion Bailey. Miss Laurene Scott very ably played to the delight of all present "Norwegian Bridal Procession", by Grieg. The outstanding feature of the evening was a missionary address on the subject "First Christian Missionaries", given by Mrs. Ernest Munro, 2nd vice-pres. The speaker traced the early missionary work of the Christian Church from the time of St. Paul, showing that because Paul travelled westward the western nations are at the present time farther advanced in civilization and Christianity than the east. In the eighteenth century Canada awoke to the necessity of sending missionaries to the Heathen lands. The speaker traced Canada's missionary efforts in the New Hebrides, under some of the following leaders: Sir John Gade and wife; Rev. George Gordon and his brother, Rev. L. Robinson; Rev. McKenzie and Rev. Paton. This address was very interesting and the audience felt better acquainted with the New Hebrides. Donald Richardson put on a "Can" contest. Red, Blue and White gained equal honours. The Mizpah benediction closed this very inspiring meeting.

The meeting of St. Andrew's Guild on Monday evening was surely a banner meeting. The attendance, the high order of the program and the spirit of the meeting without doubt made it one of the high lights in the history of the Guild. The Literary Vice-President, Mrs. R. W. Melkie-John once again proved her exceptional powers for leadership in that she had all the people working. The basement indeed looked gay with its decorations and plants which contributed greatly to the good fellowship of the meeting. Mrs. F. Cosbey read the Scripture lesson and Rev. A. N. Reid led the meeting in prayer. The meeting joined in group singing led by Arthur Duncan and accompanied at the piano by Mr. C. Allen, assisted by Mr. T. Furnival on the violin. The two old-time hymns "Shall we gather at the river" and "I am Thine, O Lord" were sung with much expression and enthusiasm. Mrs. H. Rollins' class of Junior boys sang "Dare to be a Daniel" and showed their elders that there would need to be room in the choir-loft for these boys soon. Three of the girls in Mrs. Murduff's class, Trenelda Eggleton, Iva Chambers and Marguerite Rosebush gave a talk on some of the women in the Bible. These girls reflected credit on their teacher as well as on their own ability to speak with ease. Gena Spry's class of Junior girls sang "Jesus wants me for a Sunbeam". The audience did not need vivid imagination to guess the sincerity of these girls as they sang with smiling faces. For the next two numbers the Guild was indeed grateful in that they were given by two youthful visitors, Maurieta McKee and Jack Moise. Maurieta and Mr. C. Allen gave a piano duet and Jack a duet with Mr. Allen and a piano solo. These youthful musical artists won for themselves the almost breathless attention of the gathering as well as the heartiest applause. The very best wishes of the Guild go with these two juniors as they continue to practice that they may some day gain a name for themselves in the musical realm. The Mizpah benediction closed this part of the meeting. A chorus by William Derridy, Arthur Duncan and Ernest Cain, "My Blue Ridge Mountain Home" was well received. Harold Baker gave a humorous reading. The last number on the program was a humorous one-act play "The forgetful husband". The bride of one year, Mrs. D. Lamb, had made extensive plans for her first wedding anniversary. She and her husband, Arthur Duncan had the misfortune to have been married on Feb. 28th. The bride is confident that Feb. 28th should be the day of their anniversary and has made plans accordingly. The day arrived and unfortunately her husband is away from home. Miss Smith, her mother, assures her that the young husband of one year has forgotten all about the anniversary. Two neighbor women, Mrs. R. H. Williams and Miss Gena Spry help support the mother-in-law's argument that the husband will not return. Biddy, the maid, Emma Allen, assisted in tangling the controversy. The husband returns and a heated argument follows for he is strong in the opinion that Mar. 1 should be the day for the anniversary. In the end, while each is positive that he or she is right, they decide to compromise and to celebrate from 11 p.m., Feb. 28 to 1 a.m., Mar. 1. Each member of the cast exalted themselves in the whole-hearted fashion in which they entered into the spirit of the play.

ST. PAUL'S W. M. S.

The monthly meeting of St. Paul's W.M.S. was held on Tuesday afternoon at two-thirty with the President, Mrs. C. E. Macklin, presiding. The meeting opened with the singing of "Rescue the Perishing", after which Miss A. Hume led in prayer. The Treasurer's report was read and adopted and the report of the Secretary was read and approved. Mrs. Sine, the Supply Secretary, asked for donations of clothing or materials to be made into articles of clothing for the autumn bazaar. The Christian Steward Secretary, Mrs. H. C. Martin, gave a very fine paper on "Our Great Opportunity". We have a great responsibility in the upbringing and training of our children and it is not alone the duty and privilege of parents. When children reach the age when they are making contacts outside of the home, in the schools, in the church and other organizations, it is the duty and privilege of teachers and leaders and responsible citizens to advise and help these children to become upright and useful citizens, and to help them to do that which is right at all times.

The June meeting is to take the form of a Mothers' and Babies' meeting and invitations will be sent to the mothers and young children. The roll call was answered by a verse of Scripture having keyword "Pray" or "Prayer".

Mrs. Duffin, the Temperance Secretary, had charge of the remainder of the program.

The hymn "Soldiers of Christ, Arise" was sung and verses of Scripture emphasizing the dangers of the use of strong drink were read by several of the members. Miss Christie gave a splendid paper on Temperance and related the different attempts made to control the liquor traffic. Total abstinence is the proposition of the Bible — evidently the Scriptures demand this of us because of the evil resultant to body, blood, brain, soul, home and society from the presence and potency of alcohol. The Christian view of life demands that our attitude to all questions shall be determined by our love for God and our fellow men. The next advance in Temperance legislation will undoubtedly be along the line of curtailing the manufacture as well as the retail sale of liquor.

Miss Mildred White gave a very appropriate temperance reading entitled "A Mother's Story", which was much appreciated. This very helpful meeting was closed with singing of hymn "Yield not to Temptation", followed with prayer by Mrs. E. W. Rowland.

Two of the directors were appointed as a flower committee and the other three as a property committee. Flower Committee—Mrs. Sine, Mrs. Spry.

Property Committee—Mrs. J. McGee, Mrs. W. Whitty, Mrs. L. Rodgers.

Mrs. Tulloch then took the chair and took charge of the rest of the meeting. Communications were read and business finished up. It was decided to have the June meeting the first Thursday of the month, at night, in the Community Hall. Mrs. A. Shaw and Mrs. T. Spry as program committee on "Home Economics". Meeting then closed with the National Anthem. Lunch was served at the close and during the lunch hour a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. A. Shaw for her splendid services given while president, for three years. A vote of thanks was also given Mrs. M. Vandervoort for conducting the meeting during the election of officers.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

An outstanding birthday party was held at the home of Mr. Bert Searles, Oak Lake, on Saturday, April 30th, in honour of his mother, Mrs. Armina Searles, who celebrated her 85th birthday on May 1st. There were over thirty-seven present including children, grand children and great grandchildren.

Mrs. Searles, who has passed the four score years, is one of the district's oldest natives residing in the community. She was born on the eighth concession of Sidney, east of the Belleville road and has resided all her life within a radius of two miles of where she was born. Since the death of her husband, ten years ago, she has resided with her son, Bert, at Oak Lake. Her maiden name was Armina Faulkner.

This dear old lady is in the best of health and in possession of all her faculties. Her eyesight is most keen, and it is not necessary for her to use spectacles when reading. Other than a serious illness a little over a year ago, she has been in the best of health. During her lifetime, spent in close proximity of Stirling, she has witnessed many changes both in the times and residents. She can well remember when Oak Lake was without its summer cottages which line its shores at present. Also wild animals, such as wolves and deer were seen quite frequently during her younger days. She has also seen fields that are cleared today, in standing timber, and in those times horses were somewhat scarce and yokes of oxen were used to till the soil and other work now accomplished by horse. Grain in those days was marketed in Belleville and Trenton, and in the days about sixty years ago, it was nothing to see a wagon train over a mile long, hauling grain to those two centres. The making of potash was also a means of making money. Mrs. Searles can remember distinctly when the railway was constructed through Stirling, over fifty years ago. Mrs. Searles does not look her 85 years. She is quite smart in moving around and is contemplating a visit, alone, to her daughter, Mrs. Mildred Windsor, in Haliburton, this coming summer. She loves a joke and has an over ready smile, which no doubt has won her many enduring friends up through the years.

The party in her honour was a decided success, and among the many present she received was a purse of money, and an address was also read. The only member of the family absent was Mrs. B. Windsor, of Haliburton, who was unable to make the trip. The following were among those present: Mr. Benj. Faulkner Foxboro; Mrs. Thos. Gay, Foxboro; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright, Harold; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Dafeo, Trenton; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Searles, Holloway; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dafeo and Howard, Trenton; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Westfall, Trenton; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holgate, Cannifton; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Windsor, Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Windsor, Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mitts, Trenton; Mrs. Harry Patterson and Douglas Clayton, N.Y.; Miss Marjorie Searles Clayton, N.Y.

It is such pioneers as this great old lady that has made this district the outstanding section which it is now considered.

The following is the address: Dear Mother and Grandmother:

We, your children and grandchildren, have gathered here today to rejoice with you that you are to-morrow entering upon the eighty-sixth year of your life in such comfort and health.

Your sons and daughters, who assembled with you round the family hearth in your younger days, have not forgotten the patience and perseverance, real heroism, with which you and father worked, yea toiled, under most adverse circumstances, with limited finance, and moved about from one place to another at another's will, that you might keep your little flock around you, hoping for no greater reward. The pictures of those days that hang on our "Memory's Walls" are innumerable and all shine with the same qualities; loyalty to your husband, duty to your family fulfilled with a courage and cheerfulness which can come, under such circumstances, from none but an indomitable spirit. Ever associated with you are the memories of the spinning wheel and loom with which you clothed us, blanketed us and brightened many a home in your community with the product of your hands. You were an entire woollen mill in yourself. Little did we realize then, that out of another loom you were weaving the fabrics of our character from the thread and warp of your own in such a way as to inspire us always to the better life and to transmit the qualities we had acquired at your hand to ours in turn.

And we, your grandchildren, shall count this a red-letter day in our lives that we have been privileged to enjoy your maternal greetings and unparalleled cheerfulness throughout these many years of your later life and today to congratulate you with our deepest affection upon the attainment of such a successful career. Our memories of you and the impressions you have left upon us are indelible. The joy with which you were always welcomed by us as children, (and we feel like that yet to you) was second only to that of your own children and we have always rejoiced when Grandma was coming as at no other time. We are sure too, that these, our little folk, your second generation of grandchildren, shall feel a thrill of pleasure for years to come at mention of the name of Grandma Searles.

And there are more yet of your family here: we, your sons-in-law and daughters-in-law very heartily enter into this celebration with you. Our associations with you have always been the very pleasantest. Those bounties of yours, whose hearts we stole, have proven the greatest gift of God to us and we are proud to have your Faulkner's blood in our children's veins.

And now, mother of us all, one and all of us realize or will realize as we grow older, that you are a very excellent type of citizen that Canada can never see again—the pioneer. It is by you and those of your generation that the unwritten but most valid history of our Province, and the foundations of the character of our country have been made. "Quality" was always a mark of your handiwork. You have taken desert and made it blossom as the rose. A good many of us remember what this beautiful spot where you now dwell, was forty years ago, and we want to say it is one of the greatest joys of our lives to see you live to enjoy the biessings reaped from your earlier endeavors, amid adversity, on this place. The rest of us are especially grateful to these who are caring for you and making you so comfortable in these most hallowed days of your life. But God alone can reward such virtues, and the best we can hope is that your personality may permeate our lives and be enlarged from generation to generation.

And now we all join in wishing you many years of health and happiness among us yet and as a remembrance of this eighty-fifth anniversary of your birth we ask you to accept this gift, and may it express to you a small measure of the esteem in which you are held among us.

Mrs. Searles replied with appropriate remarks, and although touched, her little speech was blended with humor. The News-Argus joins the residents of the district in wishing her many more happy birthdays.

THE LATE LORNE LANIGAN

Citizens of this district were greatly shocked when they learned that Mr. Lorne Lanigan, whose death was chronicled in last week's issue, had passed away at his late residence, Ridge Road, Rawdon township, on May 8th. The deceased had been in ill health, suffering from cancer, and three weeks prior to his death had been taking treatments in Belleville hospital. Although recovery from the malady was beyond hope, his sudden demise was unexpected.

Mr. Lanigan was born on June 23, 1895 and was the son of Mr. Robert Lanigan and the late Catherine Lanigan. He was of the most genial nature, and made many friends by his cheerful disposition. He was considered one of this district's most successful farmers. In politics he was a Conservative and in religion an Anglican. He was also an enthusiastic member of the Stirling Men's Welfare Club.

He is survived by his wife (nee Lottie Sprague, of Sutton) whom he married in 1924, and four little children, Mary Louise, aged five years, and John, aged three years; his aged father, and one brother, Clarence, of Rochester, N.Y., and one sister, Mrs. A. Blair, of Brockville. The funeral service was held in St. John's Anglican Church, of which deceased was a member, last Thursday. Rev. B. F. Byers conducted the service assisted by Rev. W. H. Truscott, of West Huntingdon United Church. Rev. Mr. Byers preached a most comforting sermon. The pallbearers were Messrs Volney Richardson, John Thompson, Morley Hargravy, Foster Wilson, Raymond Chambers and John West.

The funeral was largely attended.

and the floral tributes were beautiful and numerous, which testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The News-Argus joins with the residents of the district in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.

The floral tributes were as follows: Wreath, wife and children; Pillow, father, sister and brothers; Cross, Mr. and Mrs. John Sprague and Miss Hazel Sprague, Sutton; Broken wheel neighbors; Sprays, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rhodes, Brighton, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Sprague, Timmins; Mrs. Orne and Miss Isabel Orne, Belleville; Teachers and pupils of Ridge Road School; Stirling Community Welfare Club, Mr. and Mrs. Volney Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Belshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright, Miss Alice Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. A. Stevenson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sills, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Johnston, Miss Tena Conley, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Prentice, Niagara Falls; Miss Ann Sills, Niagara Falls.

TWO CONVICTED IN PROCURING OF FOOD

Facing a charge of obtaining a quantity of goods and groceries from Reeve George Arnott of Frankford, Dorothy Judge and her sister-in-law, Eunice Judge, appeared before Magistrate Mikel in the Belleville Police Court on Saturday. After hearing the evidence of Reeve Arnott, who testified that the two women had come to him and Rev. A. S. Doggett, of Frankford, for relief, he had procured them the necessary foodstuffs and then had followed them to Glen Ross where he found they lived. The two accused women later admitted that they did not live in Frankford, as they had told the Reeve. Eunice Judge also admitted in court the fact, that although she had told Reeve Arnott she was married this statement was not true. His Worship after hearing the evidence found the women guilty and enlarged the case until today for sentence.

BY-LAW APPROVED BY RY. BOARD

The debenture by-law in connection with the permanent waterworks has been approved by the Provincial Railway and Municipal Board. Two deputations, one representing citizens opposed to the project and one representing citizens in favour, interviewed the Board in Toronto last Friday, and after hearing both sides of the question, which was only fair, the Board gave its approval. W. H. Patterson, Alex. Park, W. S. Martin, Ed. Baker and R. L. Christie represented the opposition, while Reeve W. C. West, Thos. Montgomery sr., Dr. H. H. Alger, Dr. C. F. W. and Councilor O'Donnell were delegates in favour of waterworks.

As soon as the by-law is given its third and final reading by the council the debentures will go on sale. It is anticipated that the entire issue will be sold in the district. Arrangements will be made, as soon as possible, to take care of all extensions. The first extension will be to Cranston's Poultry Farm, Mill street east, after the necessary procedure is taken. The Council hopes that the entire village will be served before the installation is completed. It is expected that work on the trenches etc., will commence within the next week, which will be welcome news to the unemployed in Stirling and district.

ODDFELLOWS AT MADOC

A number of members of Stirling I.O.O.F. visited Madoc lodge last night. The second degree was conferred on three candidates, two from Stirling and one from Madoc, by the degree team from Belleville. Following the work in the lodge a lunch was served and a social hour spent, including a program of songs, speeches, etc. Bro. Alex. Park gave a couple of Irish readings that were well received. The following are the Stirling brothers who were present: Geo. Carlisle, E. Broadworth, Alex. Park, Bert Searles, Geo. Weaver, Roy Thrasher, John Carlisle, Ernest Ward, Jack Magee, Harry Hullin, J. B. Thompson, E. Carlisle, Harold Ashley, Earl Fox, Thos. Spry, Elgin Jackman, W. H. Patterson, S. L. Snowden, R. H. Williams and the candidates, J. C. Beacock and A. E. Dobbie.

TENNIS COURTS TO BE ERECTED AT ONCE

Two tennis courts will be erected immediately, with all modern equipment. These courts will no doubt be as fine as any in this part of the county, and it is certain that tennis is going to find a large following in Stirling. At the meeting of the newly-organized H. S. Literary and Community Tennis Club, held in the Agricultural Rooms on Tuesday night, it was reported by the canvassers that a large number of the local fans had given their approval of the idea and all were anxious that the courts be erected so that playing could be begun at once. The fee is small, being only $1.50 per season, with a possible additional assessment of 50 cents later. Balls and rackets will be available at a very small rental fee, and anyone wishing to use these will be at liberty to do so. The High School Literary Society members and pupils of the school have set hours for playing which will not in any way hinder the other club members from enjoying the game. The Rules Committee presented the regulations for the Club at the meeting and these were approved by all members present. Throughout the summer months this game has created great interest in surrounding towns and such towns as Tweed, Campbellford, Point Anne, etc., have been enjoying this sport for several seasons and have had no trouble in keeping up a real live club. There seems to be no reason why Stirling should not have a good line-up of fast opposition for these towns in future seasons. At present though, the desire of those who are already members of the club is to get thoroughly organized and get everyone interested in the game. The courts will be erected behind the high school and the grounds are thought to be ideal. The best equipment available is being purchased and the erection of the courts is in charge of Mr. J. B. Beishaw, aided by the Grounds Committee of the Club, consisting of Messrs. Spinks, McGee and Joblin.

WRONG CAR

In an article in last week's issue it was stated that a Durant car, belonging to Mr. Robert Scarlett, garage man, Springbrook, was destroyed by fire. Mr. Scarlett has informed this office that it was a Chevrolet that went up in smoke.

PAINT MEMORIAL FENCE

Through the efforts of the Stirling Legion the fence surrounding the Memorial Park has been painted a dark green; also the flower hangers and guards. This greatly improves the appearance of the park and when flowers are in bloom will be one of the village's most attractive spots. The Legion supplied the paint for the job, the Memorial Society paying only for the labour in applying same.

MOVED TO YARKER

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Andrews, of Madoc Junction, will be sorry to learn that they are moving from this district to take up residence in Yarker. Mr. Andrews has been agent at Madoc Junction for over forty years. There is a possibility of this station being closed. Mr. Andrews asked to be transferred to Yarker, and has already assumed his new duties. The News-Argus joins with their hosts of friends in wishing them happiness and success in their new home.

U. S. BILLS BANNED

The post office department has issued the following bulletin to postmasters: "Instances have occurred where postmasters have had to bear losses because in the course of post office business they accepted United States Bank notes, which proved to be of no value. Postmasters are warned that, under no circumstances, should they accept bank notes issued by banks in the United States for the purpose of money orders, postage stamps, etc., and any employee accepting such notes will be entirely responsible for any loss incurred."

OAK LAKE IS POPULAR

Yearly the popularity of Oak Lake is fast increasing as to the possibilities of a summer resort. The latest improvement to be noted on the shores of Oak Lake is the remodeling of the Oak Lake Pavilion by Mrs. Pearce, its genial owner. The floor space is being enlarged until it will boast of one of the finest dance floors in this part of the province. A special screened-in promenade will be built around the two sides of the building thus affording the dancers a large space for lounging purposes. The newly re-organized Commodores, with Charlie Allan, of Stirling, who has considerable experience in orchestra work in the United States, have been engaged to supply the music of the season and the new band will have a seven-piece orchestra for dancing each night. Besides the new dancing pavilion to be opened in the near future new cottages are being erected all around the lake and the present cottages, some of which have been there for a number of years, are going through their annual spring cleaning just at this time.

UP TO $1000 In Prize Awards Offered By The News-Argus

WATCH NEXT WEEK'S PAPER FOR A LIST OF PRIZES

We Extend a Cordial Invitation to the Men and Women and Young Folks of Stirling and Surrounding Community to Share in the Prize Award Contest. Fill in the Entry Blank below and Bring or Mail it to This Office. For Further Information Phone 59, Stirling

The News-Argus, this district's weekly newspaper, announces with pleasure the inauguration of a great prize distribution, to be known as a Good-Will Club Competition, in which a number of valuable prizes will be awarded to those who enter the contest and secure new and paid in advance subscriptions to the Stirling News-Argus. Every paid subscription secured by a candidate or paid by a subscriber will count votes for a contestant and will help in winning one of the valuable prizes.

Every Active Worker Wins a Prize

So broad and liberal is the plan that every candidate who enrolls in this Good-Will Club Competition and works until the end will receive a prize, thus guaranteeing a remuneration for work done throughout the campaign.

Purpose of Campaign

The purpose of the competition is to increase the circulation of the News-Argus and thus make it the best possible medium for advertisers and readers within the community in which it serves. It costs absolutely nothing for a candidate to participate in this big campaign.

Get The Early Start

It is one of the outstanding features, and perhaps one of the most important in a short competition of this kind. Those who enroll early in the big drive usually have the best chances of winning the big prizes.

You Are Invited To Enter

The competition is open to all reputable persons whose residence is within the circulation zone of the News-Argus, and you are privileged to get subscriptions anywhere. Make up your mind right now that your opportunity for winning is as good as anyone else's. Get your receipt books today and get out among your friends, and have them save their subscriptions for you. Make sure that you get started before some other more enterprising young lady or man gets into your field and collects up what you might have had simply for the asking. For further information phone 59.

NOSE FRACTURED

Mr. Alton Hadley, son of Mr. Herb Hadley, had the misfortune to have his nose fractured in two places while cranking an orchard sprayer at the latter's farm, Rawdon, yesterday.

LEGION TO ATTEND MEMORIAL UNVEILING

The memorial to the Belleville men killed in the Great War will be unveiled at Memorial Park, corner Station St. and Cannifton Road, Belleville, on the morning of Victoria Day, May 24th at 9.30.

President Dainard, of the Stirling Legion desires to have as many members as possible, of the local organization, attend. Cars will be at the Club Rooms at 9 o'clock that morning.

A MUSICAL TREAT

A great treat is in store for music lovers of this district. A week from tomorrow night, Friday, May 27, a music festival will be given in Springbrook Orange Hall by the pupils of the rural schools of Huntingdon and Rawdon townships. For the past two years music has been taught in the rural schools of these two townships, also Madoc Township. For the past year Mrs. Blanche Alexander, A.T.C. M., of Madoc, has been the teacher (travelling to the different schools throughout the term, and it is through her efforts that the festival is being staged in Springbrook. The school boards in these townships are to be congratulated on this forward step in having music taught in the schools and it is high time Stirling Public School was following this example. The teaching of music in public school should be encouraged as it is one of the greatest subjects to stimulate cheerfulness, as well as happiness in the minds of the pupils and help to eliminate the grind of learning "reading, writing and arithmetic". The entire proceeds of the Springbrook festival will be used to purchase music books for further advancement of music in the townships. Everybody is invited and it is to be hoped Springbrook hall will be crowded to capacity and that Stirling will be well represented, as this cause is a worthy one.

ANOTHER LARGE EGG

In last week's issue appeared a little story of a large egg laid by a Buff Leghorn Pullet. On Tuesday, Mr. Ed. Pyear, of Carmel, phoned the News-Argus to inform us that a white Leghorn pullet had just laid an egg that measured six inches by nine inches. Who has a "little red hen" that can surpass this humpty-dumpty?

CORRESPONDENTS AND ADVERTISERS

Next Tuesday, May 24th—Victoria Day—will be a public holiday, and the stores will be closed. In order that the News-Argus may be issued promptly next week, our correspondents are asked to send in their budgets of news as early as possible. Advertisers will also please note that copy for changes of advertisements should reach the office not later than Monday noon.

LEAVE FOR IRELAND

Rev. H. J. Farrell left today for Montreal and will sail tomorrow morning on the Duchess of York, for Drogheda, Ireland, on a visit to his home. During his absence the parish will be in charge of Rev. J. Callaghan of Kingston.

Miss Mary Crawford will sail tomorrow from Montreal for Ireland, visiting friends while there. She will attend the Eucharistic Congress to be held in Dublin in June.

CHICKS BY THOUSANDS

Cranston's Poultry Farm is a busy place these days. Baby Chicks by the thousands are being shipped to all parts of the Dominion daily. On Tuesday 5000 S. C. White Leghorn chicks were sent as far east as Nova Scotia and up to Northern Ontario. Yesterday 1000 chicks were forwarded to a poultry man in the province of Quebec. Mr. Cranston has already shipped over 4,000 chicks to the Quebec government.

Rawdon Softball League

The annual re-organization meeting of the Junior Farmers Rawdon Softball League was held in the Agricultural Rooms last Saturday night. The following officers were elected:

Hon. Presidents—Hon. J. R. Cooke, M.P.P., Jos. Wilson, B.S.A., and M. Fraser.

President—Melville Gibson.

Vice-President—Burton Morton.

Sec. Treas.—Harry Brown.

Stirling had a representative at the meeting and wished to enter a team this year. It was decided to let Stirling join the league. As Menle will not be in the League, with Stirling's entry there will still be five teams, the same as last year, namely Hoards, Glen Ross, Stirling, Springbrook and Bethel. A number of rules were drawn up, which were as follows:

All games are called for 6:45 p.m. sharp.

Any player taking part in any other league will be barred from playing in this league.

Hoards were allowed two players from Menle.

Stirling were limited to fifteen players from town.

All protests must be in the hands of the President, accompanied by a fee of $5, within 48 hours after the protest game is played. If protest is in favor of team making same, the money is refunded, if lost, fee goes to league treasury.

The first and second teams play off for championship, games to count. Any additional names must be in hands of Secretary 10 days before playing first game.

The schedule is as follows:

May 23—Springbrook vs Stirling.	May 24—Bethel vs Glen Ross
May 27—Springbrook vs Hoards	May 31—Glen Ross vs Springbrook.
June 2—Bethel vs Stirling	June 2—Bethel vs Stirling
June 6—Hoards vs Springbrook.	June 8—Stirling vs Glen Ross
June 10—Hoards vs Bethel.	June 14—Glen Ross vs Stirling.
June 16—Springbrook vs Bethel.	June 20—Glen Ross vs Hoards.
June 22—Stirling vs Springbrook	June 24—Bethel vs Hoards.
June 27—Stirling vs Bethel.	June 30—Hoards vs Stirling.
July 1—Springbrook vs Glen Ross.	July 4—Hoards vs Glen Ross
July 6—Bethel vs Springbrook.	July 6—Stirling vs Hoards.
July 8—Glen Ross vs Bethel.

S. H. S. TATTLES

Second Form witnessed a tragic scene on Thursday last in Geometry class when our principal broke down the desk chair. However it was replaced next morning by a brand new one with a new feather cushion.

Last Wednesday the Marmora High School boys came down and played a one-sided football game with our H. S. Boys. The score was 19-5. The local line-up was K. Holmes, c.; Bateman, p.; Joblin, 1st b.; C. Holmes 2nd b.; Frederick, 3rd b.; Barrons, s.; L.F. Morton; C.F. Stewart; R.F. Murray. Clinton McGee refereed the game.

The third set of examinations is being completed this week. It will be a great strain off their minds until the fourth set arrives.

DIED

HEAGLE—In Calgary, Alta., on Sunday, May 15th, James Wesley Heagle, in his 68th year. Deceased was well known in Stirling and district and was a brother of Mrs. Geo. Johnston, Minto; Mrs. Jacob Sine, Stirling; Mr. Geo. Heagle, Rawdon and Mr. Andrew Heagle, Hoards Station.

The straw hat season has arrived in Stirling as several are already wearing the cool headgear.

CURRENT COMMENT

Next Tuesday is Victoria Day and will be celebrated a public holiday throughout the British Empire.

Crop conditions in the west are the best since 1928. If one could only say the same for crop prices, everything would be lovely.

The Hydro investigation is bringing out some interesting evidence, but nothing much has been added to the information already known.

This year is the growers' last chance to sow seed with the object of securing a sample for competition in the World's Grain Show, which is scheduled for Regina in 1933.

Peterboro Examiner—It is remarkable how much concern some people can work up over the deportation of aliens whose chief ambition is to destroy our whole system of government.

A medical man says that "man is slightly taller in the morning than he is in the evening." We have never tested this, but we have noticed a tendency to become "short" towards the end of the week.

Commenting on the weather the other day, a young Rawdon farmer made the remark that the spring of this spring did not appear to spring as fast as the spring of last year sprang when it sprung.

When eggs used to sell at the price they do now police court fines, we are told, were $1 and costs. The argument is put up that they should come down with the rest of the cost of living. It's a touchy subject.

News of the murder of Baby Lindbergh was received with a great shock throughout the civilized world and no doubt the prayer of all civilized people is that the murderers will pay the penalty for such a ghastly crime.

With the prevailing warm weather the past week, May has at last realized that it is listed as a summer month. The amateur gardeners in this district have been taking advantage of the warm weather to get the "seeding" done.

The California woman who took a pot-shot at a neighbor cutting grass early in the morning may have been demoted, as charged, but at least, Hamilton Spector points out, she has given the early-in-the-morning grass-cutters something to think about.

With the arrival of warm weather, and rain a minus quantity, the dust nuisance is now to be contended with on dirt and gravel roads. The provincial highways out of Stirling are dangerous to motorists, owing to the dust hazard. However, it is expected oil will be applied in the very near future.

Canadian railways are promoting excursions to the larger cities at greatly reduced fares. We recall when excursions from the cities to the outlying districts were equally popular. A Hastings County old boys' excursion from Toronto should bring many of the former residents back to this district.

Bancroft Times—There is an excellent spring tonic which many citizens are making use of in pretty liberal doses twice a day—morning and evening. It is not cream of tartar nor sulphur and molasses. The main ingredients are a spade, a hoe, a rake and such other accessories as may be necessary to indulge in the hobby of a yard or garden.

The Brockville Recorder thinks that while farmers may welcome the competition springing from that back-to-the-land movement which the government promises to sponsor, they will be delighted if it gives them an opportunity to unload property that is now unprofitable to operate. But if the owners of unprofitable rural property move out, they will still be in danger of falling into the clutches of the back-to-the-land movement.

Gananoque Reporter—Doubtless, to the number of 118, including both men and women, have been sent to prison for three years because they insisted on parading in the nude. The expense of their maintenance in jail might have been overcome by compelling them to move forward, say 100 miles each year, beginning preferably on some September morn. They would soon be looking for fur coats.

And now comes tennis. Or so the enthusiasts of this sport are trying to convince other followers of the game. While many of the surrounding towns have had thriving tennis clubs in previous years, only a mere handful of Stirling residents have indulged in this splendid pastime. Private courts only were available. However, with a new double court at the High School grounds, a Community Club is being sponsored. To make a tennis club a success requires the co-operation of many interested people. If you are interested in tennis, let those in charge know about it. Every boost will aid the endeavor and Stirling needs this branch of sport.

Saturday night was a busy night in Stirling. Residents of the district were in town en masse, which shows Stirling still is the Community's headquarters. All the streets were lined with cars, and it was pleasing to note that practically every motorist observed the "Stop street" signs when in the village.

A couple of weeks ago Belleville had a big sales event called "Happy Days". The Tweed News courageously spoke up and advised its readers to buy at home instead. Said Ye Editor "The People and Merchants in Belleville are not helping to support us. Not on your tin-type. They are not buying from you or me or our neighbors". The News then goes on to tell of bargains to be found in the Tweed stores and advises its readers to read the ads. The News Editor did, and found bargains equal to those offered in Belleville. It's the same in Stirling. Merchants here can supply your wants at just as low or lower prices and you save the cost of motoring to the city. Yes, sir, buy at home and keep your money circulating locally.

Rural School Fairs

Parents and children of this district are no doubt wondering what changes may be made in School Fairs for 1932. Owing to reduced appropriations, the Department of Agriculture is unable to distribute free seeds to pupils this year. This may be a disappointment to the boys and girls but with their co-operation, School Fairs can be made as good this fall as ever before. Children should be encouraged to grow the usual garden crops, grains and flowers, as the classes in these, will be practically unchanged from last year. Wheat, oats, barley and field corn may be shown from the farm crops. There will be classes for Dooley potatoes (late); Irish Cobbler (early), mangels (any variety); and turnips (any variety). In the case of vegetables, the variety will be stipulated. Thus children should ask their parents when buying seed, to procure, Detroit Dark Red Beets, Yellow Globe Danvers Onions, Chantenois Carrots, and Hollow Crown Parsnips. In the case of flowers, classes will be open for asters, zinnias, marigolds and gladioli, and the usual classes will be included for living room and dining room bouquets. Only fifteen classes out of eighty-three on the prize list will be affected by this change. Our Fairs should not therefore, be seriously affected. Interest in School Fairs was higher last year than ever before and attendance greater. An outstanding season is anticipated this fall. The prize lists are being printed and will be ready for distribution within the next two weeks.

The Woman Behind the Broom

Some newspaper writer has paid this graceful tribute to the woman who covers her head and wades into the dirt accumulations every spring: "It is customary at this time of the year for spring poets and other literateurs of that ilk to refurbish the rusty stock of jokes against the 'woman with the broom'. There is another side to that theme. The woman armed with broom and dustpan and even the whitewash brush tackles the grime and accumulations of dust that fill cracks and crannies and exposes herself to all kinds of hardships and disease breeding germs while superior man stands back and makes a jest of her labour. She hauls out carpets and at an expense of muscular strength that would stiffen the joints of her lordly critics for a week, frees them from the dust which these would-be jesters are mainly responsible for bringing in and treading into them. She whips the dust out of easy chairs and sofas in which these thoughtless creatures have taken their ease at her expense. They are quick to laugh at her strenuous efforts in behalf of their selfish comforts, while they are slow to give her a word of encouragement or a helping hand. She labors to make the home bright, cheerful and wholesome. She spares neither labor nor strength that the comfort of the household may be assured. Her work is a labor of love, and there is no inconvenience she will not endure to make the house a home and a place of rest. Her efforts are not a thing for jest, and their results lend refinement to the home, bring comfort to her family and that rest and repose to her surroundings that can only exist where order and cleanliness are found. Her toll is unselfish in its objective aims; give her her due. God bless the woman behind the broom."

Canadian Bacon in England

Students of economics in this country are constantly looking for finger posts pointing the way to returning prosperity. One such finger post is to be found in the report of the federal minister of trade and commerce for the first three months of 1932. In this report, it is shown that Canada's exports of hams and bacon to Great Britain for the three months, showed an increase of 257 per cent., as compared with the same period in 1931. This is important news, since it has a great effect on the primary industry of agriculture. It is made even more encouraging by the note that exports of hams and bacon to all countries increased by 400 per cent over last year, and that for the first time, Canada exported hams and bacon to the Irish Free State, to the amount of over 13,000,000 pounds. With the prices of hogs depressed to very low levels, and farmers struggling to secure adequate returns for their produce, this report is a splendid finger post for agricultural Canada. It shows that this country is gaining a splendid foothold on the British market for its hams and bacon, and is building up a splendid export trade in this respect. When it is considered that only a small proportion of Britain's imports of hams and bacon in the past have been secured from Empire sources, the immense possibilities of this increasing export trade should be to give the farmers better prices for their hogs. This is one of the things needed to bring back prosperity. The prices received by the farmers for their products has a definite bearing on industrial life in the cities. Increased export trade is one of the means by which better prices can be secured, and it will improve conditions considerably if full advantage could be taken of the potentialities of the British market, not only for hams and bacon, but for cheese, butter, eggs, honey and the many other products of which there is a surplus in this country.

She looks as if she is "all there". But goodness knows, That is more'n I could truthfully say About her clothes.

With all the debunking that novel-ists have engaged in in recent years, it seems a little odd that nobody has rewritten the adventures of Robinson Crusoe from Friday's point of view.

You're never broke if you have spent it all for something worth while.

The nervous young author entered her father's room to pop the all-important question.

Young author — I-er want to marry your daughter.

Girl's Father — What! Marry my daughter. I'm astonished. What on earth do you mean?

Young Sutor. — Now, now, don't talk like that! You're prejudiced against the girl. She's all right, really.

A Perfect Shop: "Half the attraction is gone because you run no risk in trying to kiss the modern girl," says a writer. Well, she might be yawning.

Kittie—Gee, but that boy last night was fresh.

Mabel—Why didn't you slap his face?

Kittie—I did; and take my advice never slap a guy when he's chewing tobacco.

Faith

Lord, give me faith to live from day to day
With tranquil heart to do my simple part,
And with my hand in Thine, just go Thy way.

Lord give me faith—to trust if not to know;
With quiet mind in all things Thee to find;
And childlike go where Thou wouldst have me go.
Lord give me faith—to leave it all to Thee.
The future is Thy gift, I would not lift
The veil Thy love has hung twixt it and me.

The inherent laziness of most of us makes us want to start out where our parents left off, or to take over a prosperous and growing business someone has toiled for years to establish, rather than build up a running concern.

Life is a funny proposition after all. Most of the young folks are fooled and the older folks are foolish.

Here's another version of an old poem: "Mary had a little mule, and it followed her to skule, and teacher, like a rule, stepped up behind the mule and hit him with a rule, and then there was no skule."

Hints for the Household

For the Month of May

Spring Cleaning Tips

Turpentine is a useful liquid for housecleaning days. Paint the closet woodwork and drawers with it. Also bed springs. Moths and bugs do not like turpentine.

To Protect Wall Covering While

Cleaning Woodwork
While washing, oiling or painting woodwork, hold piece of tin or some light metal with a smooth edge against the wall above or below woodwork being cleaned. An old automobile license or new dust pan are satisfactory for this.

To Clean Rugs

Rugs can be cleaned beautifully at home, thereby saving a big cleaner's bill. Here's a good cleaning mixture: 1 quart of rainwater. 2 tablespoons pure soap chips. 2 tablespoons powdered borax. Boil together remove from stove — cool. Then add 2 tablespoons ordinary washing ammonia.

Method: Have rug, lying on clean flat surface. Scrub rug thoroughly with mixture. Then with clean rag wipe rug off well, rubbing nap back the proper way. Let dry.

COOKING HINTS

Seasonable Spring Foods

Asparagus is a tempting, luscious vegetable which can be fixed in a variety of ways, and which we should all use bountifully in the Spring.

Onions are also a healthful vegetable. To be used separately or in salad. Also as a relish. There is nothing much tastier than small green onions cut up with salt and pepper and vinegar. Use onions in connection with fresh crisp water-cress and French dressing. You will find this combination delightful.

Salmon is extra good in the late Spring.

Lamb — is an ideal meat at this time of year.

Spaghetti Rarebit (Fine for a Luncheon)

½ package of spaghetti.
1 tablespoon butter.
1 cup grated cheese.
2 well beaten eggs.
Salt and pepper.
Pimento for trimming.

Method: Cook spaghetti in boiling salt water until tender. Drain and rinse with cold water. Melt butter. Add Spaghetti (cut up). Add cheese. Cook until cheese is melted. Add eggs and seasoning. Cook until mixture thickens. Serve on toast. Trim with pimento.

BAKING HINTS

Luncheon Cakes With Chocolate Sauce

1-3 cup of shortening.
1 cup sugar.
1 egg.
Vanilla.
¾ cup milk.
1½ cups flour.
1 teaspoon cinnamon.

Method: Cream shortening and sugar. Add egg yolk, vanilla and half the milk. Then half the flour with baking powder, cinnamon and salt. Then remaining milk and flour. Last fold in the whites of eggs, beaten stiff. Bake in small greased tins 20 minutes in a moderate oven. Serve hot with chocolate sauce. Top with whipped cream.

Chocolate Sauce
1 square chocolate (bitter).
2 teaspoons of butter.
¾ cup of boiling water.
½ cup of sugar.
Vanilla.

Method: Melt chocolate in double boiler—add butter. Slowly pour on boiling water. Stir constantly. Add sugar. Boil 5 minutes. Add vanilla and tiny bit of salt. Serve hot.

Vacationists should learn to distinguish this plant. Poison ivy is a plant of low, bushy growth usually, but sometimes trailing in leaf mould, and occasionally, climbing up fences and on trees. Among the most constant characteristics by which it may be recognized are its leaves which are arranged in threes. This helps to distinguish it from the Virginia creeper with its five-petal leaf.

MADOC JUNCTION

Mr. A. W. Andrews, C.N.R. station agent here for nearly forty years, decided a few weeks ago to ask for a change and has been appointed agent for the C.N.R. at Yarker, not far from Kingston, and will leave in a few days to take charge of the station there. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews have received many expressions of regret from their friends who have heard of the change and they wish to inform their friends that it is still their intention to return to these parts if they are spared to superannuate.

The May meeting of the Eggleton W.M.S. was held at the home of one of our faithful members, Mrs. Clarence Fitchett, on Thursday p.m., last week. Meeting opened by the President, with hymn "O God of Bethel," by whose hand, and prayer. Scripture lesson, Psalm 63, read by Mrs. Sara Stapley. The President then distributed items on hymns which were sung by mothers of long ago. Mrs. George Clarke spoke on the hymn "Before Jehovah's awful throne" written by Isaac Watts in 1741. It was altered by John Wesley. After singing a verse of this hymn Mrs. C. Fitchett spoke on the hymn "Just as I am, without one plea," and asked the members to sing one verse, and then told the story of how this hymn came to be written by Miss Charlotte Elliott in 1832 when her health was failing and during much pain and suffering, when Rev. Dr. Malan said to her come to Him "Just as you are." Mrs. Douglas Stapley told the story of the hymn "O God of Bethel" used as the opening hymn. Dr. Phillip Doddridge, the author, dates 1751 and 1788. Mrs. Beaudrie told the story of hymn "One sweetly solemn thought" by Miss Phoebe Cary, in 1844; also "Rock of Ages," by Toplady, the favorite hymn of the beloved Prince Consort Albert of England. After singing two verses of the hymn Mrs. O. Stapley told the story of "Stand up for Jesus," the dying message of Rev. D. A. Tyng, during a great revival in 1858. Mrs. Russell Stapley told the story of "Take my life and let it be," written by Frances Ridley Havergal and all joined in singing the hymn. The President then asked Mrs. George Clarke to take charge of the business. Meeting closed with a duet by Mrs. R. Stapley and Lenora "Alone," and a solo by Mrs. Andrews "I have a Friend who is always the same." In opening the meeting the President referred to 2nd Kings, 19: 15-16 and spoke of the need of prayer as "every step in the progress of missions is traceable to prayer. It has been the preparation of every new triumph and the secret of all success." The hostesses served a delicious lunch, and a delightful social half hour was spent. Mrs. Oliver Stapley will prepare the June program. Roll call will be answered with verses on temperance next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Eggleton called on friends here on Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Eggleton spent Sunday with friends near Frankford. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stapley and daughters visited Mr. and Mrs. Livingstone in Sidney on Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fitchett spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilson, Holloway. Mr. Bert Andrews, of Lindsay C. N. R. station staff spent the week-end with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stapley entertained a number of visitors during the week-end.

Mrs. Harry Clarke has invited the W.M.S. to her home for the June meeting. Mrs. Oliver Stapley is appointed to take charge of the program.

At present a C.N.R. relieving agent

it is expected, will have charge of the station here, although there have been rumors that the station will be closed part of the time and Madoc will look after some of the work in connection with the station here.

Things That Never Die
The pure, the bright, the beautiful
That stirred our hearts in youth—
The impulses to wordless prayer,
The streams of love and truth,
The longing after something lost,
The spirit's yearning cry—
The striving after better hopes;
These things can never die.
The timid hand stretched forth to aid
A brother in his need,
A kindly word in grief's dark hour
That proves a friend indeed.
The plea for mercy softly breathed,
When justice threatened high,
The sorrow of a contrite heart—
Let nothing pass, for every hand
Must find some work to do,
Lose not a chance to help some one
Be firm, be just, be true.
So shall a light that cannot fade
Beam on thee from on high,
And angel voices say to thee—
"These things can never die."

MOUNT PLEASANT

W. M. S.

The May meeting of Mount Pleasant W.M.S. was held on Thursday at the church and centred around the theme of "prayer". The program was prepared by Mrs. Thomas McKeown and she presided with "Sweet Hour of Prayer" and offered prayer for Korea. The minutes were read and roll call answered by a proverb. Mrs. Blake Sharp read the Devotional leaflet entitled "Pray without ceasing". The only way to learn to pray is to begin to do it. Peter said "What I have I give unto Thee, The Holy Ghost fell on them as on us in the beginning, God gave them the like gift as He gave unto us"—Acts 3:6 and Acts 11: 15-17. After singing "Prayer is the Soul's sincere desire" the study chapter was continued and the leader gave "The task and problems of Christian Hospitals in Korea." Here it is common for patients who first heard the gospel in a Christian hospital to go home, tell their neighbors and start a church. Mrs. Percy MacMullen outlined "Training of Korean Doctors and nurses." The heart of this program for future Christian medical work lies in training Korean young men and women to carry it on. Miss Edna Thrasher read a short selection entitled "Chit-chats" which was along the theme of intercession. Mrs. L. Locke read a leaflet entitled "Is Temperance Just an Extra" which pointed out that the liquor traffic is the root of all evil. The permits for liquor today average one in every second home in the province. Surely this appalling. The Literature Secretary, Mrs. Will Hubble, wishes to have all orders for the annual report, 25 cents, and story of the year 15 cents, sent in to her immediately as she has to send in the orders by the last day of May. Unless you order your book you will not be assured of getting one when they come off the press. After the offering the meeting closed with hymn "Come my Soul, thy suit prepare."

"My Prayer"

(By March Guy Pearce)

I kneel to pray, but know not what to say,
I cannot tell, what may be ill or well
But as I look into Thy face or Book,
I see a love from which I cannot move;
And learn to rest in this: Thy will is best.
Therefore I pray, only have Thine own way
In everything: my all-wise God and King,
Grant me the Grace, in all to give Thee place.
This liberty, alone I ask of Thee:
This only gift. Have Thy way perfectly.

The Little Door

(By Muriel Wood Bowrey)

The King's call came filling the world of every day:
My heart heard, and, thrilling, I sought the King's Highway.
My prayer went a-winging high up in the blue,
For busy days, each bringing a bigger task to do.
But high walls surrounded and hindered me the more,
Until I saw astonished, a little, little door.

I looked through, and winding, I saw the footpath grey
That leads on to finding the broader King's highway.

I crouched there, regretting my confidence and pride
That kept me from getting my swollen self inside.

My now prayer unwavering, asked lowliness, no more,
That I may enter, singing, that little, little door.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bailey, of Belleville, and Mr. Wilson Reid, of Corbyville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bailey on Thursday.

Mrs. Martha Wescott of Burnbrae, visited Mrs. Emma Summers and other relatives last week.

Little Robert Hoard is recovering from his recent illness.

All the folks, especially the mothers, were terribly shocked when the news came of the gruesome finding of the little curly-headed Lindbergh baby. Deepest sympathy is extended to the grief-stricken parents.

Mrs. Frank Smith spent Friday with her daughter, Mrs. Vernon Curry, at White Lake.

Mrs. Thomas McKeown, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McKeown and Francis, and Mrs. Sarah McKeown attended the funeral of Mrs. John Lahn, sr., at Kylestone, on Wednesday.

The Williams school celebrated Arbor Day and after a general clean-up the youngsters enjoyed a picnic lunch. As the weather was unfavorable they decided to remain with their teacher, Miss Ruth Gibson and enjoy several games.

Central Cheese Factory reports lots of whey going to waste. Evidently hogs are scarce in our burg.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Laundry and children, of Picton, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dunning, of Bloomfield were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. G. Wallace.

The many friends of Mrs. Lorne Lanigan were sorry to hear that her daughter had contracted scarlet fever.

The final Presbytery meeting was held at Madoc on Tuesday and the business of the year put in shape for Conference.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Sharp and Bert, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John McLeod, Picton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Patterson, of Stirling, called on Mrs. John Wannamaker one day recently.

Folks here are cordially invited to attend St. Paul's S. S. Anniversary next Sunday, when they are having two services, with Rev. Mr. McCutcheon, of Belleville as special minister.

On Sunday afternoon Miss Edna Thrasher rendered a pleasing solo "Thou Bread of Life" and the Pastor spoke on the fifth Beatitude "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy."

Mr. Ernest Sharp, of Frankford and Miss Opal McMullen, of Belleville, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hoard and attended the afternoon service at Mount Pleasant.

Miss Ora Sine, of Bethel, spent the week-end with her friend Miss Agnes Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stewart and Douglas and Miss Alice McKelvie of Foxboro, spent Sunday on Pump Street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace and Mrs. John Wannamaker attended the funeral of the late Robert H. Green, in Belleville, on Friday. The funeral cortege proceeded from his late home to Holloway United Church, where Rev. H. B. Neal officiated, assisted by Rev. Woodger, a former pastor. Mrs. S. P. Hagerman sang a very appropriate solo "Face to Face". The church was crowded with sympathetic friends and relatives to pay their last tribute to such a popular young man, whose demise was so very sudden.

The casket was covered with floral tributes which also were a mark of esteem. The bearers were all former employees or members of the Quinte Motor-cycle Club, of which the deceased was Treasurer: Messrs. Arnold Bryant, Newton Wilbur, Gordon Davies, Leonard Childs, Bert Frink and Victor Knudsen. Deceased was nineteen years of age, and had met with an accident Thursday evening, May 5th, and passed away early on Tuesday, May 10th, without regaining consciousness. He had been in the employ of the Canadian Department Stores for the past three years. His mother, before her marriage, was Miss Beatrice Wannamaker, a daughter of Mrs. John Wannamaker. Owing to the funerals of Mrs. John Lahn Sr., and Mr. A. Bateman, who were relatives of the deceased's family, the funeral was not held until Friday. Sympathy is extended to all who mourn the tragic passing of this young man.

On Saturday afternoon the Sunbeam Mission Band met at the church with an attendance of sixteen. Isabel Turner opened with "Jesus bids us shine", Marguerite White read the minutes and roll call. It was decided to answer the roll in June with a Beatitude. A group contest was planned, and the leaders chosen were Betty Locke and Winnie Phillips. The leader, Edna Thrasher, continued with a chapter of the Study Book on Korea, which is "The Trail of the Korean Kite". Hymn, "Jesus is tenderly calling", followed by six sentence prayers and the Bible lesson, read by M. White. The watchtower was given: Canada, Myrtle McKeown; India, Anna Sharp; Korea, Betty Locke; Africa, Agnes Sharp. The leader then gave a map talk on Korea, and told a story. Gladys Summers then gathered the offering, amounting to thirty-nine cents. Frances McKeown told a story and this interesting meeting closed with prayer.

Y. P. S.

The President, Mr. Willie Jeffs, opened Y.P.S. on Friday evening with hymn "The morning light is breaking" and prayer. It was decided to have the social evening on Friday evening, May 20th, in charge of Miss Edna Thrasher, and on May 27th to entertain Zion Y.P.S. Mr. Clifford Holmes read the Devotional. The Missionary vice-president, Miss Olive McConnell, then presided, using the hymn "Whosoever Heareth" and Mrs. Reid offered prayer. Elleen MacMullen read the Scripture Lesson. Mrs. Cyrus Summers outlined the topic and the pastor also gave a short talk. Mrs. Edgar McKeown rendered a solo. Miss Lulu Johnson gave a talk on "Home Missions". Mrs. Kenneth Weaver sang a solo and Mrs. Allen Bailey spoke on "Foreign Missions". Offering was taken by Mr.

John Coggins and at the close a contest on "Birds and Flowers" was of interest.

BOYS' CAMPS ARE ARRANGED

Members of the Ontario Tuxis Boys' Parliament in this district gathered in Belleville, Friday evening to make camp plans and discuss matters relative to Trail Ranger and Tuxis Boys' Work. Their gathering was in the school room of Holloway St. United Church where they were welcomed by Rev. H. B. Neal. Ben Campbell, Elgin, a member of the cabinet of the parliament, presided. Gordon Lapp, field secretary of the Ontario Boys' Work Board, was present. It was announced that the Eastern Ontario leadership training camp will be held at Bear Rivage Island, Gananoque, from July 11th to 20th. The Prince Edward County Boys' Camp will be at Coneseon Lake, July 4th to 12th, the Lennox and Addington camp near Nanapanee, will operate at the same time. Boys from, Northumberland and West Hastings will camp at Oak Lake, near Stirling, early in July. Rev. Andrew McLaughlin, of Grafton, and Rev. H. B. Neal are in charge of arrangements for this camp. The Ontario Boys' Work Board will secure a camp director.

Girls have a busy time at a dance. They must keep their shoulder straps up, the make-up on and hose unkninked. No wonder some partners complain of lack of attention.

The Endeavour S. S. Class met at the home of Mr. Thomas Elliott for their regular monthly meeting. Rev. C. S. Reddick, of Bloomfield a former pastor here, called at the home of Mr. George Post, on Tuesday on his way to Presbytery meeting at Madoc. Mr. Reddick is moving this conference year to Omemo.

Rev. W. H. Truscott and Messrs Jos. English and Philip Carr attended the Presbytery meeting at Madoc on Tuesday.

The farmers have finished their seeding and now for planting, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Nottell, of Peterboro, and Mrs. Hugh McFee of Koenig, visited at Mr. Jas. S. Wilson over the week-end.

A number of people attended the funeral of Mrs. Phoebe Ketcheson at Moira on Tuesday.

Mr. Robt. Christie has sold the Fred Kingston farm to Mr. Angus Farrell.

Mr. William Stocks, a representative of the Upper Canada Bible Society, called on Mr. Arthur Wilson on Friday evening.

The annual meeting of Huntingdon Bible Society was held at Moira church on Friday evening, when Mr. Stocks gave an inspiring address to a good attendance. Reports of the year's work were given by officers. It was planned to hold a Bible Sunday in the township of Huntingdon, some time in June. The following officers were elected for 1932: President, Mr. Arthur Wilson; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. F. Emerson; assistant sec.-Treas., Miss George Pitman. Mr. Stocks was entertained at the parsonage until Saturday.

The salutary words among the ladies these days are "How are you getting along with the house cleaning? How are your chickens coming along?"

The patrons of the factory are drawing their own milk to the factory until the first of June. Keeping down expenses, our motto these days.

The contracts for the new highway from Foxboro north on Madoc road are being signed this week.

Kidnapping — How we have come to shudder even at mere mention of that word. But right here we believe we have a wee bit of interesting news to broadcast. All the kidnappers do not live down in the U.S.A., nor do they live in our own big cities — they have actually been in our midst just recently, in the form of cattle and hog buyers. A brand new idea has come to light. Drovers send out their advance agents and buy up our surplus stock, tell us to bring it the station on certain days. Then when we arrive with the goods we are told "We can't pay so much. No sir, markets all shot to pieces—losing money every shipment." What nonsense! Talk about crooks, thieves, etc. We honestly believe that there are more of them out of jail than in. And we are wondering just how long the farmers are going to stand for such downright "Tom foolery". In his address at Moira, in the interests of the Bible Society Mr. Stocks outlined how much the Gospel was needed in other lands. But if he was living around here and following the profession of farming and dealing with some of our profiteers, he would be heard to exclaim "I guess the Gospel is needed in and around Stirling, and perhaps as far down as Foxboro." We wonder sometimes if our government officials and those who seem to take delight in joriding it over the laboring class realize the situation as it is today in this land of the free. Just now we face one of the most acutely critical times in the history of this nation, and perhaps in the history of the world. This, one of the mist promising and rich countries of the world, must face the horribly depressing fact that thousands and thousands of our people are in dire want, for the simple reason that they are denied that honorable privilege of working for a living, because the power of money is wielded by consciousnessless Shylocks who do not seem to realize that by crowding the farmer in the corner and holding him there until he can scarcely breathe, that eventually they are cutting their own throats. We do not want to be pessimistic, but our predictions are these— that when this army of unemployed, and our farmers and all those who are being pressed down these days wake up, God help us.

COMFORT for COLICKY BABIES ... THROUGH CASTORIA'S GENTLE REGULATION

The best way to prevent colic, doctors say, is to avoid gas in stomach and bowels by keeping the entire intestinal tract open, free from waste. But remember this: a tiny baby's tender little organs cannot stand harsh treatment. They must be gently urged. This is just the time Castoria can help most. Castoria, you know, is made specially for babies and children. It is a pure vegetable preparation, perfectly harmless. It contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics. For years it has helped mothers through trying times with colicky babies and children suffering with digestive upsets, colds and fever. Keep Castoria on hand, with

Special News For Farmers

A new pamphlet on the feeding and management of turkeys has been prepared by the Poultry Department, O. A.C., and is available to farmers desiring information of this kind.

Noxious Weeds

Mr. J. A. Carroll, director of the Crops and Markets Branch, has compiled an interesting summary of provisions of the Weed Control Act, including a list of the weeds which are deemed noxious: Blackberry, Campion, Ox-eye Daisy, Sow Thistle, White Cockle, Wild Oats, Canada Thistle, Blue Weed, Chicory, Docks, Ragweed, Ribgrass, Stinkweed, Tumbling Mustard, Wild Carrot, Burdocks, Wild Lettuces.

Sweet Clover as Manure

During recent years many farmers have been growing sweet clover in rotation with potatoes. A full crop of sweet clover plowed under may be considered worth as much as 25 to 30 tons of barnyard manure. Where farmers have plenty of manure available it may not be desirable to grow sweet clover for the purpose of plowing it down, but where the manure supply is limited it has been profitable to follow the above plan of action. The most essential precautions to be observed in growing sweet clover are to make sure that the soil is not acid, that it is well enough drained to prevent heaving and that the seed is inoculated.

Treating Seed Potatoes

Naturally, the aim of the potato grower is to produce the biggest and best crop at the lowest possible cost. This is dependent upon a number of factors such as good soil, quality of seed, spraying and cultivation. While the importance of these features is unquestioned, very often the prospect of a good crop is ruined through neglect to practise seed treatment which is aimed to reduce the enormous losses and inconvenience caused by scab, black leg and rhizoctonia, all of which occur in every province of Canada. The commonest method used to treat seed potatoes is formalin treatment. A solution of one pound of formalin to 40 gallons of water is made up and placed in a barrel. The seed potatoes, uncut, are placed in a sack and suspended in the liquid for two hours when the bag is pulled up and the solution allowed to drain back into the barrel. Then the seed may be cut and planted.

Soy Beans

An effort is being made to establish a mill at Chatham to handle soy beans and to market the products thereof. Meetings have been held to interest farmers of Kent and Essex in growing soy beans to supply this factory. It is well known that the district is especially adapted to the growing of soy beans and a market for the product is established with a demand that at present entails the yearly importation of six million pounds of bean oil alone.

A Problem With Chicks

One of the big problems in connection with raising chicks is cannibalism, when chicks pick at the feathers and flesh of their mates. Recent studies indicate that this is more likely to occur where the chicks in brooders are exposed to direct sunlight. Direct rays of the sun should not be allowed to come into the room in which the chicks are carried in brooders. Artificial lighting is proving satisfactory and it should be so arranged as to cast no shadows. Ventilation is important, and provision should be made for the cold air to come in at the top through an opening near the ceiling, but care must be taken to deflect this cold air so that it will be properly heated before coming in contact with the chicks.

Premium For Advanced Registry Sows

In order to encourage Ontario breeders to qualify their sows in the Advanced Registry the Ontario Swine Breeders' Association and the Ontario Department of Agriculture have instituted a premium for Advanced Registry sows. The rules governing the premium, as received from R. W. Wade, secretary of the Association, are as follows:

1. Sows qualifying in the Advanced Registry policy will be awarded a premium of $15 each.
2. This premium will apply to sows owned and entered in Advanced Registry by a resident of the Province of Ontario.
3. In order to be eligible to receive this premium sows must have entered and completed the test between March 1, 1932, and March 31, 1933.
4. The Provincial Department of Agriculture and the Ontario Swine Breeders' Association contribute equally to finance this policy.
5. Those wishing to make application under this policy should address A. W. Peterson, Secretary, Advanced Registry Board, Livestock Branch, Ottawa.

The Advanced Registry policy has been operating for three years, but comparatively few Ontario breeders have, up to the present, taken advantage of it. They now have an added incentive to do so.

Corn Helps

Quality corn either for silage or for husking is the result of suitable seed and suitable preparation of the soil. Ontario growers of corn for husking purpose are warned that planting this crop later than the end of the first week in June may prevent its ripening. Tests have been conducted at the O.A.C. relative to different dates of planting coupled with fertilization with high phosphate fertilizers. Records obtained show that a week's delay in planting could be overcome by the use of suitable fertilizers. Fertilizers of an analysis of 2-12-6 or 3-10-5 used at the rate of 500 lbs. per acre at the time of planting, have been found to hasten the ripening of the crop at least a week.

It is a well-known fact that corn well advanced toward ripening makes a richer quality of ensilage than does green corn with white immature ears. Growers of this crop for silage purposes can increase the total weight per acre and also greatly improve the feeding quality of corn by proper regulation of manuring and fertilizing.

Approved Chicks in Demand

A heavy demand for approved chicks is reported this spring, with the result that many of the approved hatcheries have orders booked which are taxing their capacity. May chicks mean November cheques and that slogan is one which seems to have taken hold of the farmer's fancy.

A review of the egg market in Canada during recent years shows that the higher prices prevail during the late fall and early winter months before the flush of general production comes in. That is why the farmer who buys approved chicks early in the season has a better prospective cash crop for the end of the year than the farmer who hatches his own chicks later in the season. The uniformity of production and the high quality assured by government inspection and supervision which controls the hatching of approved chicks is one of the biggest assets in the development of a poultry flock.

The cash returns from a pullet flock of from 120 to 300 approved chicks are a welcome and useful asset at a time of the year when other crops have passed. Many chicks become pullet producers in November and raising chicks this month is a much easier proposition than raising March and April chicks.

FORMER STIRLING GIRL PASSES IN TORONTO

Toronto—For three years assistant treasurer of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the United Church of Canada, Miss Ethel Bennett died here last Thursday. She was born in Stirling, Ont., and lived in Toronto for more than 40 years. She is survived by her mother and two brothers, J. E. and R. C. Bennett, both of Toronto, and one sister, Mrs. R. M. Brown, Vancouver, B.C.

DEGREES AND DIPLOMAS

(The Rotarian Magazine)

With cap-and-gown month but a turn of the calendar pad away, school problems soon will hold the conversational spotlight in many a home forum. And foremost among the problems to be discussed will be that of the new graduate, "Shall I go on" — to high school, to prep. school, to college, to graduate school. Financial conditions will preclude further formal education for many, but probably that number is not so large as it might be supposed. Loans, part-time employment, and nights schools often can be made to provide the way where there is a will.

Certainly if it is humanly possible young graduates should plan to continue their training. Even were the times normal, the increased working periods of adults that a longer life-span has given them, would make the early participation of youth in business less socially desirable than in the days of the grandfather. Today, with unemployment widespread, the importance of a longer training period for young men and young women becomes urgent.

That a community may displace the customary indifference to the problem with a clearly defined understanding of the issues at stake is proved by Atlanta, Georgia. There the business and professional men, working through service clubs, joined with educational authorities in a back-to-school campaign. The question was brought squarely to the attention of parents and their sons and daughters. The result was that high-school enrollment for the current year increased by 1,400, or twelve per cent., over that of last year.

THE COUNTRY'S NEED

Sam Charters, M.P. for Peel County, speaking at a banquet in Toronto the other night, made some pertinent observations as to the need for greater observations as to the need for greater mutual confidence in this country during the present difficult period. His words fit the situation so aptly that they are worthy of quoting, and they require no comment, for they carry their own message. In the course of his speech, he said:

We will never get anywhere in this country in a big way as long as we are blaming each other for present conditions. What we need is a little bit of confidence. We have got to stop complaining. We need first a recognition of our individual responsibility. We need industry, honesty and continuous effort on the part of everybody.

"We need to depend less on legislation and more upon ourselves. I am not one of those who believe that civilization is crumbling, that the churches are failing or that our schools or economic systems need changing. I believe we are in the very best position in the history of the world, despite the sufferings we have endured."

This is a message that is worth committing to memory, and then using as a guide to conduct in facing the struggles and trials which are facing most people today.

WORK ON TRANS-CANADA HIGHWAY TO CONTINUE IF PROVINCE WISHES

Ottawa — While he had every confidence an agreement to continue would be made, Hon. Wesley A. Gordon, Minister of Labor, told the House of Commons, Wednesday, last week, that it was entirely up to Ontario whether work on the trans-Canada highway proceeded this year.

This statement, coupled with a declaration that last year's federal-provincial municipal agreements to construct public works had proved too expensive, was drawn from Mr. Gordon after Opposition members headed by Hon. Peter Heenan, former Liberal Minister of Labor, had raised a veritable barrage of questions during debate on the 1932 unemployment and farm relief bill.

After an hour and a half's debate, the bill finally passed the committee stage. It now awaits only the formal third reading before it goes to the Senate.

Mr. Heenan's questions turned on what was really a renewal of his continuous feud with his old political foe Hon. William Finlayson, Ontario Minister of Lands and Forests. Reading excerpts from speeches attributed to Mr. Finlayson in New Ontario, Mr. Heenan quoted the Ontario Minister as saying that work on the trans-Canada Highway must stop because the Dominion Government had refused to aid and that the municipalities would have to look after their own needy citizens this year.

Mr. Gordon replied that no agreement had yet been signed with Ontario regarding the continuance of the trans-Canada operations but he was confident that the contract would be concluded. The reason the agreement was not yet signed was that all contracts with the provinces were held up pending the passage of this relief bill.

He indicated that governmental relief this year would be largely of the direct type. Details of administration in this regard lay with the provinces but in any event there would be no more of the tripartite public works agreement.

SUGGEST ABOLITION OF COUNTY COUNCILS

Toronto—While there are no definite signs at present of an early provincial election, many prominent Tory camp-followers feel that things are now moving in that direction, and that any appeal which the Henry Government may make to the people—in 1933 or as late as 1934—will be one for Ontario-wide economies, with Queen's Park pledged to set the pace therein.

- In any such economy platform, the following planks may be laid down:
1. Reduction of the present Legislature membership of 112 to 82, so as to tally with the Ontario House of Commons membership, and make the adoption of (or as nearly as possible) Dominion electoral riding boundaries.
 2. An eight-man Ontario Cabinet.
 3. Abolition of all County Councils.
 4. Discontinuance of the Grand Jury system.

Not Talking

Absolutely no confirmation of these suggested proposals is to be had at Queen's Park, but Governments are not in the habit of "tipping their signals" in advance, and unofficial rumour is that various members of the present Administration are at least discussing such matters nowadays among themselves, if not actually bringing them before the Cabinet as a whole.

It is a pretty well accepted belief furthermore, that a Redistribution Bill will be brought down to the Legislature at the 1933 session, and this step toward making the House smaller, and a less costly proposition than it is at the present time.

A smaller Cabinet, with amalgamation of various departments and elimination of others to effect that goal has been rumored for some time.

Doing away with County Councils has been advocated from public platforms during the past year by various ministers of the Government, and abolition of Grand Juries has a forceful sponsor in the person of Attorney-General William H. Price, whose intention along this line at the last session of the House was generally taken to indicate that the Government was about ready to move in that direction.

Abolition of County Councils, with the subsequent adoption of the Township Council basis of rural municipal government, would, it is understood, necessitate considerable changes in Provincial grants, notably in highway construction contributions — but on the other hand, it is said, would effect a material financial saving all around.

RELIEF from HEADACHES COLDS AND SORE THROAT NEURITIS, NEURALGIA

Don't be a chronic sufferer from headaches, or any other pain. There is hardly an ache or pain Aspirin tablets can't relieve; they are a great comfort to women who suffer periodically. They are always to be relied on for breaking up colds.

It may be only a simple headache, or it may be neuralgia or neuritis; rheumatism. Aspirin is still the sensible thing to take. Just be certain it's Aspirin you're taking; it does not hurt the heart. (Made in Canada.)

General News of Interest

Napanee—No further trace has been discovered of Henry Smith, of this place, who has been missing several weeks. Mrs. Smith, the wife of the missing man, offered a reward of $100 for information leading to his location but this reward has been withdrawn.

Kingston—Frederick McIlquham, who stands charged with the murder of his brother, William, and who was given preliminary hearing in police court on Wednesday morning, last week, is now in the county jail, where he will remain until he is brought to trial in Supreme Court in September.

The re-organization of the Trent Valley Baseball League has taken place. The officers are as follows: President—P. Gull, Havelock; Vice-President—P. C. Gull, Madoc; Secretary—Wm. Rogan, Deloro; Executive—G. Kennedy and T. McLaughlin, Havelock; S. Stevenson and C. Gillespie, Hastings; V. Jack, Madoc; and another member to be appointed from Deloro.

Moira—Mr. Charley Wood, an old and trusted employee of Mr. Charles Ketcheson had the misfortune of falling through a hole in the barn floor and landed foremost upon the cement stable floor doing damage to his left shoulder. He was badly shaken up and is going around with his arm in a sling. Mr. Woods is over 70 years of age and it is fortunate that he escaped as well as he did.

Twenty-two separate and distinct fires in a half a dozen townships surrounding the Tweed district on Monday which threatened for a time to move into several nearby villages and wipe them out were extinguished late Monday evening only after the heroic work of over five hundred volunteer firefighters had kept the smaller blazes under control and stopped the larger ones from spreading.

School number 5 at Waupoos in Prince Edward County was getting under way nicely when a large swarm of particularly pugnacious bees entered by the doors, windows and chimney. The pupils were forced to flee and school was closed for the day. It is learned that the bees had lived for several years within one of the walls of the building, but some one removed the wall and cleaned the bee hive out.

J. G. Hothersall, of London, self-styled organizer of the Klu Klux Klan attacked Mitchell F. Hepburn, Ontario Liberal leader, on the ground that he had ridiculed the Klan after having obtained its support in his election to the House of Commons. Mr. Hothersall addressed a meeting of an embryonic organization called the British Service Association which, he said, stood for the organization of a "new independent and non-partisan party".

Trenton—Beer and wine seem to have a great hold on some of the boys, so much that it is alleged Gordon Coughlin and Percy Downs broke into the home of Mr. Herb Allison, on Front Street, Trenton on Friday night. They gained entrance through the cellar window and stole one bottle of wine and three bottles of beer. A complaint was made to the police and the two young men were arrested and were held pending trial on Monday.

Tweed News—Rev. W. G. Hope Swayne and Mrs. Swayne have taken up their residence at St. James Church rectory, Tweed. Rev. Mr. Swayne, who was formerly stationed at Banockburn, was named by Bishop Lyons of the Diocese of Ontario, to succeed Rev. W. L. Wright on his departure for Christ Church Cathedral, Hamilton, where he is now Curate. Rev. Mr. Swayne is a son of Rev. W. G. Swayne, well known Anglican Church rector of Bath.

Brighton—A meeting of the executive of Oak Lake boys' camp, was held in St. Andrew's Church here on Saturday afternoon. Tentative dates were set for the camp, but nothing definite has been decided on. The meeting was attended by Rev. C. W. Barrett, Rev. McLaughlin, of Grafton; Rev. Neal, of Belleville; Mr. Lorne Jackman, of Trenton; Mr. R. M. Sturt, of Grafton; Mr. Gerald Wright, Brighton, and Mr. Gordon Lapp, Field Secretary of the Ontario Boys' Work Board, Toronto.

Frankford—A slight accident occurred on Trent St., on Tuesday, last week. Mr. Wilnot Scott was proceeding southward closely followed by Mr. Carter, of Sidney, and M. Scott swung out to make the turn into his own driveway, slowing at the same time, and Mr. Carter, although he tried to avoid collision by swinging out, was unable to avoid colliding with the rear end of Scott's car. Both cars were damaged to some extent, but the affair was settled between the parties as both were to some extent to blame.

Trenton—William Jeffrey resident north of White Church in Sidney Township is minus 100 pounds of butter, when thieves broke into a small outside shed, sometime during Monday night and transported the butter to some unknown destination. Last winter the same home was broken into and dressed chickens and other articles were taken, but nothing was said of the matter by Mr. Jeffrey. The loss this time however was considerable and the matter was reported to the police and an investigation will be made. The robbers broke the lock on the shed and in this way secured an entrance.

Norwood Register—The construction of a sub-way under the C.P.R. tracks at Norwood, near the scene of the recent bridge collapse at the big pond, has been definitely decided upon as a result of the conference last Friday between the Peterborough County Council and the Minister of Highways and his chief engineers. The problem has been one which has engaged the attention of the Government, the County and the Canadian Pacific Railway Company for some time. The project is spoken of as one of the most important undertakings on No. 7 Provincial Highway. The recent collapse of the old bridge near the dam created a situation which demanded immediate action.

Madoc—Harry Shonker, a veteran of 43 years on trains running out of Oshawa and in the district, who has been working on the Madoc-Belleville mixed for the last seventeen years, has coupled his last car and unloaded his last express and baggage on that run. On Sunday he was retired on pension, having reached the age of 65. Starting out on August 1st, 1899, braving on extras out of Belleville on the old G.T.R., he has stayed with railroading ever since. He was known from one end of the road to the other as a good hard-working man, and was popular with every person and now when he retires for a well earned rest he can look back on a fine record in his chosen profession.

Trenton—A fire broke out in the home of Mr. Amos Scriber of Front street at two a.m. on Sunday morning. The house, a frame structure, burned rapidly and it was due to the help given by the neighbors that the furniture in the downstairs was saved. No hydrants are installed at this point so it was some time before a stream was available as the water was brought from Mayhew's mill. There was some danger of the adjoining houses taking fire. Mrs. Mullett's home and Mr. Work's on either side had the roofs burned but they were able to quell the flames before severe damage was done. The house rented by Mr. Scriber is owned by Mr. John Bunney of Frankford, and was entirely destroyed by the blaze, just a shell remained standing.

AND THEY SCOFF AT OUR GOOD MONEY

(Orillia News-Letter)

The Canadian dollar is at a severe discount in the United States.

Yet no Canadian city has failed to pay its debts promptly or has found itself unable to meet its pay rolls.

Detroit owes a million dollars to its employers. Chicago is practically bankrupt. Philadelphia is in dire straits. The banks turned down a loan to New York.

But here in Canada, Toronto raises $15,000,000 in two hours and a half; Montreal will sell a $11,000,000 loan without trouble; Hamilton gets all the money it wants from the banks and so on. There is absolutely no question about Canadian credit. Our people have a billion and a quarter on deposit in the banks.

Yet with this clear record we allow the U.S.A. to say what our money is worth.

GOVERNMENT MAY CONTROL RADIO BROADCASTING

Ottawa, Ont.—The Prime Minister has given notice of legislation to implement the report of the Commons Committee on Radio Broadcasting. Mr. Bennett has given notice that he will move, in the House, the following resolution:

"Resolved, that it is expedient to bring in a measure to provide for the constitution of a commission to be known as the Canadian Radio Broadcasting Commission for the purpose of acquiring and controlling radio broadcasting in Canada."

Hon Raymond Morand, chairman of the special radio committee, has moved concurrence in the report. Its chief recommendation was for eventual nationalization of radio broadcast-

PROMISE OF 1932

(Financial Post)

When he took over the Canadian National Railways, Sir Henry Thornton said:

"The first thing to do is to hamper these different railways into one physical entity. The next task will be the selection of competent and suitable officers. The third point is to undertake the deficit and eliminate it, and, fourth to develop the country."

"Government" administration has hardly anywhere been successful. It is not ordinarily as efficient as private administration. There is only one principle that will bring success, namely, no political influence or interference."

No doubt if some one else takes over the job from Sir Henry, he will start off with the same promise.

The railway problem today is larger than that of the railway problem of 1922 by the amount of the additional billion dollars taken from the taxpayers or added to the national debt since 1922.

A FOUL CRIME

Words utterly fail one is trying to give expression to the feelings which arose on reading the announcement of the discovery of the dead body of the two year old son of Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh. In all the annals of foul and brutal crimes, this must surely take first place for cold-blooded and callous murder. The people of the whole civilized world must have shuddered as they read the story of the little body being found in the woods, a hole punched in its skull, through which its lifeblood must have flowed on the night of the kidnapping.

One can hardly express, either, the feelings of sympathy which arise for the sorrowing parents. Happy in their secluded home, they have been suddenly plunged into the deepest of human tragedies. They might well ask why this should happen to them. They had harmed no one. Then, like a beast in the night, there came a foul prowler to wreck that happiness and transform their home into a place of mourning. The world mourns with them, holds out to them all the sympathy that human hearts can express.

But what of the foul beasts responsible for the crime? What of the state of lawlessness and crime rule which makes a tragedy of this kind possible. If innocent babes sleeping in their cradles are not to be safe from the raids of callous criminals, what is civilization coming to? The Lindbergh baby murder is the most terrible indictment of the lawlessness of the United States that has yet been revealed. Criminals have run riot throughout the country, and have spared not even a little child in their lust for bloodshed and money.

The horror of the crime became all the more intense when one considers that the father of the child had already paid a sum of $50,000 to the supposed kidnappers for the return of his son. If they were the real kidnappers, then they took this money knowing that the child was lying dead under the trees near the New Jersey home. Such folly it was to think that men capable of the kidnapping had any decent instincts left in them. Such folly to place any dependence on the word of criminals such as in the United States. Looking back over the situation now, one can only express regret that the police forces were not given full rein to get out and secure the kidnappers, rather than have the desperate father committed to the foolish policy of treating with thugs and gangsters. This crime should be a salutary lesson to the United States. It should be a warning that the criminals who are making the land a place of terrorism must be rooted out, and that the whole forces of the law should not be allowed to rest until the country becomes as safe for even little children as human effort can make it. The Lindbergh tragedy will long remain a blot on civilization as it exists in the United States, and it is for those charged with the maintenance of law and order to remove it. Several stories were circulated on Monday that the murderer has found but they all proved a myth.

The Man who needs Life Insurance most is the man who cannot get it!

Ask any of the 400,000 men who last year were "turned down" by the life insurance companies when they wanted insurance.

An accident, or a few days of illness often convert a good risk into a rejected applicant.

The policy you can buy to-day may not be obtainable next year.

Wise men are buying all the life insurance they can while they are still insurable.

WHEN FOOD SOURS

ABOUT two hours after eating many people suffer from sour stomachs. They call it indigestion. It means that the stomach nerves have been over-stimulated. There is excess acid. The way to correct it is with an alkali, which neutralizes many times its volume in acid.

The right way is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia—just a tasteless dose in water. It is pleasant, efficient and harmless. Results come almost instantly. It is the approved method. You will never use another when you know.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia—prescribed by physicians for correcting excess acids. 50c a bottle—any drug store.

Money for the Farmer's Wife

EVERY farmer's wife should have a bank account; there are so many things to save for—things for the home—a holiday trip—or the proverbial rainy day.

On many farms the money from the poultry, the dairy or the garden belongs to the farmer's wife, but unless she has a bank account the money soon goes.

BALANCED Smoothness and Economy!

... the reason why "It's wise to choose this Six"

ONCE you really study the Chevrolet Six, you'll know immediately why so many motorists are saying "It's wiser than ever to choose this Six". Study the engine, for example. Long ago Chevrolet pioneered the six-cylinder engine in the low price field because this type of power plant strikes a perfect balance of smooth performance and maximum economy. It is a fact that the Chevrolet Six costs less for gasoline, oil and upkeep than any other full-size car! In addition, the Chevrolet Six gives you more actual horsepower in the normal driving range—balanced power, for quick acceleration and effortless speed. And this six-cylinder engine has been proved reliable by more than 2,000,000 owners in billions of miles of driving.

Ask your friends about the Chevrolet Six; come to our showrooms and drive it. Remember, you can have immediate delivery of any Chevrolet model—at new, reduced prices—and on easy monthly payment terms.

BOB PATTERSON

ST. ANDREW'S W.M.S.

The Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. H. Rollins, with a good attendance and several visitors on Tuesday afternoon. Meeting opened with hymn "Come let us sing of a Wonderful Love". Mrs. Harold Foster led in prayer. The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Spinks from 4th chapter of Mark, beginning at verse 30. "Jesus shall reign where'er the sun", was sung as a second hymn. Gena Spry gave a review of the Glad Tidings. Mrs. Blissett spoke of the missionary, Miss Robson, and of her work. Mrs. Melk-lejohn sang a very pleasing solo "Jesus Lover of My Soul", accompanied by Mr. C. Allen at the piano. The topic from the Study Book, was ably dealt with. Mrs. Frank Cosby took the first part, on Japanese Empire. She took it under climate, situation, people, what noted for, great festivals are held. Perhaps the greatest of all is the cherry-festival in April. Mrs. Murdoff took the second part, the life and work of Dr. Caroline MacDonald. She came from Wingham County and was a great worker among prisoners and criminals, and was often called the "White Angel of Tokio" and a missionary of highest order. She was made Elder of a Church. A Japanese man said she was a missionary that thought good and did good. Reports were given from visiting committee and a letter on what is required for the bala. Plans were made for next meeting to be held at Mrs. Dafe's and the key-word is "Peace". Meeting closed with hymn "O Master let me walk with Thee" and Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Rollins served a dainty lunch and a vote of thanks was tendered her. Miss Hume thanked the hostess for the in-visitation extended to the visitors present.

ST. ANDREW'S GUILD

The meeting of the Guild on Monday evening was under the direction of the Devotional Vice-President, Mrs. Anderson. William Dermidy had charge of the meeting. Mrs. Nolan read the Scripture lesson and Rev. A. N. Reid led in prayer. One of the features of the meeting which was most conducive to the spirit of devotion was the singing of consecrational hymns. These hymns were sung from the screen and were sung with enthusiasm. Arthur Duncan sang a solo "My Task" accompanied at the piano by Miss Smith. The Guild is deeply grateful for Arthur's generous contributions to the life and work of the society throughout the year. The topic was taken by Rev. A. N. Reid. "The Greatest Need of our Church Today." Money, active workers, larger crowds, are needed, but the greatest need is summed up in the word "Faithfulness". Faithful in Christian living, in Christian giving, in attendance at Christian service. Let us remember that He is looking at us and counting on us. Let us be faithful unto death. Mrs. R. H. Williams at the piano and Mr. T. Farnival on the violin played the accompaniment for the hymns. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

ST. PAUL'S Y. P. S.

St. Paul's Y.P.S. met on Monday evening, with the President, Mr. Harry Hulin, in charge of the entire program. Scripture lesson, 6th chapter Galatians, first fourteen verses, was read by the President, and prayer led by Mr. Wm. Fitchett. Delbert Ashley gave a humorous reading entitled "Mothers are funny that way". Maurice Bell delighted the audience with a characteristic banjo solo. Dr. C. W. Walt, speaker of the evening, handled the subject "World-wide Interests" in a very interesting manner. By illustration Dr. Walt plainly showed that all the great men of history have studied events by means of a long distance view. The speaker based his address on extracts taken from Tennyson's poem entitled "Locksley's Hall". In this poem Tennyson looked ahead 50 years and prophesied the things which would come to pass, some of these being airplanes, radios, poisonous gas, national consciousness and world-wide brotherhood. The speaker very clearly showed that much of this prophesy has already been fulfilled. The Doctor spent some time in showing that a state of nationhood must exist before the parliament of man, mentioned by Tennyson could be accomplished. The speaker urged all, especially the young, to work for Tennyson's ideal. Miss Evelyn Davidson put on a stone contest. The White side gaining the honours. Colour count showed an attendance of 67. The usual Mizpah benediction closed the meeting.

FARM PRODUCE PRICES IN U.S.

Washington—If we had some ham we could have some ham and eggs if we had seven cents if we lived in Texas. The Department of Agriculture has discovered eggs are 7 cents a dozen in Texas and 22.8 cents in Massachusetts. It finds prices of foodstuffs vary throughout the country as much as 300 per cent.

Apples cost anywhere from 55 cents a bushel to $1.75; chickens from 9 cents a pound to 20.5 cents; farm prices of lambs range from 4.3 to 7 cents a pound; sheep from 2.1 to 4.7 cents; calves from 3.9 to 8.4 cents; beef cattle from 2.8 to 5.5; wheat sells for 35 cents in Oklahoma and 84 cents in Georgia. In some States the average prices of farm products are so low as to read like a price list for 1932.

THE LATE ALBERT BATEMAN

A very sudden death occurred on Monday evening, May 9th, when Albert Bateman passed away at his home on the 10th concession of Rawdon. He had worked all day, as usual, and after unitching his team and putting them in the stable, he expired a few minutes later without a struggle. It was a great shock to his wife who was all alone with him. The deceased was apparently in good health and had been jolly and joking all forenoon. He had planted the garden in the morning and had been picking stone all afternoon. Mr. Bateman was born on the farm adjoining, on June 13th, 1876, and lived his whole life there until twelve years ago when he moved to his late home, where he and Mrs. Bateman had since lived. He was a member of the White Lake United Church and in politics was a staunch Conservative. He was always ready to lend a hand in the time of trouble and a real true friend and neighbor. Mr. Bateman was a member of L.O.L. 442, Springbrook. The funeral service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Lovelace, of Ivanhoe, assisted by Rev. Mr. Bunt, of Springbrook, at Springbrook United Church, at 1.30, on Thursday, May 12th. Interment at Stirling Cemetery. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife and one son, Cecil and two grandchildren, Lenora and Murney; also four nieces, Mrs. Arthur Mumby, Mrs. Gerald Chapman, Mrs. Roy Thompson and Miss Florence Bateman. The bearers were six cousins: William F. Bateman, Chris. Bateman, Edward Bateman, Alex Bateman, Burton Bateman, Fred Bateman. The floral tributes were: wreaths, wife and family, L.O.L. 442, Mrs. Florence Mitts and family; sheafs, Mrs. Caleb Bateman and family, wreath, J. Bateman, spray Mrs. Emma Bateman and family, Mrs. Stanley Hayton.

INJURY FATAL TO ROBERT GREEN

The following article relating to Robert Green, who a grandson of Mrs. John Wannamaker, Campbellford Rd. and a nephew of Mrs. George Wallace, appeared in Tuesday issue, last week, of the Belleville Ontario-Intelligencer.

Robert Henry Green, 26 Gordon Street, who was seriously injured on Thursday night, on West Moira Street, while riding his motorcycle, passed away in the Belleville General Hospital early this morning without regaining consciousness since the accident. He sustained a fractured skull, when he was thrown from his machine to the pavement. The young man was deservedly popular with all classes and well liked by his employers, the Canadian Department Stores, where he has been employed for some time. He took an active interest in all outdoor amusements, especially motor-cycling and was a member of the Quinte Motor Cycle Club, being the honoured treasurer of the organization. He was also interested in church work, being an active member of Holloway Street United Church. He was born in Springbrook nineteen years ago, being the son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos H. Green and had resided in this city for the past nine years. He was educated in the public and high schools of the city and leaves to mourn his loss his parents, two brothers, Harry, aged 17; Frank, aged 13, and one sister, Ila, aged four. The funeral was held last Friday.

RIVER VALLEY W. I.

The River Valley Women's Institute held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. G. Conley on Thursday, May 6th, with the President, Mrs. P. Utman, presiding. The attendance was good and included the President of the District. The meeting opened with the singing of the Opening Ode and repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. Minutes of the April meeting were read and approved, followed by the Secretary-Treasurer's Financial report. After various items of business were attended to, the retiring president thanked the members for their support and co-operation during her two years of office, but stated she could not accept their offer of presidency for another year. A hearty vote of thanks was unanimously given her for her faithful and untiring services.

Mrs. Shaw (Dist. Pres.) then very capably conducted the election of officers, which were nominated by bal-

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE AND HIGH SCHOOL BOARDS ORGANIZE

"The Associated High School Boards of the Province of Ontario" the New Organization

Problems confronting the several Boards responsible for the maintenance of the Collegiate Institutes and the High Schools of the Province of Ontario were discussed at a representative meeting held for that purpose in the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, on Thursday and Friday, last week. Dr. C. F. Wilt was delegate from the Stirling Board of Education. The outstanding matter for consideration was the pressing necessity for reduction of the cost of Secondary School Education. The Association, in organizing, hoped that by this means there should be a closer contact maintained with the Minister and the Department of Education, as well as with County and Municipal Councils. It was also considered that a united effort should be made to study the present high cost of Secondary Education, especially with a view of affording relief to the taxpayers. A preliminary survey of the matter showed the increase noticeable during the last fifteen years to be due to many causes, of which the following are, perhaps, the more responsible:

1. New School buildings, all probably necessary because of increased enrolment of pupils, especially in rapidly growing urban centres and their suburbs. These were built to comply with the increasing demands of the regulations of the Department of Education, and during the period of the peak of construction costs. The expenditures on these, which must be met in County and Municipal taxation annually are fixed and cannot be reduced.

2. The cost of providing the accommodations and equipment, as well as the necessary teaching staff, in order that the schools might be "approved" on inspection. It was felt these costs were increased out of all proportion to the financial assistance given by the Department.

3. It was felt that some subjects were not necessary, taking up time that should be given to others of real importance.

4. The high costs of examinations to the pupils as well as to the Boards.

5. The shortening of the teaching year by at least one month over that of a few years ago, leaving most teachers with little work during the last month of their teaching engagement, while others receive double pay.

Resolutions dealing with these matters were brought before the new organization and thoroughly discussed. It was decided to advise, with the approval of the Minister of Education, that Boards finding overcrowded conditions prevailing, should endeavor to arrange for attendance in relays using more hours of the day, rather than ask sorely pressed municipal Councils for Building Funds.

It was also decided to make request to the department for certain relief in the matter of examination costs. As salaries of the teaching staffs form a considerable part of the cost of Secondary Schools, and as these have increased from 50 to 100 per cent during the last fifteen years, it was decided to advise Boards that the Association was prepared, after due deliberation, to recommend that the maximum initial salary be $1400 to $1600 and that not only should there be no salary increases granted but that a ten per cent. reduction in present salaries be effective September 1st. These restrictions were recommended as a temporary measure in the hope that Boards through united effort, might assist in, reducing taxation.

Officers were elected for the ensuing year, the Executive being selected with a view to its being representative of every section of the Province, and of the various problems to be studied. It was decided to hold the General Annual meeting on or before the 30th of April hereafter, and the Executive was authorized to call a special meeting at any time it considered such action necessary.

Belleville "Nationals" baseball team were defeated by Kingston "Ponies" in the opening game, played in the former city on Tuesday by the score of 13 to 7.

OPEN NIGHT BEFORE A HOLIDAY

Residents of the district are reminded that Stirling stores remain open for business the night before a holiday. As near as the News-Argus can learn the places of business will be closed on Wednesday afternoon during the week in which a holiday is celebrated. In the past the stores have remained open on the weekly half-holiday when a public holiday was observed that week.

REBEKAHS ENTERTAIN

A social evening of dancing and cards was held by Laurel Rebekah Lodge, No. 211 in the Lodgeroom on Tuesday night. Music was supplied by Phil Beaudrie, pianist, and Guy Reid, violin. Through the courtesy of Sister Agnes Hammond several bouquets of lovely tulips decorated the room. A lunch was served. The program was arranged by the brothers of the Lodge. About seventy-five were present.

S. S. ANNIVERSARY

Sunday was a memorable day for St. Paul's United Church Sunday School, when it celebrated its anniversary. Special services were held in the church both morning and evening. Rev. E. McCutcheon, of Belleville, an old Stirling boy, was the preacher for the day. In the morning his address was mainly for the scholars of the school, his text being Three Keys—Work, Friendship and Prayer. In the evening his remarks were to the young people, stressing the responsibilities in life. Large congregations were present at both services. Selections by the S. S. orchestra, under the leadership of T. Lunn, were much enjoyed. Rev. E. W. Rowland, local minister, conducted the services in Tabernacle Church, Belleville, of which Mr. McCutcheon is the minister.

NEAR DROWNING

Donald Francis, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Francis, had a narrow escape from drowning in the pond, on Friday afternoon. Along with other boys the young lad was playing near the bridge, over the dam, when he slipped and fell in. The other boys thought he could swim, but when Morley Reid, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Acyl Reid saw him go under the third time, he realized the boy was drowning and immediately dove in the water, under the drowning lad, and safely brought him to shore. Donald was revived in a short time and feels none the worse from the near fatality. Special mention is due Morley for his presence of mind, and no doubt special recognition will be made by the Royal Humane Society for his brave deed, at a later date.

STIRLING LEGION

A small detachment of the local Legion journeyed to Belleville on Tuesday, to attend the unveiling of the monument erected by Mrs. R. J. Graham and presented to the City of Belleville for the Comrades who paid the Supreme Sacrifice in the Great War, 1914 to 1918. This monument is an everlasting memento of the boys who gave their lives that we should have freedom. May we hope that those who see this great work of art pause and think of those who are gone, yet remember those who are left behind to suffer from wounds and other disabilities caused in this great conflict, and work for those who are unable to work, and help those who need their assistance. Let these be our passwords: Comradeship, Friendship and Sacrifice.

The annual meeting of the Stirling Branch will be held on Monday, May 29th, at 8 p.m. sharp. All comrades in the district are cordially invited to attend. Mr. C. H. Hicks and Comrade Connor, chairman and secretary of Zone 16 will be present, also Comrades from Post No. 9, Kingston.

Now Is The Time To Enter
News-Argus Prize Contest

FOR NEW AND RENEWAL SUBSCRIPTIONS FILL IN THE ENTRY BLANK ON PAGE FIVE

Once a booster, always a booster, the News-Argus boosts this community first, last and all the time. For the past 53 years the News-Argus has served this locality faithfully. Now comes a plan for boosting the home community to a greater extent than ever before. Every additional News-Argus printed helps to boost its vicinity and environs. While the home paper already enjoys a large circulation, its scope of influence can be further materially increased by the addition of many more subscribers.

To accomplish this end quickly and at the same time give our friends and readers an opportunity to profit in a big way, the News-Argus offers one of the most liberal distribution of prize awards ever offered by a weekly paper in a circulation drive. It is not expected that club members will wholly depend upon their own efforts. Relatives and friends can help and a merry pastime it will be, with rich rewards to come in the end.

Now that the announcement is made of a list of candidates the Public can pick out their favorite and give them their best support. Save the Coupons. They count 1000 votes. Most Votes win.

YOUNGSTER CUTS HAND

Six year old Letha Conley met with a most painful accident on Monday, last week, when on returning from school at 10.30 in the absence of her mother, proceeded to cut a slice of bread for a "piece", and the carving knife slipped and cut a deep gash in her first finger of the left hand.

LIMIT OF EIGHT PIKE

By Order-in-Council, of April 26th, 1932, sub. section 3 of section 8 of the Dominion Special Fishery Regulations for the Province of Ontario has been amended to read as follows: "No one shall fish for, catch or kill in any of the waters of the province in any one day by angling a greater number than eight yellow pickerel, (pike-perch or dore) and pike, regardless of their length".

GOOD BUSINESS

Salesmen from Toronto printing houses frequently come to Stirling and, no doubt, sell a good deal of printing. Merchants who give orders to these salesmen no doubt do so in the belief that they are saving money. But this is the way it works out in the great majority of cases.

A local merchant had a quotation printed, ruled and punched ledger statement sheets from one of the best houses, which has a reputation for low prices.

He called at the News-Argus office and was quoted $10.00 per thousand on the order. He then said that the order would be done at the News-Argus office as the price was $2.00 per thousand sets lower than the Toronto quotation, and in addition he saved the express charges on the finished job from Toronto.

Surely saving enough to justify your printing orders placed locally outside of the fact that local printing orders pay wages to local workmen which in turn buys local goods.

The News-Argus is equipped to handle any and every kind of printing stationery and office supplies at competitive prices.

Freddie Eggleton's little dog was killed by a car in front of the Superior Store about six o'clock on Friday evening. It was a great blow to the young lad, as the pup had become quite a pal to its little master.

PINE GROVE THREATENED

Beware of fire! On Tuesday afternoon the pines of Oak Lake were threatened with fire. Had Mrs. Clifford Barragar not noticed the smoke arising from the grove and given the alarm, summoning help to extinguish a small blaze that had started, no doubt serious damage would have been caused and probably some of the cottages on the west side of the lake would have been in the path of the flames. Shortly before a car was seen leaving the grove and it is thought a careless smoker had thrown a match or cigarette butt, which ignited the dry grass. People should be careful of fire at all times, particularly in a dry season such as we have had during the past week. It would have been a crime if the lake's state pine grove had gone up in smoke because someone had not been careful and failed to use his grey matter. Beware of fires.

STIRLING -- SPRINGBROOK

A keenly contested softball game was played on the local high school campus, on Monday night, between Springbrook and Stirling, the latter winning by the score of 19 to 18. The teams were evenly matched, although Springbrook looked to be the better finished team, but the breaks were against them. On the play, the Northerners should have won. This was a schedule game in the Rawdon Softball League. Ricman made his debut as a softball player in Stirling and pitched the entire game. Maurice Heath and Lorne Bateman performed the mound duties for the visitors. It is expected lively contests will be held before the schedule is completed.

The line-ups were as follows: Springbrook — Maurice Heath, p.; Garney Heath, r.f.; Ritchie Mason, 2b; Murray Mason, 3b; Gordon Bailey, c.; Lorne Bateman s.s. and p.; Hill Heath, 1b; Berton Morton, lf; Jack Gibson, cf; Clarence Bailey 1b. Stirling — P. Gibson, 2b; Fred Joblin, lf; W. Ricman, p.; Tom Ward 1b; Bill Duff, 3b; Gordon Bailey, cf; E. Cain, rf; Buck Hulin, c; Tip Blease, s.s.

Referees—Home plate, Rev. E. W. Rowland; first and second bases, Harry Ingram; third base, Harry Heath.

The schedule is as follows: May 27—Springbrook vs Hoards May 31—Glen Ross vs Springbrook. June 2—Bethel vs Stirling. June 6—Hoards vs Springbrook. June 8—Stirling vs Glen Ross. June 10—Hoards vs Bethel. June 14—Glen Ross vs Stirling. June 16—Springbrook vs Bethel. June 20—Glen Ross vs Hoards. June 22—Stirling vs Springbrook. June 24—Bethel vs Hoards. June 27—Stirling vs Bethel. June 30—Hoards vs Stirling. July 1—Springbrook vs Glen Ross. July 4—Hoards vs Glen Ross. July 6—Bethel vs Springbrook. July 6—Stirling vs Hoards. July 8—Glen Ross vs Bethel.

$200 FIRE LOSS

Last Thursday evening, about 8.30 o'clock the firemen were summoned to Mr. Albert Hammond's residence, Charlotte street, where a fire was discovered in a woodshed at the rear. The call was answered promptly, but there was a delay in getting the pumper started. However, the flames fortunately were extinguished before very great damage was done. The cause of blaze is unknown. Boxes of excelsior, crates, etc., stored in the shed encouraged the flames. Mr. Hammond was in his bedroom at the time and the flames were first noticed by Mrs. Hammond when she was about to get a pail of water from the well, nearby. She immediately sent in the alarm. Any further delay would have undoubtedly resulted in the entire house being fired. The loss is estimated at $200, which is covered by insurance.

CURRENT COMMENT

A week from tomorrow, June 3rd, is the King's birthday and a public holiday.

It looks as if it is going to be an even break between bare heads and straw hats this year.

Victoria Day passed over very quietly in Stirling yesterday. The citizens had to go elsewhere for entertainment.

Railway excursion rates indicate that Canadians are going to have an unusual opportunity this summer to see Canada first.

Front Street east was given a coating of crushed stone last week, thus one of Stirling's rocky roads has been eliminated.

It should not be forgotten that the chap who carries around a sour face and never smiles is hurting no one but his own selfish self.

The wise business man knows that the "magic key" to the village and rural trade is through the advertising pages of local newspapers.

Now that summer is here it is a great thing to know how to swim. It is also a great thing not to be foolishly reckless after learning how to swim.

Are you happy? Happiness is the only good. The place to be happy is where you are. The time to be happy is now. The way to be happy is to help make others so.

Women, says a Stirling Shiek, look better than men. He may be right, but a man doesn't have to stay home after he washes his head—particularly if he is bald-headed.

Petrolia Advertiser-Topic—The Irish Free State has put a particularly heavy tax on bachelors. It's getting harder and harder for a bachelor to appreciate his free state.

Tillsonburg News—It used to be the down-trodden pedestrian. Times have changed; now it's the motorist. When he isn't paying licenses and fines he is memorizing the latest traffic laws.

Kingsville Reporter—The United States census reports an auto for every two farms and a telephone for every three farms. We suspect that Canada will run our southern neighbor a close race in these matters.

The average one hour address contains enough material if taken down verbatim for about seven columns in a newspaper. Each column contains on an average of 1100 words so that the average address of 60 minutes duration contains 7700 words. Isn't it wonderful what martyrs to punishment the average listener to an after-dinner speaker is?

What Others Say

SUNDAY TRUCKING ON THE HIGHWAYS

(Whitby Gazette-Chronicle)

The Gazette and Chronicle last week carried an announcement to the effect that the Department of Highways of Ontario had begun a close check up of all trucks travelling on the highways on Sunday. At certain points drivers are being stopped and the contents of their trucks examined to ascertain if they are of the perishable character and necessary to be transported on the Lord's Day.

The Department of Highways is to be commended for their action, and their check up in the next few weeks will undoubtedly result in the elimination of many trucks from the highways.

Truck drivers like all other people are entitled to one day in seven, as a day of rest, and on the other hand there is no valid reason why truck owners should be accorded privileges denied to railways.

Another reason why trucking should be restricted on Sundays is the heavy volume of automobile traffic. Many car owners have only Sunday to take a drive out into the open country, and it is not fair that their progress should be impeded by trucks. There is nothing that so ties up traffic as a line of cars behind a high truck unable to pass.

ADVERTISING THAT FAILED

(St. Thomas Times-Journal)

One insuperable drawback to radio advertising is that the advertisers have no means of ensuring that the public is listening to their programs. Sponsors seem to be dazzled by the salesmen's talk that there are so many million people within the radius of so many radio stations, and at a huge cost, they buy time over a certain number of stations, fondly believing—or just fondly hoping—that a few million people are listening to their programs. But many of them have had very disappointing results.

There is the case of a hosiery manufacturer who booked thirteen weeks over one of the big American chains. With a large part of the contract unexpired he has asked to have it cancelled because the advertising has cost a great deal more than it has brought in.

The advertiser's program was heard over 42 stations every week. By way of "kidding" the result he offered prizes for a contest. Yet, Few flags were flying in Stirling on Tuesday—Victoria Day.

A staff correspondent of the Toronto Globe, says: "The farmers of Ontario, and I believe it, that if ever there was an octopus, a devil fish with elongated arms, squeezing the life out of them, it is the Canada Packers, of Toronto."

This is the time of year when the usual argument commences between the owner of hens and his neighbor who prides himself on his flower beds and garden. We would advise all poultry owners to keep their feathered flock cooped up during this season.

Bathing season is here. However, with the prevailing cool weather and with the exception of the usual Saturday night dip in the bath tub, swimmers have been kept out of the old swimmin' hole and the waters of Oak Lake, owing to the chilly breezes from the north.

Now that Amelia Earhardt Putnam, noted aviatrix, has made a solo flight across the Atlantic, the first woman to do so, a wisecracker states that women "are up in the air more than men" anyway, and are of a flighty nature. Who dares to corroborate such a statement?

Once again Campbellford benefits very largely because of its revenues from the Water and Light Commission granting the town the sum of $15,000 to apply on current receipts. Let's hope Stirling Utilities will be in a position to do the same in the near future.

According to Dame Rumor Sir Henry Thornton is to resign as President of the C.N.R. Is this the result of the government investigation? No doubt Sir Henry will wait until he gets a "job" with as "good pickings" as he enjoyed with the railway before he severs his connections.

A real feeling of friendship came over one motorist recently when, overtaking a large oil truck on the road, he read these words, lettered on the rear end: "We'll share the road, blow your horn." Naturally in passing one looked up at the driver with a friendly grin, instead of the look so commonly given drivers of big trucks.

Great enthusiasm has already been created over the News-Argus subscription campaign. Read over the list of contestants. Make your choice and then endeavor to boost your contestant to win a prize. Times may be hard but a subscription to the News-Argus is the best investment you can make. It is not too late for new candidates to enter the campaign.

In an article in the daily press on Monday, a preacher states that he has performed more marriages already this year—leap year—than he did for the entire year of 1931. This member of the cloth firmly believes that there should be a year once in every four, when women may "pop the question", in fact, he says, he sees no reason why a proposal of marriage should not come from the woman at any time. So say we.

Georgetown Herald—It would appear from newspaper reports of council meetings, says the Municipal World, that some councils are using the ballot system of appointing officials and deciding questions. This is contrary to The Municipal Act, section 213 (2) of which provides that no vote shall be taken by ballot or by any other method of secret voting, and every vote so taken shall be of no effect. The electors at large are entitled to know how their representatives vote on every question. Councillors who have not backbone enough to express their convictions in public should not be re-elected.

Thoughts of the Empire

Throughout the Dominion, Monday, May 23rd was observed as Empire Day, although with the exception of patriotic ceremonies in the schools there was practically nothing to mark the occasion. This year, above all others, Canadians might well be expected to turn their thoughts to Empire matters in view of the fact that in a few weeks prominent statesmen from all parts of the far-flung British Commonwealth will gather at Ottawa, guests of this Dominion, to consider plans for knitting the Empire closer together in trade relationship. If the Imperial Conference should prove to be a total loss so far as the objects for which it is being convened are concerned, it would nevertheless be decidedly worth while from a Canadian viewpoint because it will bring the vastness and the wealth of natural resources of this country before a most representative group of Empire political leaders and serve as a most valuable object lesson to the illustrious delegates. Empire Day, 1932 was therefore, a most fitting time for Canadians to grow Empire-minded, to realize the importance of improving Empire trade relations, and to decide that as individuals they shall be worthy of the traditions that are their heritage.

REASON IN ECONOMY

(Financial Post)

A Government that starts out to economize has a very difficult task. It can approach its problem in several ways. It can order all departments to cut a fixed percentage, say ten, fifteen, or twenty per cent, off all items on their budget. It can go through the accounts and eliminate large items here and there without any particular attention being paid to the true value to the nation of the different items of expenditure.

Or it can make a careful study of every item of government expenditure and eliminate all that can properly be dropped, reduce all others in accordance with the necessities of the times, and thus bring about a very substantial reduction in expenditures.

The Dominion Government seems to have combined the first two in a somewhat haphazard fashion. For example, the air mail has been largely eliminated although expenditures on the wasteful Hudson's Bay Railway are to go on. Substantial reductions have been made in the appropriation for the control of the pests that beset Western agriculture, although farm loans and old age pensions have not been touched.

In the matter of grants to outside organizations, there have been some peculiar things done. A number of grants have been continued with a reduction of approximately 10 per cent in the amount. Other grants equally important, and in some cases more important than those that have been continued, have been eliminated entirely, such as the grant to the Canadian Council for social hygiene and the grant to the provinces for venereal disease control.

Why, for instance, should the work of mental hygiene be considered more important than the work of social hygiene?

Why should the work of the Canadian Red Cross be considered more important than the combatting of venereal disease?

It is hard to make sense out of government policies in re-arranging the grants and it is a fair enough assumption that some master mind directed a vigorous hand to draw a blue pencil through items haphazardly selected.

MADOC JUNCTION

Mrs. Ethel Danford and daughter Marjorie, of Belleville, were among the visitors here on Sunday.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Hiram Ashley is critically ill in Belleville hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, of Yarker, Ont., motored up and spent Sunday at their home here.

Friends of Mrs. Lorne Lanigan are sorry to hear her little daughter Mary Louise, is very ill, suffering from Scarlet Fever.

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR ANDREWS HONORED

On Thursday evening a number of friends and neighbors invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, and presented them with a lovely electric lamp and fernery. Mr. and Mrs.
Andrews left on Friday for their new home at Yarker. Mr. Russell Stapley acted as chairman and called the gathering to order, while Mrs. C. R.
ence Fitchett read the address.

Following is the address:
Madoc Junction, May 19, 1932

Dear Friends,—
It is with deep regret we assemble here tonight to spend this last evening with you before your departure to your new home. We have met to gather in this home on numerous occasions and enjoyed your hospitality.
We wish to convey to you our hearty appreciation for what you have meant to us, in your own home, in the church and the community at large.

Mrs. Andrews, as President of our Women's Missionary Society, you have been exceedingly faithful and our society will lose a member whose place will be hard to fill. As choir leader for many years you have been most kind and considerate. Your splendid gift of song you were ever willing to contribute when your health permitted, will be sadly missed by all. We know our loss will be others' gain in the new life at Yarker, and we wish you both every happiness and prosperity. We feel we cannot let this occasion pass without showing in some way our love and appreciation.
Therefore we ask you to accept these gifts in the spirit in which they are given. Trusting they will keep green in your memory the loving friends at Eggleton.

Signed on behalf of the Community — Mrs. Clarence Fitchett and Mrs.
Oliver Stapley.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews were taken completely by surprise, but each replied in well chosen words. They expressed regret at leaving the community but hoped they would be able to get back often. Mr. Stapley called on several gentlemen for speeches, after which a delicious lunch was served by the ladies, and all joined in singing "God be with you till we meet again."

MINTO

Miss Bessie Jeffrey spent the weekend at Mr. J. B. Hagerman's.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey, Mr. and that your votes are to be given to Mount Pleasant.

Three cheers West Huntingdon, for your plain speaking. We know of folks at Mount Pleasant whose pocketbooks were far from bulging last Tuesday after they had sold their calves. Seems as if the farmer is being hit on all sides as he receives very little for what he sells and pays practically the same for what he buys.
Two-thirds of what the farmer purchases is at the same price as in former years. It is little wonder manufacturers are closing their doors and the vast array of unemployed is on the tramp.

Good-bye, Madoc Junction. We shall be expecting to hear from you occasionally even though you have moved to Yarker. We heard you were planning to be surprised on Thursday evening before departing for your new place of residence. However, we bespeak for you many new friends during your sojourn in the Napanee district.

A very pretty marriage ceremony took place in Belleville on May 14th, when Miss Ruby Childerhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Childerhouse, of Maynooth, became the bride of Mr.
John Hannon, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hannon, of Bethel. We extend heartfelt best wishes to the newly married couple. The bride will be remembered at Mount Pleasant as the spent several months in our vicinity a few years ago.

Mr. Ray Post is holidaying with Mr.
Blake Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. George Heagle of Wellmans, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ernest White on Sunday.

Mrs. Ellen Sharp is recovering from her recent illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Will Johnson, Well-mans.

Mrs. John Reid returned to Welcome last week and will spend some time at the parsonage with Rev. Honey and family.

We extend heartfelt congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. David Kiddie, St. Eugene, Ont. A lovely baby son arrived at their home on Monday evening, May 16th. Mother and baby both fine.

We also extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson, as the stork visited them on Monday, May 16, and left a nice baby boy. Mrs.
Johnson and baby are in Belleville hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Reid visited Mr. and Mrs. Murney Scott on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James MacMullen, Bessie and Malcolm of Campbellford were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Percy MacMullen.

Mr. Freddie Joblin motored to Toronto over the week-end. His grandmother and aunt returned with him to their home in the city.

Mrs. Nancy Fair has returned to Mount Pleasant to pay an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest White.
Mrs. Fair has been spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. George Heagle, at Wellmans.

Friends here were sorry to hear that Mr. George Watson, of Wellmans was confined to the house with a sore knee.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scott spent Saturday at Havelock visiting Mrs.
Green who is ill.

Some of the radio fans listened on Saturday afternoon to an account of the Woodbine Races and a description of the beautiful gowns worn by the ladies of class. One lady remarked: "We heard recently about the dire poverty in Toronto and today we are learning of those who sit in the lap of luxury". Truly one half of the world does not realize what the other half is doing. At Saturday's gathering there was an attendance of fifteen thousand.

Tuesday was a holiday for business folks but most of the farmers will be busy finishing up several odd jobs which crop up after the seeding is completed. We will have to wait till next January before the rush of work goes into the background.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer enjoyed a trip with Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Merles of Warkworth on Thursday.
Mr. Merles is reeve of Percy Township and he spent the day driving over several of the roads in his district arranging what repairs should be made this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Weaver and Lois spent the week-end with the later's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Telford, at Bridgenorth, and also visited Pet-terboro.

"You must say 'our,'" stormed one of Pump Street's married women to her husband last week. "I'm tired of hearing you say 'my horse' and 'my car' and 'my daughter'."

The next morning friend husband arose in his usual rough frame of mind and spent about five minutes rummaging about the room. Finally his wife turned over in bed and shouted at him "What on earth are you looking for?"

"For our pants", answered friend husband. "Have you any idea where they be?"

Some of the folks enjoyed a novel ride last Friday evening about 6.30.
For particulars enquire at our local store.

Y.P.S.

The Young People's Society was held in the Community Hall on Friday evening, with the President in charge. Opening hymn "We have heard the joyful sound", and prayer.
The Secretary read the minutes. In place of Devotional "Joybells" was sung in groups. The fourth vice-president, Miss Edna Thrasher, then presided with "O worship the King" and Prayer by Mrs. Thomas McKeown.
Miss Mildred Sharp read the scripture fund in 1st Kings, 7: 13-22. The topic "What can art do for me" was nicely prepared by Mrs. L. C. Locke and was read by Mrs. Edgar Mc-Keown. Messrs John Cogins, Percy McVillie, Herbert Higgs and David Reid rendered a pretty mouth-organ selection and responded to an encore by singing "Springtime in the Rockies" and "Goodnight Ladies and Gentlemen." Mrs. Percy MacMullen gave a musical reading "I've got the Mumps" with Miss Edna Thrasher as accompanist and as an encore gave "Willie". Mr. Charlie Carter outlined his trip to England and gave a charming picture of the ship's interior, the lights of France, the dinky trains at home, Buckingham Palace, British museum, art gallery, and many places of interest — the double-decked busses, underground railways, the Bay British campaign sponsored by the Prince of Wales.

Slides telling us of the various interesting sights the speaker touched on farm mergers, unemployment and the dole system. Charlie's description of his trip was enthusiastically received. Dialogue "Six cups of chocolate". Mrs. Roy Thrasher introduced the characters, as follows: Adeline
Von Lindew, Edna Thrasher; Marion Lee, Olive McConnell; Hester Bea-son, Myrtle McKeown; Jeanette Durand, Frances McKeown; Beatrix Van Kortland, Agnes Sharp; Dorothy Green, Marguerite White. The six girls are at college and Adeline decides to entertain. Before their arrival she moons over a love letter she has recently received from a popular college boy who resides in our midst. Later when the girls have all come, Jeanette who speaks French, reveals the fact that she has fallen in love with the college chap and proceeds to read her letter. Well, the fat is in the fire for all six girls compare notes and find that each has received an identical love letter.
Needless to say Hester at once on behalf of the others pens this smart aleck a note and Dorothy adds a postscript. All six letters are also enclosed and returned to the sender. So boys, here is your lesson—just write to one belle at a time. The dialogue was well given and hearty applauded. Another hymn and a "May" contest proved interesting.

Petherick's young folks from Zion
Y.P.S. are planning to visit us next Friday evening. A ball game will be staged at 7 p.m. in Mr. Will Scott's field and at 8 p.m. an interesting program supplied by the visitors will be given at the Hall.

Misses Marguerite and Eida White and Mr. G. Stone attended St. Paul's Sunday School anniversary on Sunday evening and report a splendid service.

Sunday evening at Mount Pleasant Miss Olive McConnell sang a beautiful solo "I shall not pass again this way", and Rev. Joblin spoke from the text "Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God."

BREAD -- HOW MANY BITES TO THE SLICE

Not many when a growing lad who's hungry gets his teeth into a sweet crusty slice of good Bread.

Flavor counts big in Bread enjoyment. "Tastes good"—that's the biggest compliment we can pay our food. It means that appetite is stimulated, digestion is right on the job.

When hungry, eat Wright's Bread. And for health's sake, always eat Bread that tastes good—

WRIGHT'S BREAD

It's the loaf rich in good flavor and Bready deli-

BURNBRAE

JOHN M. ODDIE DIES SUDDENLY

Driving cattle into the lane from the pasture to be milked at 2.00 o'clock on Friday afternoon, John M. Oddie, prominent Seymour Township farmer, residing at Burnbrae, took a weak spell, leaned against a fence then collapsed and died. A heart seizure is given as the cause of death. He has suffered from his heart for the past five years, but despite this fact his death was a shock to his wife and daughter, Helen, with whom he had recently dined. Aged 66 years, the late Mr. Oddie has played a very important part in the building up and life of the community, and was a man who was loved and respected by all with whom he came in contact. Born in the district, he lived a number of years with his wife in Manitoba, later coming back to the township to reside. Of Scottish descent, he had all the characteristics of his race, and was a Presbyterian, being a member of St. Andrew's Church, Burnbrae, and a prominent and active figure in church life.

Surviving are his wife, who was Miss Minnie Morrison; one son, J. Mack, of Detroit, Mich., and two daughters: Mrs. V. I. Stafford, of Beamsville, Ont., and Miss Helen Oddie at home; also four brothers: Wm. M. of Cleveland, Ohio; Bert of Deloraine, Manitoba; Melville, of Winnipeg, Manitoba, and Percy of Seymour township, and five sisters: Mrs. Wm. Ingram, of Fernie, B.C.; Mrs. Wm. Varcoe, of Windsor, Ont., and Mrs. John Thompson, Mrs. A. T. Donald, and Mrs. John Rainnie, all of Seymour. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 from St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Burnbrae. Interment was made in Burnbrae cemetery, the Rev. Donald A. McKenzie, officiating.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. W. T. Shannon, Toronto; James Jackson and W. W. Clarke, Campbellford; Ray Russell, Brighton; and John Thompson and John Mannie, Menie.

Floral tributes were as follows: Mrs. John Oddie and family; Mr. and Mrs. William Oddie, Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. J. Thompson; Mr. and Mrs. John Rainnie, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Oddie and Mrs. A. T. Donald, Menie;

Mrs. William Varcoe, Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ingram, Fernie, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Morrison, Campbellford; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Shannon and family, Toronto; Mrs. H. B. and Aloy Morrison, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCallum, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Morrison, Toronto; Ladies' Aid Society of St. Andrew's Church, Burnbrae; Mr. and Mrs. T. Locke and Henry; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Jackson, Campbellford; Mrs. S. Loosmore, Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. H. Styles, Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Monroe, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. W. Loosmore, Windsor. The floral bearers were Messrs. Henry Locke, Wm. Craighead, Wm. Brady, James Thompson, Mitchell Rainnie and Kenneth Oddie.

Friends from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Mack Oddie, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Miss Shannon, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Tufford and family, Beamsville; Mrs. Harry Morrison, Toronto; Mrs. Wm. Varcoe, Windsor; Mr. Tufford, Sr., Beamsville; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Simpson, Brighton; Mr. Vance Tufford, Colborne.

The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community in the loss they have sustained.

"Life passeth soon, death draweth near,

Keep us, good, Lord, till Thou appear,
With Thee to live, with Thee to die,
With Thee to reign through eternity."

WEST HUNTINGDON

Paul Kingston Passes

After a brief illness of only a little over two days' duration, Mr. Paul Kingston, our oldest, and one of the most highly respected citizens, passed away at the home of his son, Mr. Albert Kingston, on Tuesday evening. If he had lived until Sunday he would have celebrated his 92nd birthday. Mr. Kingston was well-known far and near, and was respected by young and old. Until the time he was stricken with a stroke on Sunday, he took a keen interest in the welfare of the community. He was born on the same farm on which he died, and lived most of his life in this community. In politics he was a staunch Conservative and in religion a faithful member of the United Church. In fraternal circles he was an Orangeman. He was a member of Rawdon Council for a number of years and at one time was reeve of the township. His wife predeceased him a number of years ago. To those left to mourn his loss is extended the sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

The softball games of the Centre League are in full swing now. The first of the series were played on Friday evening, Ivanhoe and Evergreen being winners. On Monday evening West Huntingdon and Ivanhoe carried off the honors. We expect the next game to be of some "pop" as Ivanhoe and West Huntingdon are in the limelight. An extra large number witnessed the games each evening, for which we are very grateful.

Mr. Arthur Wilson attended a banquet at the Quinte Hotel, Belleville on Friday, last week, in the interests of the great West Life Assurance Co. Mr. Bernard Truscott, of the Bank of Montreal, Belleville, is visiting his parents at the parsonage this week.

Messrs. E. T. Sarles, Geo. Post, Foster and Arthur Wilson attended the Orange Rally on Madoc on Thursday evening. Mr. Sarles acted as chairman in a very efficient manner and those attending report it one of the best meetings of its kind they ever attended.

Mrs. Adams has returned to her home here after having spent the winter months with her daughter, Mrs. Jas. S. Wilson.

Mrs. J. J. Wilson spent the week-end visiting her sister, Mrs. Moorecroft, of Cooper.

The W.M.S. held a quilting bee at Mrs. Ed. Pitman's on Friday. Some twenty ladies attended and someone was heard to remark that if their fingers had travelled as fast as their tongues, a great number of quilts would have been quilted.

Mr. Keith Bray, of Queensboro visited his parents over the week-end. Rev. and Mrs. Truscott spent the holiday at Napanee.

IVANHOE

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Elliott, of Tweed, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Reid.

Miss Vera Locke and Miss Edna Reid were dinner guests on Sunday of Miss Neva Hagerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wickett and Master Ronald were tea guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reid on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Reid and Baby Douglas, spent Sunday with Mrs. Reid's parents, at Thomasburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. McGee, of Stirling, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Murray Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clement, Mr. and Mrs. J. Clement, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clement were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sidmer Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Reid, of Thomasburg, were recent callers of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Johnson and children of Corbyville, were guests at the home of Mrs. W. J. Jeffrey on Sunday afternoon.

HAROLD

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Copeland, of Bloomfield, are guests of the former's uncle, Mr. William McMullen. On Sunday they motored to Fuller and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mitts.

Miss Audrey Bunt spent the holiday with Mrs. C. M. Sine.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vogan, also Mr. and Mrs. Stone, of Toronto, were guests at the homes of C. F. Lloyd and C. Runnalls over the week-end. Mrs. Lou Runnalls returned to Toronto with them and will spend some time there.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinds spent Sunday with his parents at Campbellford.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Sine and children and Miss Evelyn Bailey attended church in Stirling on Sunday evening.

Routley Construction Co. are busy hauling crushed rock from their quarry and placing it on the road from Stirling to Foxboro. Some twelve or fifteen trucks are being employed.

Mrs. Vanallen who has been visiting her father, Mr. Kirk at Mr. G. Bailey's returned to her home in Peterboro on Tuesday.

WEST HUNTINGDON W. M. S.

The W. M. S. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Hulse Rollins, with a large attendance and several visitors. The meeting opened by hymn "The Morning Light is Breaking", followed by the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Howard Ashley read the Scripture Luke 10, verses 1-12. Hymn "I Love to Tell the Story" was sung, followed by "Glad Tidings" prayer, read by Mrs. W. M. Shaw. The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. The business part of the meeting took the form of a discussion for a future entertainment and social. The roll call was responded to by Missionaries and their works. Mrs. Reid gave a very interesting reading on Miss P. Argall and the veteran missionary honoured by Queen's, followed by a duet "Jesus and His Love" by Mrs. Wm. Shaw and Mrs. Samuel Donnan. Mrs. Donald Harkerty gave a sketch of Chapter 4 of the Study Book "Japan". Mr. Reid gave an interesting missionary reading from the Glad Tidings on "Pioneering never loses its power to thrill." The meeting closed with "Just as I am", followed by prayer by Rev. A. N. Reid.

MOUNT PLEASANT

Eileen and Winnie Phillips were guests of Winnie and Marie Sharp on Sunday.

Rev. A. N. Reid visited Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sharp one evening last week and christened baby Douglas.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Tucker, of Belleville spent Saturday evening with Mrs. Parks, at Hards. On Sunday they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Garrison and Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Heath.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Reid attended a funeral in Trenton on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Garrison entertained Mr. and Mrs. Herb Garrison, of Bayside, on Victoria Day, it being the occasion of the fifty-seventh anniversary of the latter's wedding. This happy couple from Bayside are only eighty-two and seventy-nine years young, respectively, and we extend to them heartiest congratulations.

FULLER

The warm showers on Saturday were much appreciated and will help growth considerably.

Housecleaning and gardening seem to be general topics.

Messrs. Ben Brough, John Geen, Arthur Brough and Geoffrey Martin attended a special meeting of the Orange Order in Madoc on Thursday night.

We all regret losing Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Andrews of Madoc Junction who have been moved to Yarker C.N. R. Station. We know Yarker is gaining a great deal and we shall try and not lose them altogether, but hope to see them back with us often.

Stirling is a very special attraction just now for some of our young people. Oh well — nuff said.

The regular W.M.S. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Burke on Wednesday afternoon. Opening hymn 334 followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. Scripture lesson the 81st Psalm. Keyword "Behold". The study book was very capably given by Miss Bossie Hollinger. Hymn 379. A splendid reading was given by Mrs. Palmer, also one by Mrs. Ben Brough. After the minutes were read and adopted general business was discussed. Closing hymn "Breathe on me Breath of God". Next meeting at Mrs. Rutter's.

A number from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Ketcheson, of Moira.

Mrs. Wilbur Sherry is around again and expects to go to her home in the near future.

WORK STARTED ON THE MADOC HIGHWAY

Preliminary work for the construction of the permanent road between Foxboro and Madoc is now in full swing. Just south of Madoc and at intervals along the road, gangs of men have been laboring with drills and crowbars breaking and chipping the huge boulders and rock which lies along the line of the new widening. Post holes for the new fences are being dug, teams and scrapers are at work levelling and scraping the high knolls level with the grade and rock crushers grind and roar as they spout the crushed stone into the wagons and plume clouds of dust into the air. A considerable force of local men along the stretch of road have found employment on this construction work.

ALLAN'S MILL

Mrs. Geo. Waymark spent Tuesday the guest of Mrs. Jack Eastwood. Several from here attended the funeral of Mr. John Oddie.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stiles visited Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cotton on Sunday.

Mrs. McDonald visited her daughter, Mrs. F. M. Rutherford, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wood, of Madoc, were Sunday guests at D. Wellman's.

In this vicinity, Miss Lila Walker spent a few days. Mr. and Mrs. John McKeown were Sunday visitors at John Stewart's, at Rylstone.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Waymark spent the 24th with Mr. and Mrs. A. Burklit.

Miss Violet Reid has returned to her home.

Several from this vicinity attended the ball game between Marmora and Bonarville, in the former town, on the 24th.

Miss Gladys Burklit spent Wednesday evening with Miss Ruth Bateman.

Prodgal Son (just returning) — Father, are you going to fill the fat old cat?

Old Gentleman (looking the youth over carefully) No, I'll let you live but I'm going to give you some work that will take some of that fat off.

Where to Work

Club members will not be restricted in any way as to the locality in which they may get subscriptions, and collecting arrangement or advance payments from old subscribers earns credit as well as securing entirely new ones.

One in Every Home

So there is a subscription waiting in every home, and distance does not prevent you from getting subscriptions from relatives or friends, no matter where they reside. Under our "district" plan the harder it is to get to the prospective subscriber the more credits you receive, so club members living in thinly populated districts have an equal opportunity to win the big prize.

Here is the opportunity to crystallize the dreams of a lifetime — to realize in a few short weeks what most people could not ordinarily HOPE to accomplish without years of striving, saving and sacrifice — and all in exchange for your spare-time effort. No matter how busy you are you have spare time enough to get in and win

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Any man, woman, or child is eligible to join the club, but the management reserves the right to reject objectionable entrants.
2. No employee of this newspaper, or member of an employee's immediate family, may become a member of the club. This does not apply to carrier boys, news dealers or correspondents.
3. This club is for individuals — not organizations.
4. Winners will be decided by their credits, said credits being represented by certificates issued for subscriptions.
5. Club members may work where they please, collecting for back subscriptions and renewals as well as new subscriptions, and credits will be issued on all.
6. Cash must accompany all orders where credits are desired. Each club member is an authorized agent for this newspaper and it is distinctly understood that each member will be responsible for money and remit amounts in full to the campaign department.
7. Credits are not transferable. One member cannot withdraw in favor of another. Subscriptions cannot be transferred from one member to another, and any such transferred business will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the campaign manager.
8. Credits may be held in reserve or polled, at the discretion of the club member, up to and including the last day of the campaign; except at the discretion of the club manager.
9. In the event of a tie for any one of the prizes a prize identical in value will be awarded to each tying Club member. The prize will not be divided.
10. Any collusion on the part of club members to the detriment of other club members will not be tolerated. Any club member entering into or taking part in such combination will forfeit all right to either a prize or cash commission.
11. Professional Competition

A farmer arrived very late at a country doctor's house and requested him to come instantly to a distant farm. The doctor got out his car and drove furiously.

Upon arrival the farmer inquired: "What fee?"

"Three dollars," said the doctor, surprised. The country man paid.

"There ye are, Doc; that turned everyman wanted five."

Safety First

"Tommy," called up the stairs the harassed mother of a pickie of a son, whatever you are doing—don't do it.

In politics it isn't enough to stand on your own record; you must jump on the other fellow's.

Very, Very Safe

A certain bishop tells many amusing stories of his work among the Indians.

On one occasion he was visiting a tribe, and it was arranged that after dinner he and one of the chiefs were to go for a long ride.

"Will it be safer for me to leave my baggage here?" asked the bishop before they started.

"Yes," was the reply of the chief; "there is not a white man within forty miles."

The Upstairs Came Down

"Well, Betty, how did you like your first ride in an elevator?"

"It was lovely, Mother; we got into a little room and the upstairs came down."

It is hard to believe that the man who wrote "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," also composed "The Lost Chord" and "Onward, Christian Soldiers." He is Sir Arthur Sullivan, noted British composer.

And it was Ever Thus
A pretty girl was courted by a man of great wealth and a fellow of small means.

The former showered her with all varieties of costly gifts and feted her in sumptuous fashion. The impecunious one gave her only his devotion, for it was all he had to give. Still, devotion is a beautiful thing, even in these modern times.

So she fell in love with the poor fellow. But she married the rich one.

Dad Certainly Knows

"Dad," said little Tommy, "teacher told us that the olive branch was an emblem of peace. What is the emblem of war?"

"Orange blossoms!" came the weary reply.

There's the one about the man who died and left a million dollars to the widow of the Unknown Soldier.

Just Some More Static

"You know, Pat," said the Scot, "some time ago we dug the ruins of a 14th century castle in Scotland and found a lot of wire. This proves that telegraphs and telephones were used in Scotland already in the 14th century."

"Well," answered Pat, "in Ireland we made a more wonderful discovery. We dug up a prehistoric dwelling and found no wire at all. That proves that our Irish ancestors in prehistoric times used wireless."

Whole Bird

Diner — Waiter, just look at that piece of chicken; it's nothing but skin and bones.

Waiter — Yes, sir; d'you want the feathers, too?

No man ever bows to fate as a matter of courtesy.

Came Back Again

A commercial traveller away from home for long periods at a time, saw very little of his child, aged four, and returning home one morning very early, he stayed in the sitting room reading a newspaper before the family got up.

Presently his little daughter came in. She looked at her father for a few moments, and then shouted: "Mamma, mamma, come here quick. That man's here again."

And Before 11 O'Clock

An Ontario editor, touring in Scotland, tells of seeing this sign on a movie theatre:

"All Persons Over 80 Admitted Free If accompanied by their Parents."

She Should

Judge—Do you know the meaning of an oath, madam?

Witness proudly — Your Honor! An' me husband shippin' before the mast these 15 years!

A Very Good Friday

Teacher—Now, George, you may tell me something of Good Friday. Junior—Yes marm. He was the fellow who did the housework for Robinson Crusoe.

Had Another Calling

She was an attractive young widow from Toronto. Sauntering out on the veranda of her hotel, she seated herself next to a handsome young man.

She coughed slightly, but the stranger ignored her. She shot him a flirtatious glance that proved plainly she wanted to get acquainted, but he gave no answering sign.

Finally a piece of dainty linen was wafted to the ground at his feet.

Oh, I've dropped my handkerchief," she murmured softly.

The handsome youth turned a cold and unresponsive eye upon her.

"Madam," he said, "my weakness is liquor."

"Say, pa, what's the difference between an optimist?"

"An optimist, Johnny, thinks the times are ripe, and a pessimist thinks they're rotten."

For the Month of May

A linen shower is sure to be appreciated by a bride-to-be. Linen is something she has to have, and from a linen shower she gets a lot of extra, usable, beautiful articles she might not be able to have otherwise.

The Hope Chest

If a girl planning to be married has not already started a hope chest, now is the time to do it.

Here is a general list of what is most necessary to have:

3 linen table cloths (round or oblong as you have planned your table). 2 of them medium sized—6 napkins to match each. 1 of the table cloths large for extra company. 12 napkins to match.

2 luncheon cloths, 6 napkins to match each.

2 dolly luncheon sets (1 Madeira, 1 Italian cut work or filet).

2 plain, serviceable dolly sets.

2 embroidery centre pieces.

4 bureau scarfs.

26 kitchen towels (6 for glasses 15 for dishes, 5 for handy).

4 dish cloths.

9 sheets.

7 pairs of pillow cases.

2 comforters.

2 pairs of woolen blankets.

2 quilts.

1 bath room rug.

14 wash rugs.

31 towels (10 bath, 15 plain linen or cotton, 6 linen for guests).

Make as many things as possible. Watch sales. Use what you have as far as possible. For instance—dandy dish rags can be made from centre of old vests, doubled and buttoned.

COOKING HINTS

1 cup flour

Salt.

1 level teaspoon baking powder.

1 cup stoned cherries.

1-3 cup milk.

Method: Put in small greased molds. Steam 10 minutes. Make a syrup. Use remaining juice and cherries cut up. 3 tablespoons of sugar. Add a little salt. Boil 10 minutes.

Apricot Bavarian Cream

1 level tablespoon granulated gelatin.

1 cup syrup drained from canned apricots.

2 egg yolks.

1 lemon — juice and grated rind.

½ cup of sugar.

1 cup sliced apricots.

2 egg whites.

Cup or bottle whipped cream.

Method: Cook in double boiler—gelatin, syrup, egg yolks, lemon and sugar. Stir constantly until thickened.

Strain and add apricots. Cool slightly. When it starts to stiffen, add egg whites beaten stiff and cream whipped stiff, if desired. Mold and chill.

Serve with whipped cream and pieces of apricots for decorations.

BAKING HINTS

Butter Cake With Strawberry Sauce

1-3 cup of shortening.

1 cup of sugar.

1 egg.

1 cup milk.

1½ cups flour.

Salt.

4 teaspoons baking powder.

Vanilla.

Method: Cream shortening and sugar. Add beaten egg. Then ½ milk and ½ flour with salt and baking powder. Then add remainder of milk flour and flavoring. Beat well. Bake in a shallow pan in a hot oven 20 minutes.

Serve hot—cut in squares with strawberry sauce topped with whipped cream.

Strawberry Sauce

2 cups of strawberries, washed and hulled.

¾ cup of sugar.

Let stand with sugar for some time. Crush or leave whole, according to taste.

BRITAIN WILL PAY WAR DEBT TO U. S.

London—Without prejudice to any future war debt readjustment, the British Government instructed its ambassador at Washington to sign an agreement with the United States in ten yearly instalments, plus four per cent. interest. This action was in conformity with the recent request which the United States sent to its debtor nations asking for a formal agreement to cover the sum suspended during the debt holiday.

ONLY WOMAN CLERK

Miss Mary Maher, treasurer of the town of Deseronto, Ontario, has tendered her resignation to the Mayor and members of Council. Miss Maher was appointed treasurer on the resignation of former Police Magistrate Bedford, about six months ago. She is also the clerk for the Corporation and will continue in that position. She is the only woman clerk in the province, as far as can be learned.

CATTLE PURCHASER HONORABLY ACQUIRED AFTER HEARING

W. A. Fanning, of Lindsay, was honorably discharged when he appeared before Magistrate Casement of Madoc charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses, to wit, by means of a worthless cheque. The complainant was Robert Woods, from whom Fanning is alleged to have bought some cattle and tendered in payment a cheque on the Dominion Bank of Lindsay. R. I. Moore, of Lindsay, appeared for Mr. Fanning.

According to the evidence given by the accused, he was to have been given certain credit by the Dominion Bank at Lindsay, and, on those creditals, Mr. Fanning proceeded to buy cattle and tender cheques in payment. Between the time of issuing the cheques and the date on which they arrived in Lindsay for collection the bank manager at Lindsay, it is understood, received word from head office to the effect that credit was not to be extended. The cheques, it was declared, were not accepted when presented, and consequently a number of them were out in the vicinity of Madoc.

Mr. Fanning went to the bank and arranged for his credit, and later the cheques were all honored, but the charge had been laid before the second arrangement had been made.

After Mr. Fanning had given his evidence, B. C. Donnan, Crown Attorney, suggested to His Worship that the charges be withdrawn, as Mr. Fanning had acted in a fair and honorable manner in all his transactions, and was in no way to blame for the inconvenience caused to those to whom he had issued cheques in payment for cattle. The charge against Mr. Fanning was dismissed, no costs being assessed against him.

A TEST FOR DRIVERS

Here are a few questions submitted to drivers by one of the insurance companies which may well be taken to heart by all of those who operate motor vehicles on the streets and the highways of the country:

1. Do you keep your mind on your driving?
 2. Do you keep in line of traffic?
 3. Do you watch the movements of other cars and try to anticipate what they will do?
 4. Do you watch for pedestrians, particularly children?
 5. Do you slow down at schools crossings and dangerous intersections?
 6. Do you signal to the car behind when you intend to change your course?
 7. Do you know the feeling of having your car under control?
 8. Do you keep in line when nearing top of hill or a sharp turn?
 9. Do you comply with traffic regulations, signals and signs.
 10. Do you have your car, brakes especially, inspected regularly?
- If every driver could be persuaded to follow these simple rules when passing over the roads, there can be no doubt that there would be a marked lessening of the number of accidents, in many cases fatal ones.

OBSERVE 146TH ANNIVERSARY

On Sunday descendants of the Loyalist Mohawk Indians who came to the Bay of Quinte district from the Mohawk Valley 146 years ago, observed that event in Christ Church, Tyendinaga. Canon A. H. Creagan, of Gananoque, preached and Rev. A. L. Green, Belleville, assisted in the service. Portions of the service were given in the Mohawk dialect, and were conducted by Chief Solomon J. Brant of the Bay of Quinte Reserve a descendant of Captain Joseph Brant whose Indian name was "Thayendeneague". Brant's grandfather was Abraham Brant, interpreter for the churches for many years, and was also one of the first members of the Mohawk Orange Lodge, 99, Chief Solomon Brant can speak English and Mohawk. Chief Brant also recited the prayers in the Mohawk dialect. The hymns were sung in Mohawk.

The non-jury sittings of the Supreme Court, are being held in Belleville this week.

BANK OF MONTREAL REPORTS CONDITION OF MARKED STRENGTH

The semi-annual statement of the Bank of Montreal, as of April 30th, makes a very strong exhibit. The outstanding features are represented by an increase in the holdings of gilt-edged securities, a gain in liquid assets to an amount equal to 57.43 per cent. of liabilities to the public—evidence that the bank is in a position to meet any increase in the requirements of its many customers.

The statement, in easily understandable form, appears elsewhere in this issue and affords an opportunity of obtaining a comprehensive view of the Bank's strong position.

Total assets are reported at $748,612,481, compared with $786,897,706 a year ago. Of this amount quickly available, or liquid, assets are $385,483,225. Included among these liquid assets is cash in vaults and in Central Gold Reserve amounting to $78,491,119 equal to 11.97 per cent. of public liabilities.

Increase in Bond Holdings

The most important change in liquid assets is represented by an increase in government and other bonds and debentures to a total of $228,901,146. These are recognized as gilt-edged securities, the greater portion of which mature at early dates. Included among them are Dominion and Provincial Government securities of a value of $174,730,246, up from $149,229,626 a year ago. Call loans outside of Canada are $20,262,324 and are secured by bonds, stocks, and other negotiable securities of greater value than the loans and represent moneys quickly available without any disturbing effects on conditions in Canada.

Call loans in Canada secured by bonds and stocks of greater value at current quotations than the loans stand at $5,645,610, as compared with $11,347,487 at the same date last year.

The total of current loans made to manufacturers, farmers, merchants and others, is reported at $336,572,388.

Total assets of $748,612,481 are available to meet payment of liabilities to the public of $672,210,882, which leaves an excess of assets over these liabilities of $76,401,599.

Profit and Loss Account
The profits for the six months amounted to $2,589,292.70 as compared with $2,711,753.71 for the corresponding period last year. The profits were distributed as follows: dividends, $2,160,000.00; provision for taxes Dominion Government $228,316.28; and reservation for bank premises, $100,000.00, leaving a balance of $100,936.42. This when added to the balance carried forward at the end of the fiscal year brought the total at the credit of profit and loss to $1,204,403.37.

UP ON MOONSHINE LIQUOR CHARGE

Walter Boyce, of Hungerford appeared before Magistrate Casement in the County Police Court, Belleville, on Monday afternoon on a charge of having moonshine liquor in his possession at the village of Madoc on Sunday last. The accused man was apprehended by Provincial Constable Hill, of Madoc, who gave evidence against the defendant Boyce at the hearing. After all the evidence had been submitted in the case His Worship found the accused guilty and remanded him, in custody, for one week awaiting sentence. Mr. B. C. Donnan, Crown Attorney, appeared for the prosecution.

SHOULD WOMAN TELL HER PAST BEFORE MARRIAGE?

To tell or not to tell—that's the question!

Should a woman with a "past" tell her prospective husband the events of her unconventional life and risk her future happiness? Should the man be equally candid with the woman he loves?

This agonizing question—this conflict between truth and fear has wrung the hearts of many women. To-day, as in the past, it is a vital terrorizing question, boring into the consciousness of thousands of women.

"My Sin", to be shown at the Stirling Theatre Friday night, and Saturday matinee and evening, has this burning question as its theme. Tullulah Bankhead, vivid, vital and palpatingly emotional, depicts the woman's side, and Frederick March, one of Broadway's greatest artists, the man's side of this highly dramatic human dilemma. With them, in their character parts, this burning question is finally settled.

These two superb artists, aided by a talented supporting cast, throw into the story of "My Sin" their masterful dramatic talents.

Too Much ACID

MANY people, two hours after eating, suffer indigestion—as they call it. It is usually excess acid. Correct it with an alkali. The best way, the quick, harmless and efficient way, is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained for 50 years the standard with physicians. One spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in stomach acids, and at once. The symptoms disappear in five minutes.

You will never use crude methods when you know this better method. And you will never suffer from excess acid when you prove out this easy relief.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 50¢ a bottle—any drug store.

The ideal dentifrice for clean teeth and healthy gums is Phillips' Dental Magnesia tooth-paste.

Special News For Farmers

Prof. J. Eaton Howitt, head of the Botany Department, O. A. C., has prepared a booklet which delves thoroughly into the various types of weeds found in Ontario. It is well illustrated and gives a vast amount of information.

Trap the Borer

The suggestion has been advanced that a trap crop of corn consisting of about half a dozen rows of early sown rapid growing corn, if put in as early as the ground is fit, will in most years lessen the amount of injury done the main crop by corn borer, if the main crop is sown a few days later than the ideal date. The trap crop should be cut low about the end of the first week, in August, when all borer eggs have been laid and should be removed and fed to livestock.

A greatly increased demand for fertilizers for the 1932 crop season is reported, much of the business being done on a credit sales basis. Thus it is apparent that the Department's policy of promoting the use of fertilizers is bearing fruit. The use of fertilizers in farming has passed the experimental stage in Ontario and thousands of farmers are finding them a practical aid in reducing the cost of production through increasing soil efficiency. When used judiciously they increase yield and improve quality of crops, adding materially to the cash value of production from a given area. It has become increasingly important today for a fair measure of success that the farmer make every possible opportunity to lower his costs of production. The right use of fertilizers suited to particular crops provides one important opportunity.

Reducing Crop Costs

The ever present problem with the farmer is how to reduce crop costs. This can be done in two obvious ways: first, producing more at the same costs; and second, producing the same at a lower cost.

Perhaps the most important method of reducing the cost of producing crops is to increase the yield. Most of the items incurred in the cost of producing crops are the same whether the crop is large or small so that every effort should be made to produce large yields by the adoption of all better farming practices.

Another method of reducing the cost of production is the use of larger machinery and more labour-saving equipment. Considerable improvement has been made in recent years in the introduction of larger and better machinery, making possible the elimination of considerable manual labour. Where the farm is large enough to warrant the purchase of such machinery, this method constitutes an effective means of reducing costs. The substitution of more profitable for less profitable crops is another advantage which may be derived from the cost of production studies.

Poultry — A Farm Asset

Official records show that the poultry population of Canada has doubled each ten years during the period of the past thirty years. Each succeeding period of low prices for farm products finds the poultry flock coming to the farmer's rescue. At the present time it can easily be shown that the poultry flock properly bred, housed, and looked after is, from the standpoint of capital investment and feed cost, one of the best paying lines of farm effort. Each succeeding year appears to make it more clear that the farm is the logical place for the development of the poultry industry, with respect to egg and meat production. The farm flock is a useful medium for the marketing of otherwise unsaleable products in the form of eggs and poultry meat. Bank and loan companies find the farm which has a poultry flock a much better risk than the one which has none.

Finishing Beef Steers

Much of the value in marketing beef cattle is lost when they lack proper finish. George W. Muir, B.S.A., Dominion Animal Husbandman, offers the following suggestions for finishing beef steers.

The purpose of reducing the succulent part of the ration towards the last of the finishing period is to harden up the flesh with the idea of preventing shrink in transit. This can be further aided by cutting out the succulent feed entirely just before shipment and allowing the animals to fill up on dry hay, grass hay being preferable to clover in this case. The grain ration may be maintained to the last provided it is not too laxative a nature. Cutting out this last, just previous to shipment, will also help, the dry hay being sufficient to cause the animals to drink plenty of water.

The appearance of the animals counts considerably when selling both in the feed lot and on the market. They should be clean and trim as it is possible to have them. Grading them in uniform lots, as to size and finish, will also help greatly in realizing a higher price.

Weed Control

Careful and thorough cultivation, a short rotation of crops using varieties of grain suitable to the soil will solve the weed problem, stated Arthur H. Martin, assistant director, Crops and Markets Branch, in a recent address to weed inspectors. Mr. Martin recommended more extensive use of early after-harvest cultivation and summer fallow as a means of cleaning up weedy fields. Practical farmers have found that sow thistle and similar perennial weeds can be controlled by cutting hay earlier than usual, plowing the land immediately afterwards, and follow up with thorough cultivating during the remaining part of the season. Fall wheat, buckwheat, rape and all hoed crops are effective in controlling the sow thistle. The latter gets its greatest start in oats and other spring grains.

As a protection to productive farm land, road superintendents and city, town and village weed inspectors are urged to keep all weeds cut on roadsides, vacant lots and other urban property. Valuable work in stimulating interest in weed control is being done by Mr. A. R. G. Smith of New Hamburg, district weed inspector of Western Ontario, who has addressed numerous meetings this spring.

Agricultural Limestone

Agricultural limestone, because of its relatively low cost, is oftentimes overlooked in the well planned soils program of the up-to-date farmer. In those sections and regions of the province where acid or sour soils are found, and where difficulty is experienced in obtaining stands of alfalfa and red clover, limestone may be used to good advantage in correcting this condition and as a consequence not only making more available the inherent supply of plant food in the soil but in addition providing a more satisfactory medium in which the purchased plant foods in commercial fertilizers may act. It improves the physical condition of many heavy soils. Worked into the top layers of the soil it helps prevent that sticky, plastic condition found in wet seasons. It aids drainage. It also produces a condition in which important forms of bacteria do their work most efficiently.

The time to apply limestone is when it is most convenient to do so. It is applied usually in the late fall or early spring on land that is to be sown to spring grain and seeded down. Very often applications are made to meadows and pastures. It is not advisable to apply limestone to land that is to be plowed shortly afterwards.

From one to two tons per acre, depending on the acidity of the soil and the degree of fineness of the limestone, should be applied. This may be done by spreading with a shovel or by use of a limestone spreader. The latter method is of course more efficient than the former. Inexpensive spreaders are obtainable and they lighten the work in connection with the actual operation of application.

MRS. PUTNAM'S FLIGHT THOUGHT NEW RECORD

Paris, France — Airmen here on Thursday estimated that Mrs. Amelia Earhart Putnam had broken the world's non-stop distance flying record for women in her flight from Newfoundland to Londonderry, Ireland. They said her flight outdistanced by 180 miles the record of Mme. Maryse Bastie, French woman flyer, who flew 1,800 miles without a stop in June, 1931. The record will not become official however, until it has been passed upon by the International Federation here.

RYLSTONE

Ray Barnum has returned to Toronto after spending the past two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barnum.

The Rylstone Women's Missionary Society held their May meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Mumby on Wednesday evening. The meeting opened with the singing of the Doxology and prayer by Mrs. S. G. Melkio, president. Hymn "Jesus Keep me Near the Cross," was sung and the Scripture reading, Matthew, 12th chapter. The minutes of the April meeting were then read and adopted. A special meeting will be held to plan a quilting to be held in June. Hymn "Jesus Stand Among Us" was sung and a reading "Japanese Girls in Training" given by Mrs. Lily Anderson, followed by sentence prayers by the members. A reading "Where to be particular" was given by Mrs. John S. McKeown. Hymn 278 "I can Hear My Saviour Calling" was then sung and Mrs. Alex Green gave a reading "Giving the best to God." The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Will Allan. Program Committee—Mrs. Malcolm Totten, Mrs. Harold Barnum and Mrs. Robert Mumby. Keyword "Quiet".

Mr. F. M. Rutherford motored to Moose Creek on Tuesday and attended the sale of Ayrshire cattle at the home of Mr. Melvin Begg. Mr. Rutherford was accompanied by Mr. E. McCook, Campbellford, Mr. Rutherford's daughter, Pauline, and his sister, Mrs. H. T. Scott, who went as far as Kingston with him.

While Tom McKeown was watering his horses one day last week a colt struck him on the leg, knocking him down. He was fortunate in escaping with a few bruises around the ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Husband, of Campbellford, spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Spencer.

Visitors of Mrs. F. M. Rutherford on Sunday were Mrs. Beecher Mac-

Donald and Olga, Mrs. Jane MacDonald and Mrs. Wilbert Campbell and son and daughter, all of Dartford.

Vivian Melkiojohn is on the sick list.

The annual Institute Convention for North Hastings will be held at Ivanhoe on Wednesday, June 8th.

Church service at Rylstone will be at 7:30 p.m. this Sunday.

CANADA ENVIED OF ALL NATIONS

London, England—"What utter nonsense", is the crisp editorial comment of the Daily Express referring to rumors circulated in London that Canada was on the verge of insolvency.

The rumors were prompted, the editorial says, by publication here of despatches reporting Premier R. B. Bennett's announcement in the House of Commons that his Government had under consideration a bill granting the cabinet "extraordinary powers" to deal with any financial or economic crisis which may arise. "Canada is the most envied of all nations," the editorial continues.

ACCIDENTS AND COMPENSATION

The strength of a bank is determined by its history, its policy, its management and the extent of its resources. For 114 years the Bank of Montreal has been in the forefront of Canadian finance.

General News of Interest

Mr. G. A. Kingston, proprietor of the Campbellford Herald, has been appointed secretary of the Seymour Agricultural Society, to succeed the late J. N. Stone.

The annual meeting of the Hastings and Prince Edward Counties Medical Society was held in Belleville on Wednesday evening, May 11. The annual election of officers was held and Dr. E. A. McQuade of Trenton was chosen president. Dr. A. G. Calder, of Frankford, was made secretary-treasurer.

Tweed News—Mr. W. E. Spackman, local manager of the Bank of Montreal, has been granted one month's leave of absence from his duties. Mr. and Mrs. Spackman are visiting with friends in western Ontario this week, following which they will return home. Mr. Spackman has not been in the best of health within the last few weeks and will take a short rest after his return to Tweed. Mr. Leonard Kelly, accountant, is acting manager at this time.

The Twelfth of July will be celebrated in Frankford this year, when it is expected that lodges from Hastings, Prince Edward and Northumberland will take part in the "walk".

Campbellford—More fish fry were added to the waters of the Trent last week when 130,000 trout fry were released in the creeks south of town. These were on application of Gerald West, Charles Nadoo and J. M. Ferris.

Mr. A. N. Fellows of Toronto district, engineer of municipal roads made his annual visit to the Township of Seymour, Wednesday, last week, and with the Township council inspected all roads in Seymour.

Mr. George Stokes, County Sheriff, has purchased the home formerly owned by the late Mrs. H. F. Forward, on George Street, Belleville. Mr. Stokes, who is still residing on his farm in Hungerford, does not plan to move to Belleville for some time yet, however.

Work which will take about fifty of Campbellford's unemployed is expected to start within the next two weeks on the Campbellford-Brighton Highway with the announcement that the Raynor Construction Company will commence crushing stone in the pits near Meyersburg. The Raynor Construction Company will finish up its contract on the road between Havelock and Norwood.

Marmora Herald—The Routley Construction Co. are crushing rock at the Ontario Department of Highways quarry at Harold to place on No. 14 Highway between Stirling and Foxboro. The Highway officials have become convinced that gravel will not give a satisfactory road in fall and spring and so crushed rock is to be put on it.

Members of the Official Boards of each of the district's United Churches went to Madoc on Tuesday, last week to attend the Presbytery meeting. At this meeting the Presbytery several changes in district pastorates took place—Rev. Mr. Butler, of White's Church, Bayside, receiving his superannuation. Mr. Butler thus completes forty-two years of active church service and will be replaced by Rev. Mr. Plant of the Hollowell Circuit, Prince Edward County. Rev. G. A. Ross of Trenton, was kept on superannuation owing to ill health for another year. Dr. C. S. Redick, of Bloomfield, will exchange with Rev. Mr. Blanchard of Omemo. The recommendation that Dr. Richard Roberts, of Shelburne Street Church, Toronto, be the next Moderator at the General Assembly which will be held in Hamilton this year, was carried unanimously.

London, Ont. — In a signed statement from Scribe 6087, described as a member of the Klan executive, dated at London, absolute denial is given that Mitchell F. Hepburn, Leader of the Ontario Liberal Party, was ever a member of the Ku Klux Klan of Canada. The statement contradicts a speech given at Belleville recently attributed to John G. Hotherhall, of London, self styled organizer for the Klan. According to Scribe 6087, Hotherhall is not a Klan member at present, having been suspended some years ago. Denial is also given that Mr. Hepburn relied on the Klan for political support in the last election.

Culmore, Ireland—Amelia Earhart Putnam, the first woman ever to fly the Atlantic alone, landed here Saturday afternoon. Culmore is five miles from Londonderry. She said she had trouble with her exhaust manifold for about ten hours, and for a lot of the way she was flying through storms, mist, rain and a little fog. She had to land in a pasture, because of the trouble, but her plane was undamaged. She made the trip from Harbour Grace, Newfoundland, in a little over 15 hours.

Perth — Considerable anxiety is felt over the whereabouts of an 18-year-old girl, member of a well-known Perth family, who has been missing from her home for the past 13 days. Her disappearance has been reported to the Perth police. The missing girl is described as of medium build, fair with blue eyes, and fair wavy hair. When last seen she was wearing a blue flowered silk dress, black spring coat and black shoes. She was not wearing a hat when she left home.

Valleyfield—Damage estimated at $23,000 was caused and 50 men were forced to flee from their sleeping quarters on Friday, by fire at St. Louise de Gonzague. The blaze swept through the sleeping quarters in a wooden building, destroying several outbuildings and a barn before it was checked. The men, employed by the Beauharnois Construction Company fought the fire until firemen arrived. With some difficulty the flames were prevented from spreading to other sleeping quarters. Cause of the blaze is unknown.

PATRONS' ASSOCIATION WILL MEET ON MAY 31

Campbellford—Postponed from last April when road conditions made it impossible, the first district meeting of the Central Ontario Cheese Factory Patrons' Association will be held on May 31 in the Public Library, Campbellford. It is expected that special speakers will be featured at this gathering. This association was formed by factory patrons to enable them to advance the interests of milk producers connected with cheese factories and to try and improve the quality of the raw material supplied to the factories and has jurisdiction over Victoria, Durham, Peterborough, Northumberland, Hastings, Prince Edward, Lennox and Addington and Frontenac Counties. Fred W. Barnum is the director in charge of the Campbellford district.

ASK FOR TENDERS FOR MADOC ROAD

The Roads Committee of the Hastings County Council met at Shire Hall last week for the purpose of opening and considering tenders for the construction of a section of roadway on the Foxboro-Madoc road, north of Foxboro. From four to six miles of new roadway are to be built immediately; part of which will be paved and the balance gravel. The committee is composed of the following: Messrs James A. Moore, reeve of Elizavir, chairman; W. A. Morton, reeve of Huntingdon; Henry Larkin, reeve of Tyendinaga; Ernest Brown, reeve of Rawdon; R. M. Mitchell, reeve of Thurlow and Warden of the county; J. A. Gunter, reeve of Bancroft. The name of the successful bidder for the work will be announced shortly.

OFFICERS ELECTED FOR SEYMOUR W. I.

Campbellford — The annual meeting of the Seymour West Women's Institute as held on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Robert McCullough and was featured by the election of officers for the current year. The meeting was also notified of the district meeting which has been scheduled for May 30 in the Warkworth Town Hall and at which the government speaker will be Mrs. Percival. This will be an open meeting and all are urged to attend.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Howard Clark; 1st vice-president, Mrs. Rog-McCallough; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. James Clark; 3rd vice-president, Mrs. Ernest Fairman; secretary-treasurer, Miss Mary E. McArthur; district director, Mrs. Howard Clark.

Board of Directors—Seymour W. Mrs. Harry McKevie; Connelly's Mrs. Douglas Rutherford; Fleming's Mrs. Ed. McConnell; Trent River Mrs. George VanVolkenburg.

District representatives (to attend the district annual conference, to be held at Coderington, on May 31): Mrs. H. Clark, Miss Mary McArthur, Mrs. James Watters, Mrs. Robert McCulloch, Miss Reta Longmuir.

Home and School Committee — Mrs. James Clark, Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. Allan Lewis, Mrs. Gordon Shearer. Auditors: Miss Ray McCullough and Mrs. Douglas Rutherford.

COL. CHAS LINDBERGH IS BROKE SEARCH FOR CHILD COST $200,000

New York—The Brooklyn Eagle has stated that it had learned from a source close to the heads of the Lindbergh kidnapping investigation that a week before the body of his baby was found, Colonel Chas. A. Lindbergh told an intermediary who visited him that he was broke. At the same time, The Eagle said, Col. Lindbergh said that the search for his kidnapped child had cost him personally about $200,000 and that he had to borrow from a bank $25,000 of the ransom money paid to the supposed kidnappers by Dr. John F. Condon, Bronx mediator and the Jaffee of the newspaper advertisements. The Eagle said it had learned that whatever fortune the flyer had was invested in aviation securities in his enthusiasm for the advancement of aviation, and the paper pointed out that these securities have undergone considerable devaluation.

MRS. NICOLSON CELEBRATES 81ST BIRTHDAY

On Friday evening, May 6th, a very enjoyable time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Nicolson, 4th of Sidney, it being the occasion of Mrs. Nicolson's 81st birthday.

A complete surprise to Mrs. Nicolson and although carried on in a quiet form, on account of Mrs. Nicolson's recent illness, everyone enjoyed themselves.

A programme of songs, recitations and readings were enjoyed. An address was read by Mrs. Ezra Nicolson and Mrs. Nicolson was presented with an electric plate. Several other gifts were made, and a birthday card shower from the Ladies' Aid was very much appreciated by Mrs. Nicolson.

Lunch was served in a very dainty manner, and the family departed for their different homes, all hoping to be able to repeat the pleasant time on the 6th day of May, 1933, and many years thereafter.

Considerable Anatomy

A Grammar school student's definition of anatomy:

"Anatomy is the human body, which consists of three parts—the head, the chest, and the stummick."

"The head contains the eyes and brains, if any."

"The chest contains the lungs and a piece of liver."

"The stummick is devoted to the bowels, of which there are five—a, e, i, o, u, and sometimes w and y."

ADVANCED FEATURES...YES!

But Chevrolet Also Gives You

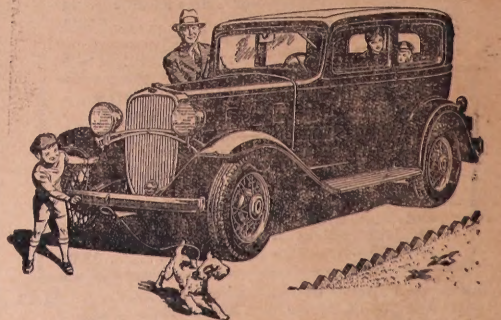

PROVED DESIGN

OF course, you want the new advancements in the car you buy today—easy gear-shifting—free wheeling—smoother, more powerful performance—better riding qualities! And you get them all in the Chevrolet Six—plus proved design. That is why the Chevrolet type of "economical transportation" is so much more enjoyable and satisfying.

Chevrolet is the lowest-priced car on the market combining Silent Syncro-Mesh Shifting with Free Wheeling! Chevrolet gives you easy-going speed, and more power for acceleration, when you need it most. The Chevrolet engine is mounted on thick rubber blocks, utilizing the most modern method of preventing vibration of body, fenders and doors! Only the Chevrolet Six in the low price field offers you the extra roominess and style of body by Fisher! The sturdy foundation of Chevrolet riding comfort is a long, strong frame with four modern, lengthwise-mounted springs and four Lovejoy shock absorbers!

And Chevrolet's balanced six-cylinder design—as well as every other vital part of the car—has been proved reliable by more than 2,000,000 owners, in billions of miles of service! Chevrolet long ago pioneered the six-cylinder engine in the low price field because this type of power plant strikes a perfect balance of smoothness and economy.

Nothing less than six cylinders can give multi-cylinder smoothness—anything more than a Six would mean a sacrifice of economy. It is a fact that the Chevrolet Six costs less for gasoline, oil and upkeep than any other full-size car! It costs less to own, too—at its new, reduced prices. Your present car will probably take care of the down payment, and you can pay the balance in easy instalments over a period of months. C21-24

CHILD need REGULATING?

CASTORIA WILL DO IT!

When your child needs regulating, remember this: the organs of babies and children are delicate. Little bowels must be gently urged—never forced. That's why Castoria is used by so many doctors and mothers. It is especially made for children's ailments; contains no harsh, harmful drugs, no narcotics. You can safely give it to young infants for colic pains. Yet it is an equally effective regulator for older children. The next time your child has a little cold or fever, or a digestive upset, give him the help of Castoria, the children's own remedy. Genuine Castoria always has the name:

"We can thank Long Distance for that cheque"

Old man Carrington was selling his farm and there were two fine teams for quick sale. Bill Smart didn't need them but he thought of a man he knew in the cartage business in town.

Bill called his man by Long Distance telephone that night and arranged to buy both teams for him next day on commission.

A few days later he had a nice cheque in the mail — and his telephone call cost him only 30 cents.

ST. PAUL'S Y. P. S.

The regular meeting of St. Paul's Y.P.S. was held on Monday evening with an attendance of 100. The president, Mr. Harry Hulla, presided over the devotional and song period. Ruby Stapley read the Scripture lesson, 22nd chapter of Proverbs. Mr. Wm. Fitchett led in prayer. Maurice Bell, 4th vice-president, was in charge of the remaining program. Pansy Lansing gave a very interesting reading entitled "Bushel for Bushel". Kenneth Stapley and Russell Pitman delighted the audience with a banjo duet entitled "Flower Queen". The outstanding feature of the evening was a very timely address given by Rev. E. W. Rowland to the young people. Opening the address the speaker asked several questions:—"What am I doing with my life?" "What contribution am I to this age?" "Pinnacle always means interest. It is so in life, in church, in school, in your companions, in your play. One of the principles we should urge is to visualize our experience and so focus our thoughts and purposes that we will be able to hew them out in all round character. Happiness is the great purpose of man's seeking. What constitutes happiness and enjoyment? Happiness is involved in any achievement, and comes from concentrated hard work. In this venture of life we must decide where we are going to serve. There must come the urge to decide upon this goal. In closing Rev. E. W. Rowland urged the youth to be the very best citizen—learn that achievement and success in life will come to you if you are prepared to pay the price.

Lloyd Rowland put on a Civic contest, Red and Blue sides gaining equal honours.

The Mizpah Benediction closed this very interesting meeting.

NEW ZEALAND PACT IS NOW EFFECTIVE

Ottawa—The Canada-New Zealand trade agreement came into effect on Tuesday. By a proclamation issued in Canada and simultaneous action in New Zealand, the pact between the sister Dominions of the British Empire was declared to come into operation on Empire Day.

THE LATE PAUL KINGSTON

The death occurred on the old Kingston homestead in the 4th concession of Rawdon, on Tuesday evening, May 24th, of Paul Kingston, eldest son and last survivor of the family of the late William Kingston and Hester Gay, both of whom were natives of Ireland, who settled in Rawdon township nearly a hundred years ago.

The subject of this sketch was born on the farm on which he died, on May 29th, 1840, and spent his whole life in the vicinity of his birthplace. Being the eldest son of a family of eight children, deceased encountered many of the hardships of pioneer life. He assisted in the work of clearing up the land when oxen were used instead of horses and when the harvests were gathered from a few clearings in the forest. In young manhood it was his custom to spend the winter months in the shanty, earning a small wage to assist in making a payment on his farm. Despite the meagre advantages provided for education and the little time at his disposal for taking advantage of what was offered, Mr. Kingston attained what was considered in his day a good practical education. He devoted his entire life to farming and was considered one of the most prosperous farmers in his native township. In early life he married Harriet Hagerman, the union being blessed with three sons and two daughters, Wilmot, of Bronte; Halton County; George, of Belleville; Albert on the homestead; Mrs. Ed. Reid, of Rawdon; and Mrs. Peters, of Saskatchewan, all of whom survive.

The late Paul Kingston served for twelve years on the Rawdon council as councillor, deputy-reeve and reeve.

IN MEMORIAM

DRACUP—In loving memory of Fred Dracup, sadly missed this one year, by wife and little daughter. Sometimes at sea, we seem to be—No loving hand to guide. And then, my dear, we surely hear Your step close by our side. With tender smile you bide awhile, Our hearts will not divide. Oh, help us Fred, each step we tread Dear God and you abide. 39-1p

He was for many years president of Kingston cheese factory. He was for over 70 years a member of the Orange order and was also a member of the Black Preceptory. In religion he was a Methodist, going with his church into union in 1925. Despite his advanced age, deceased retained all his faculties to a wonderful degree and was able to converse with his friends intelligently just previous to his death as in his younger days. Death was due to a stroke of paralysis. On retiring from the farm about twenty years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Kingston went to Stirling to reside but on the death of his wife he spent some years with his daughter, Mrs. Reid. For some time previous to his death he had been living with his son, Albert, on the homestead where nearly 92 years ago he was born.

The funeral was held this afternoon, interment being made at Luke's cemetery, West Huntingdon.

VIOLATING P. O. REGULATIONS

Numerous instances of the irregular use of mail boxes on rural routes, have been brought to the attention of the Post Office Department recently. These consist of the placing of circulars and other matter in these boxes by persons other than the courier. Postmasters have therefore been instructed to warn the public of the seriousness of this offence and to instruct the public that no persons are to have access to these mail boxes except those authorized—that is couriers and the owners of the boxes. Any matter placed in rural mail boxes intended for the owner must first have the proper amount of postage thereon. Couriers are instructed to collect all matter found in these mail receptacles and bring same to their post office. It follows that parties having deposited mail matter irregularly (circulars, etc.) have not only gone to a lot of trouble in vain, but have left themselves liable to penalties that the Federal Department may see fit to impose. It might also be added that the department is very jealous in respect to its rights in this respect, and is very stern in its dealings with those who transgress them. For the first offence on every piece of matter irregularly deposited the offender is compelled to pay 2 cents and thereafter heavier imposts are collected.

MARMORA BRUINS DEFEAT BONARLAW

At Bonarlaw on Friday night the Marmora Bruins won, 31-18, against the Bonarlaw Tigers in the first exhibition game of softball of the season. The manager of the Bonarlaw team, William Prest, and the captain, W. J. Barlow, both expressed satisfaction, however, with the game as they had a number of new men who have not before played on this team, and considering that at the end of the fifth innings the local boys were leading the visitors by one run they are well pleased.

The Bruins were too speedy for them, however, in the last two innings. J. Cronkright was on the mound for the entire seven innings and pitched a good game as did Gerald Bristol for the Tigers. G. Thompson made a home run for the visitors in the sixth and Roy Neal for the home team in the second innings.

The line-up was as follows: Bonarlaw Tigers—G. Bristol, P. Wm. Prest, c; C. O. Reid, 1b; Clarence Wellman, 2b; Charles Wellman, 3b; Barrons, ss; C. Nobes, r.f.; David Wellman, l.f.; W. J. Barlow and Roy Neal, c.f.

Marmora Bruins—J. Cronkright, P.; G. Thompson, c; G. Hewitt, 1b; T. Davis, 2b; H. Phillips, 3b; T. Gray, r.f.; Wm. Neal, c.f.; C. Deline, l.f.; T. Neal, ss.

Umpire—Isaac Neal. Base umpire, M. R. Neal.

The next game between these two teams will be played at Marmora and will no doubt be very interesting.

WITH THE BOY SCOUTS

STIRLING BOY SCOUTS

The first troop of Stirling Boy Scouts met on Thursday evening, last week and the meeting opened in due form. There were 19 members present. The leaders lost no time in getting down to real Scout work and many of the boys qualified for their badges. Let us urge that each fellow take this work seriously and get as many badges as possible. We are all proud of Scout Morley Reid, who by his courage and presence of mind saved a younger boy from drowning. Scoutmaster Tom Ward took the boys on a pleasant hike to the woods on Sunday afternoon. Tom says the boys hustled him. Some of the patrol leaders are planning to take their men on a tramp and overnight camp.

DELORO WOLF CUBS

May 19—The meeting was held in the public school grounds, opening with the Grand Howl. Roll call showed eleven boys present, and dues were taken. It was announced that dues must be paid up to date at the next meeting, after which no fees will be taken until the fall. Meetings will continue for the time being. With Wilfred Gray and Pat Browley as captains the boys played four innings of baseball. The teams were fairly evenly matched and the boys had a lot of fun. Games, relay team races and prisoner's base were played. The Blacks were the winners in both games. The final Howl was taken and the boys dismissed.

DELORO BOY SCOUTS

May 21—Meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer. Roll call showed 8 present, also A. S. M. Kerr. The latter gave the boys a short talk on athletics, impressing on them the desirability of having an active athletic patrol, especially for summer activities. As the boys had practised baseball earlier in the evening, the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

DELORO GIRL GUIDES

May 2—Meeting opened with the Tenth Guide Law. Prayer read by the Lieutenant, Mrs. Kerr. Discussion of the plans for Field Day, to be held on Saturday, May 28th, in the village, followed. The prizes are to be boxes of home-made candy, made by the Guides themselves, with a special prize to be given to the company winning the most points. Marmora and Havelock Companies have already sent in notice of their acceptance of the invitation to be present. The Scouts will also assist. Discussion of the tree planting ceremony to be held in Deloro on Friday, May 26, was also held. At 4 o'clock of that day officers and patrol leaders of Deloro Guides will go to Marmora for their ceremony, returning to Deloro immediately for the Deloro ceremony, with the Marmora officers and patrol leaders. On Sunday, May 29th, the Deloro Guides will also parade to the United Church in Marmora. The Company will turn out in force, uniformed, at 11.15. The Deloro Guide Yell and Song, a recent addition, was practiced and Bernice McInroy appointed cheer leader. Games were played and the company closed with Taps and dismissal.

DELORO WOLF CUBS

May 12—Meeting opened with the Grand Howl taken by A.C.M. Mrs. Kerr. The Lord's Prayer followed. Attendance and dues were marked, and Mr. Kerr had a talk with the boys on discipline. Mr. Loveless, chairman of the group committee, presented Claire O'Neill with his Senior Sixers' stripes, thereby fully investing him as such. A few well chosen words encouraged the recipient. The meeting then closed with the Grand Howl, taken by the Cubmaster.

The Scouts and Cubs marched in orderly fashion and on their behalf Percy Gray, P.L., presented Mr. and Mrs. Kerr with a lovely mantle chime clock. Mr. Kerr expressed his deep appreciation. The Girl Guides then marched in and presented Mr. and Mrs. Kerr with a lovely green glass sandwich plate. Mrs. Kerr replied, thanking the assembled group for their thoughtfulness, and asked them to carry on no matter what happened. Then they sang "for they're a jolly good couple" and were dismissed. Again the bride and groom wish to thank them very very much for their kindness.

DELORO GIRL GUIDES

May 17—The meeting opened with the Guide Law Prayer. The log was read and points allotted. Patrol leaders reported eleven present. Dues were discussed and the rate was finally changed to 10 cents a month, to be paid the first meeting of the month. Tree planting during Guide Week May 22 to 29th was discussed, but finally laid over until the next meeting. A field day was discussed for May 28th and it was decided to send out invitations. The girls will pack boxes of homemade candy for prizes. The Camp to be held at Concession during the first two weeks of July was discussed. Our girls have been invited to attend, and it is to be hoped that several of the girls will be able to go. Relay games were played, in which the Bantam patrol proved successful, winning two more points. A new song and yell were practiced, and the meeting closed with Taps.
